William Clay Ford

CHAIRMAN AND PRESIDENT

For more than three decades, William Clay Ford has guided the Detroit Lions organization with a sense of stability, integrity and honest leadership. Never one to seek the limelight, Mr. Ford has not sought public accolades for his many contributions to football, the automobile industry and his community.

Known as Bill Ford to his friends and business associates, his relationship with the Lions began during his childhood when his father, Edsel Ford, took him to the University of Detroit Stadium to see the first Lions' team play in their maiden season in the Motor City in 1934.

He became a club director in 1956 and was asked by then-Lions' President Edwin J. (Andy) Anderson to become the Lions' president in 1961.

In November of 1963, Mr. Ford purchased the team outright for $4.5 million and officially took over the club January 10, 1964.

The 1996 season marks Mr. Ford's 33rd year as the sole owner of the club, and after making generous investments via free agency and shrewd development through the draft, he believes the Lions should contend for the NFL's top prize.

"While making the playoffs four times in the last five years is impressive, we have not accomplished our ultimate goal," Mr. Ford said. "That goal is to win a Super Bowl. I feel confident that we are moving in that direction. We are not where we want to be yet, but I have every reason to believe that we are close and we are doing everything we possibly can to get there."

Of course, Mr. Ford's other passion in life is the automobile industry, he being a grandson of inventor and auto pioneer Henry Ford, founder of the Ford Motor Company.

Although he retired from his post as Ford Motor Company Vice Chairman in March of 1989, Mr. Ford remains a member of the Board of Directors and serves on its Finance Committee as well as on its Organization Review and Nominating Committee. He has been a board member since 1948 and was chairman of the company's Design Committee since its inception in 1957 until retirement in 1989.

Utilizing his expertise in design, Mr. Ford is on special assignment as a design consultant focusing his efforts on the Jaguar.

During his career with the company, Mr. Ford gained special satisfaction and acclaim as the executive in charge of the design, development and subsequent introduction of the Continental Mark II, the successor to the classic Lincoln Continental that had been developed and introduced by his father Edsel in 1939.

The youngest of Edsel's four children, William Clay Ford was born March 14, 1925. Following a tour of duty with the U.S. Naval Air Corp, he enrolled at Yale, where he captained both the tennis and soccer teams at the Ivy League school. In fact, he was a nationally ranked tennis player until two Achilles tendon surgeries relegated him to the sidelines. (Mr. Ford's athletic participation today includes some tennis, although he prefers golf, a game in which he became nearly a scratch performer.)

He graduated from Yale with a Bachelor of Science degree in economics and then joined Ford's sales and advertising staff. He later served on the industrial relations staff where he was a member of the committee that negotiated the historic 1949 contract with the UAW-CIO.

Mr. Ford also is Chairman Emeritus of the Board of Trustees of the Edison Institute, which operates Greenfield Village and the Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn. He is an honorary life trustee of the Eisenhower Medical Center, and serves as a director or a trustee for the Boys' Club of America, the United Way of Southeastern Michigan, and the Economic Club of Detroit. He is also a trustee for the Michigan Heart Association and to the Ronald Reagan Presidential Foundation. He received an honorary doctor of science degree from the Art Center College of Design in Pasadena, California, in 1981.

He is married to the former Martha Firestone of Akron, Ohio, and they are the parents of three daughters — Martha, Sheila and Elizabeth — and a son, Bill Jr., who serves as the Lions' Vice Chairman.

William Clay Ford, Jr.

VICE CHAIRMAN

William Clay Ford, Jr., in his second year as the Lions' Vice Chairman, has already made his mark on the organization. Ford, the son of Lions' Owner and President William Clay Ford, was appointed to the position in February, 1995. Bill Ford, Jr. shares his father's commitment and devotion for the franchise and a burning passion to win. Like his father, he has a vision of the Lions as one of the premier franchises in the National Football League.

Bill Ford, Jr.'s impact on the Lions has been evident as the organization has taken some major steps forward in the past year. In his first year, the Lions instituted a new ticket policy; launched a more aggressive marketing campaign; began publishing a team newspaper; and started weekly radio and television shows that air during the season. Detroit has also become one of the first National Football League teams to establish its own web site on the Internet. In addition, the club has entered into a new partnership with Infinity Broadcasting for the Lions' radio broadcast rights.

"Along with my father, I feel that the Detroit Lions should be one of the top franchises, not only in the National Football League, but in all of sports," Ford said. "Our goal is for the Lions to be a Super Bowl champion on the field and a leader in the community. I have and will continue to make every effort to ensure that these goals are met."

Bill Ford, 39, had been Treasurer of the Lions since 1980. He is a member of the National Football League Finance Committee and has been one of four National Football League representatives on the World League Board of Directors since October, 1994.

Mr. Ford was elected to Ford Motor Company's Board of Directors on January 14, 1988. He assumed the position of Chairman of the Finance Committee for Ford Motor on January 1, 1995, at which time he also joined the Organization Review and Nominating Committee.

Prior to assuming his current responsibilities, he was Vice President of the Commercial Truck Vehicle Center. Since joining the company in 1979 he has held several positions including: General Manager of the Climate Control Division; Manager of Ford Heavy Truck Engineering and Manufacturing; a three-year assignment in Europe during which he was director of Commercial Vehicle Marketing for Ford of Europe and chairman and managing director of Ford Switzerland; Car Product Development planning manager; international finance specialist; member of Ford's bargaining team for negotiations with the UAW; zone manager for district sales in the New York-New Jersey area and product planning analyst in Advanced Vehicles Development.

The Princeton University graduate earned a master's degree in management as an Alfred P. Sloan Fellow at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Mr. Ford is a member of the boards of trustees of the Edison Institute (Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village), Henry Ford Health System, a member of the World Economic Forum's Global Leaders for Tomorrow and Vice Chairman of the Greater Downtown Partnership, Inc. Board of Directors.

Chuck Schmidt

EXECUTIVE VICE-PRESIDENT AND CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

In the era of free agency, salary cap and revenue sharing issues in the National Football League, the unwavering presence of Chuck Schmidt, the Lions' Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, has guided the Lions with stability and continuity.

Following two NFC Central Division titles and four postseason appearances in five years, the Lions have become perennial playoff contenders. The Lions, however, are not content with just making the playoffs. Detroit's ability to keep its core of star players intact combined with fine-tuning personnel in areas of need can be attributed largely to Schimdt's ability to manage the Lions' payroll under the salary cap.

Schmidt, 49, assumed his current duties on December 27, 1989, when he succeeded Russ Thomas as the organization's top officer. In his first year at the helm, he hired a new Director of Player Personnel in Ron Hughes.

Schmidt later re-organized the front office staff to reflect the club's increased emphasis in the areas of marketing, promotions, and community and media relations.

Now in his 21st year with the Lions, Schmidt has performed a variety of duties during his tenure, providing the Detroit native with a keen and unique insight into the overall operation of the organization. He has been with the Lions since 1976 when he joined the club as a CPA. He soon thereafter was promoted to the team's controller. In 1987, Schmidt was named to the position of Vice President for Finance.

Under Schmidt's direction in 1990, the club established Detroit Lions Charities, a non-profit organization which assists various charitable and worthwhile causes in Michigan. The University of Michigan and Wayne State graduate serves on the board of directors for the program and is Secretary-Treasurer. He also serves on the Board of Directors for CATCH; the board of the Pontiac Development Foundation, which is an organization established to enhance economic progress in the Pontiac area; the board of the Leader Dogs for the Blind in Rochester; and the Board of Trustees for the Henry Ford Medical Group, the Oakland Region.

Chuck Schmidt with NFL Commisioner Paul Tagliabue

Ron Hughes

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Ron Hughes, the Lions' Director of Player Personnel for the last six years, was named the Lions' Vice President of Player Personnel in May.

In his role as Vice President of Player Personnel, Hughes coordinates and supervises all of the Lions' college and pro scouting efforts. He was promoted to Director of Player Personnel in June, 1990, after having worked in the department since 1983. He had served as the Lions' Director of Pro Scouting, where he primarily was responsible for the advance scouting reports of the Lions' opponents during the football season. He also scouted the top 100 college prospects each year.

Hughes is a 1965 graduate of California State College of Pennsylvania. He returned to his native Pittsburgh and coached for 14 years on the high school level, including five seasons as head coach of North Catholic High School.

In 1979, Hughes joined BLESTO, a National Football League scouting combine, where he spent four seasons scouting eastern colleges. He spent his first two years (1983-84) with the Lions as a college scout, before moving to pro scouting in 1985.

The 53-year-old Hughes and his wife Adrianne have three children (Ted, Scott and Jennifer) and reside in Lathrup Village, Mich.

Bill Keenist

VICE PRESIDENT OF COMMUNICATIONS, SALES AND MARKETING

Bill Keenist takes on the new role as the Lions Vice President of Communications, Sales and Marketing after two years as Vice President for Administration and Communications. Keenist, a fixture in the Lions' front office for the last 11 years, was appointed to the position by Chuck Schmidt in May. He oversees the Lions' media relations, community relations, marketing and ticket departments as well as managing all of the Lions' broadcasting concerns.

The Lions have made great strides in these areas in recent years. Under Keenist's direction, the Lions have launched their own weekly radio and television shows; a weekly team newspaper and their own Web site on the Internet — the first full-service Web site for any team in the NFL. Plans for the 1996 season include the debut of a live weekly television pregame show to be broadcast state-wide before each Lions' home game.

This past off-season Keenist negotiated a new, five-year radio contract with Infinity Broadcasting (WXYT-AM 1270) for the Lions local radio broadcasting rights. During the 1995 season the Lions introduced a mini-season ticket package with great success and the team enjoyed the highest average attendance (70,632) in fourteen years and had five sold-out games shown on local television — the most local broadcasts since 1981.

Keenist, 38, has been with the Lions since 1985 when he was hired as assistant public relations director. In 1987 he was named director of public relations, a position he held until his appointment as Director of Marketing, Broadcasting and Communications in 1991.

Prior to joining the Lions, Keenist worked for the Washington Redskins from 1981-83 as a public relations assistant and Director of Promotions. He was a member of the Redskins when the team won Super Bowl XVII in 1983 over Miami.

Keenist left the Redskins to become P.R. Director of the Pittsburgh Maulers of the United States Football League. After the Maulers, Keenist was the Sports P.R. Director for the Pittsburgh Civic Arena, where he worked primarily with the Pittsburgh Penguins hockey team.

Keenist's talents have been recognized around the NFL. He has worked for the NFL public relations staff at the last nine Super Bowls, for five of them he had the honor of being selected the public relations co-captain, which involves the coordination of all media-related activities at the Super Bowl.

He also served as the P.R. Chairman of the NFC Central Division and Chairman of the Public Relations Special Projects Committee.

A native of Elizabeth, Pa., Keenist holds a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University, he also received his bachelor's degree from Ohio University. He served a graduate internship at Duke University where he worked in the athletic department.

He lives in Oxford with his wife Cindy and their three children, sons Billy and Christopher and daughter Lindsay.

Larry Lee
VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

Former Lion lineman Larry Lee, entering his fourth year in the Lions' front office, begins his first year as Vice President of Football Administration. Lee, who was promoted in May, has been the Lions' Director of Player Programs and Pro Personnel Assistant the last three years.

In his new position, Lee will continue to negotiate contracts and coordinate all aspects of football administration, including the equipment, training and video departments, as well as player programs, team travel and training camp.

He will continue to administer player programs such as continuing education and financial seminars and assisting in scouting and evaluating talent.

An all-Pac Ten performer and team captain as a senior at UCLA, Lee was selected by Detroit in the fifth round of the 1981 draft. Lee spent five seasons with the Lions as a center-guard and long snapper, then was released during the 1985 season and signed by Miami where Lee played through the '86 season. He finished his career with Denver (1987-90), playing with the Bronco team that advanced to Super Bowl XXII.

Lee, 36, began planning for his post-football career while he was still playing, taking part in the Ford Motor Co. Minority Dealer Program, then working full time as Mel Farr's administrative assistant from 1990-92. Lee spent a year as general manager at White Allen Honda in his hometown Dayton, Ohio.

Larry and his wife Daphne have two daughters, Dayna (11) and Danielle (8).

Tom Lesnau
VICE PRESIDENT OF FINANCE AND CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Tom Lesnau was named to the newly created position of Vice President of Finance and Chief Financial Officer in May. Lesnau is one of the senior members of the Lions' organization, having been a member of the front office for the last 18 years.

His new role will consist of supervising the club's financial operations, including budgeting, payroll, purchasing, accounting and all other financial matters. In addition to those responsibilities, he will manage all office administration, computer, non-team travel and facilities management areas relating to club operations as well as continuing his role as the Lions' liaison with the Pontiac Silverdome Stadium Authority.

He was named Controller of the Lions in January of 1991 after serving as the team's accountant for 13 years. Lesnau came to the Lions from the accounting firm of Ernst and Whinney (now Ernst and Young) where he had worked for five years. He was hired as the club's accountant in 1978 and took over the additional duties of travel coordinator in 1980. Lesnau also coordinated the construction of the players' lounge as well as the construction of the ticket and marketing offices and the conversion of the old ticket office into the public relations office in 1991.

Lesnau, a native of Detroit, received his degree in accounting from Michigan State University and is a Certified Public Accountant. He resides in Waterford.

David Wm. Potts

VICE PRESIDENT - GENERAL COUNSEL

In the era of free agency and the salary cap, having the best possible legal advice is paramount. David Wm. Potts fills a significant role as the Lions' Vice President - General Counsel. Potts, 54, advises Chuck Schmidt and the Lions' organization on legal matters and provides counsel on general corporate questions, league issues and governmental relations. He joined the Lions in August, 1994.

Potts' familiarity with the Lions is a tremendous plus as he continues his long association with the organization. The Lions have tapped into his vast reservoir of legal expertise many times in the past. A practicing attorney since 1969, Potts, before the Lions, was a senior partner in the Birmingham law firm of Carson, Fischer and Potts.

A Bloomfield Hills, Michigan native, Potts attended Hillsdale College and Eastern Michigan University, and graduated from the Wayne State University School of Law in 1969.

Chief among Potts' professional and personal honors was his 1991 appointment to the President's Commission on White House Fellowships, a position he held for two years. He also received the Arthur L. Robbins Award in trial practice from Wayne State

He is admitted to practice in all Michigan Courts, U.S. District Court - Eastern District of Michigan, and U.S. Court of Appeals - 6th Circuit.

Among Potts' professional memberships are: American Bar Association - State Bar of Michigan and Oakland County Bar Association.

In addition to his professional experience, Potts has been active in several civic organizations: Oakland County Economic Development Corporation (Director and Officer), Oakland County Legal Aid Society, Oakland County Bar Association (Public Relations Committee Chairman and Vice Chairman In-House Counsel Committee), American Heart Association Corporate Advisory Board and Detroit Institute of Arts (Founders Junior Council member and President).

His wife, Wendy L. Potts, is also a practicing attorney and is currently a director of the State Bar of Michigan. David and Wendy have two daughters, Kelly and Stephanie, recent graduates of the University of Michigan and Indiana University.

Wayne Fontes

HEAD COACH

62-60 Career Record (61-56 regular season)
12th Year with Lions * 8th Full Season as Head Coach
21st Year in NFL

Wayne Fontes, the winningest coach in Lions' history, enters his eighth full season as head coach. Fontes holds the Lions' record for most victories with 62 (61 regular season, one post-season). He has also coached the most games in team history (122) and is tied with Monte Clark for second most seasons as head coach (one behind George Wilson) wth seven seasons under his belt.

Fontes has led the Lions to two NFC Central Division titles and four playoff appearances in the last five years, the first time in club history that feat has been accomplished.

Over the past few seasons, Detroit has enjoyed a Lion's share of success under Fontes:

- Fontes has 62 wins (61 regular season, one post-season) as Detroit's head coach, the most in team history. He has coached more games than any other Lions' coach with 122.
- The Lions' 10-6 record in 1995 marked the first time in more than 20 years that the team recorded three consecutive winning seasons (the Lions posted winning records each season 1969 through 1972).
- Detroit's 46 regular season wins since 1991 are the most ever recorded by Detroit in any five-year span (the Lions won 41 games 1950-54).
- For the first time in club history, the Lions have qualified for post-season play four times in five years (the best previous streak was three in a row from 1952-54). The Lions became one of only six teams in the NFL to own such a streak over the past five seasons. The other teams are Dallas and Kansas City (each of the last five years) and San Francisco, Buffalo, and Pittsburgh (four times). Also, only six teams have reached the playoffs in each of the last three years — Detroit, Dallas, San Francisco, Green Bay, Kansas City and Pittsburgh.
- Over the last three seasons, the Lions have posted 29 regular season wins, only two NFC teams, Dallas (36) and San Francisco (34), have won more games over that span. The Lions' victory total since 1993 is also the most in franchise history over a three-year period (Detroit won 28 games — 9, 10 and 9 — from 1952-54).
- In 1991, Fontes led the Lions to a series of "firsts": Detroit recorded its first 12-win season, the Lions hosted their first playoff game in the Silverdome (and beat Dallas, 38-6), and the club made its first trip to the NFC Championship Game.
- In recent years under Wayne Fontes, Lions fans have witnessed the best football played by the Detroit franchise in a generation. Over the past 20 years, Detroit has qualified for post-season play six times — four times under Fontes. The Lions have won a total of three divisional crowns, and Fontes has led Detroit to two of those titles.
- Since Fontes' first full season in 1989, Lions' players have made 29 appearances in the Pro Bowl (including four players elected to start in last year's contest). In the five years prior to Fontes' tenure, the Lions had a total of just three Pro Bowl selections.
- A trademark of Lions' teams under Fontes has been a "never-say-die" attitude that keeps the team playing hard to the season's end. Fontes' teams have a 26-13 record in games played after Thanksgiving, including a 4-0 mark in 1995 to secure a playoff berth.
- In 1995, the Lions became only the fourth team in NFL history to start the season 0-3 and qualify for the playoffs.
- Only two NFL head coaches have been with their current teams longer than the Lions' Wayne Fontes: New Orleans' Jim Mora (Jan. 28, 1986), and Buffalo's Marv Levy (Nov. 3, 1986). Fontes became Detroit's 17th head coach on Dec. 22, 1988.

Joe Schmidt, 1967-72 6

With 10 wins in 1995, Fontes moved into first place on the club's all-time wins list. In 1995, the Lions won their final seven games to clinch a playoff berth for the third consecutive year.

Fontes did not turn the Lions into winners overnight. The framework for success was built in Fontes' first seasons as head coach.

In 1988, Fontes — then the defensive coordinator under Darryl Rogers — took over as interim head coach for a Detroit team that had lost 34 of its previous 45 games and sparked the Lions to two wins in their final five games. Fontes officially was named the 17th head coach in Detroit Lions' history on December 22, 1988. In his first full season, the Lions ended the year as the NFL's hottest team with five straight victories; scored their most points since the 1983; sent four players to the Pro Bowl for the first time since 1972; and featured NFL Rookie of the Year Barry Sanders. Behind Fontes, the Lions made even greater improvement in 1990; the team tallied 373 points, the second-best output in club history; Sanders became the second player in Lions history to capture the NFL rushing title; Detroit sent five players to the Pro Bowl, the team's most in 18 seasons; and fan enthusiasm and support reached an eight-year high as Silverdome attendance skyrocketed 32 percent from the previous season and 75 percent over 1988.

Under Fontes' leadership, the Lions overcame adversity and tragedy in 1991 to reach the playoffs. The Lions compiled a 12-4 record that season, Fontes' third as head coach, and the 12 victories were the most regular season wins in franchise history. Fontes directed the Lions to their first playoff berth since 1983 and the first home playoff game for Detroit since 1957. Despite the loss of five starters to injury — including guard Mike Utley's spinal cord trauma — Fontes guided the Lions to a Central Division title and the NFC Championship Game, replacing proven starters with promising athletes, refining the defense and redefining the offense. It is little wonder that Fontes earned universal praise as the NFL's Coach of the Year, including honors from the AP, UPI, Pro Football Writers Association, Football News, and Pro Football Weekly. Fontes was also honored by the Maxwell Football Club of Philadelphia and the Touchdown Club of Columbus (Paul Brown Award). He capped the season with a 21-15 victory as the NFC's head coach in the 1992 Pro Bowl.

The league's second-toughest schedule, injuries and the tragic deaths of guard Eric Andolsek and Len Fontes, Detroit's secondary coach and Wayne's brother, took a toll on the 1992 Lions. But Wayne Fontes kept the nucleus of the '91 title team intact, and with the addition of veteran offensive linemen and an attacking defense, Fontes had the Lions geared for success in 1993 when the Lions roared back into the playoff picture, claiming their second division championship in three years and earning a first-round home contest. The 10 victories in 1993 mark just the seventh time Detroit reached double-figures. Fontes led the team on a late-season surge as the Lions won seven of their final 10 games, including four of their last five, to clinch a playoff berth. In fact, Detroit's 46 regular-season wins since 1991 are the most ever recorded by Detroit in any five-year span (the Lions won 41 games 1950-54).

Fontes was born Feb. 17, 1939, in New Bedford, Mass., and lived there until he was 15 when he moved to Canton, Ohio, where his father worked in a steel mill. An exceptional schoolboy athlete at Canton's McKinley High School, he matriculated to Michigan State where he was a two-sport (football and baseball) star and earned All-Big Ten honors as a defensive back. He was selected to play in the North-South and Senior Bowl All-Star games in 1962 before being drafted by the New York Jets where he started in the defensive backfield. His brief pro career (1962) was cut short by a broken leg. However, his 83-yard interception return against Houston (12/15/62) stood as a Jets' record until it was broken in 1989 by Erik McMillan's 93-yarder.

His first coaching job was directing the freshman team at Michigan State in 1965, while he was working on his master's degree in administration (which he later earned). He coached at Visitation High School in Bay City, Mich., in 1966-67, winning the Michigan Class B state championship in 1967 with a team that went 10-0. He then moved on to the college level and was defensive backfield coach at Dayton (1968), Iowa (1969-71) and Southern California (1972-75). It was at the latter stop Fontes began a 13-year association with John McKay, who brought Fontes with him when McKay was named the head coach of the expansion Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1976.

Fontes spent nine years with the Bucs and advanced from secondary coach to defensive coordinator to assistant head coach under McKay. In his first year as the Bucs' defensive coordinator (1982) Tampa Bay led the NFC in defense. He left the Bucs in 1985 to become the Lions' defensive coordinator.

Off the field, Fontes has been extremely active in charitable causes. Gifted with a quick smile and keen sense of humor, Fontes is often seen at community and charity events lending a helping hand. Fontes has taken an active role in many charitable causes, including the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, C.A.T.C.H., Special Olympics, Big Brothers/Big Sisters, D.A.R.E., the Whaley Children Center, the National Paralysis Foundation, the Palmer Drug Abuse Program and the Mike Utley Foundation.

Active on the banquet circuit, he has served as Chairman of the Michigan Chapter of the American Cancer Society's Great American Lockup. He has also served as Chairman of a program to raise $1 million for the expansion of Camp Fowler, a Mayville, Mich. camp for disabled children. Fontes was also the guest of honor at a "Wayne Roast" dinner which benefited the Center for Creative Studies in Detroit. In 1992, Fontes was honored as a "Michiganian of the Year" by the Detroit News. Fontes also has participated in numerous charity golf outings and has been a chairman the past four years of the Detroit Lions Charities' annual golf tournament which benefits numerous causes throughout southeast Michigan. Fontes also serves as chairman for the St. Jude Golf Classic.

Fontes and his wife Evelyn (who met at a high school sock hop in Canton) have three children Mike, Scott and Kim and a granddaughter, Sherron.

Paul Boudreau

OFFENSIVE LINE
3rd year with Lions
10th Year in NFL

Paul Boudreau begins his third season with the Detroit Lions. Last season the offensive line did all the dirty work as the Lions had the top rated offense in the National Football League. The line paved the way for Barry Sanders' 1,500 rushing yards and protected quarterback Scott Mitchell, enabling him to set virtually all of the Lions' single-season passing records. Also, two Lions offensive linemen, center Kevin Glover and tackle Lomas Brown, started the Pro Bowl, the first time the Lions have had two offensive linemen in the Pro Bowl since 1959. In Boudreau's first year with the Lions, the offensive line allowed only 26 sacks, down from 46 the year before and the line opened holes as Barry Sanders rushed for a Lions' single-season high 1,883 yards. The five starters on the offensive line played every snap except one (Doug Widell missed one play against the New York Jets). A 24-year coaching veteran, Boudreau joined the Lions after seven years as the offensive line coach of the New Orleans Saints.

Boudreau began his NFL coaching career with the Saints in 1987. He developed one of the most consistent front lines in all of football during his tenure in New Orleans, and in 1992, the Saints allowed an NFL-low and team-record 15 sacks. He joined New Orleans following four years (1983-86) with the Edmonton Eskimos in the Canadian Football League.

His first coaching experience was at Oxford (Mass.) High School in 1973-74. Boudreau entered the college ranks as the offensive line coach at his alma mater, Boston College. Following three years at Boston College (1974-76), he spent four years (1976-79) at the University of Maine. He made stops at Dartmouth (1979-81) and Navy (1982) prior to joining the Eskimos.

An avid runner, Boudreau ran in the Boston Marathon in 1991. He was born December 30, 1949, and grew up in Arlington, Massachusetts. He and his wife, Joan, have two children, Paul and Jill.

Don Clemons

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT/LB's & DB's
12th Year with Lions
12th Year in NFL

In his twelfth year with the Lions, Don Clemons is the elder statesman of the Lions' coaching staff. He continues to be valuable to the Lions' coaching staff, now working with the linebackers. Added to Clemons' responsibilities this season are the Lions' "nickel" and "dime" defensive packages. Clemons came to Detroit in 1985, and served four seasons as the Lions' strength and conditioning coordinator before handling a variety of duties as a defensive assistant beginning in 1989.

Clemons, 42, is a native of Northampton, Pa. He was a standout defensive end at Muhlenberg (Pa.) College, where he earned All-District honors and was team captain his senior year ('76).

His first coaching experience was at Kutztown State (Pa.) where he tutored outside linebackers for two seasons (1977-78). He then spent one year as linebackers coach at New Mexico State (1979) before joining former Lions' Head Coach Darryl Rogers at Arizona State. Clemons was the strength and conditioning coach for the Sun Devils and also assisted the defensive line coach from 1980-84. Clemons worked with Lions' running backs coach Mo Forte for two years at A.S.U.

Holder of an English degree from Muhlenberg, Clemons and his wife Shawn —who starred in basketball at Arizona State and was an assistant coach on the Oakland University (Rochester, Mich.) women's basketball team that went to the NCAA Division II semifinals in 1989-90 — have two sons, Scot, 5 and Corey, 3.

Jim Eddy

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
1st Year with Lions
7th Year in NFL

Jim Eddy enters his first season with the Lions after spending the last three years on the Dallas Cowboys' staff. Eddy, 57, brings over 30 years of coaching experience to Detroit, including work on the collegiate level, in the CFL and USFL, and the past six seasons in the NFL.

His most recent assignment was a two-year stint tutoring the Cowboys' linebackers after working as a defensive assistant with the secondary and pass defense his first year in Dallas (1993). During his tenure in Dallas, the Cowboys claimed two Super Bowl titles, including a 27-17 win over Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XXX. In 1995, the Cowboys' defense ranked third in the league in average points per game and fourth in the National Football Conference in total defense. In 1994, he helped direct the Cowboys' defense to the NFL's top ranking in total yards (269.9 per game) and passing yards allowed (172.0), while finishing third in scoring defense. Also in 1994, all three linebackers under Eddy's tutelage recorded career-highs for tackles.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Eddy spent three seasons as the Houston Oilers' defensive coordinator (1990-92), where he directed a defense which led the AFC and finished third in the league in total defense. The Oilers also finished third in the league in pass defense and tied for fifth in sacks. Also, two Oilers finished in the top 10 in sacks in the AFC in both 1991 and 1992, including 1991 when William Fuller led the conference and finished second in the league with 15. The Oilers made three playoff appearances during his tenure, including the franchise's first AFC Central Division championship in 1991. Eddy served on the same coaching staff in Houston as Lions' special teams coach Frank Novak.

Eddy spent three seasons as the defensive coordinator for the University of Houston, which posted a 22-10-1 record during his tenure there, prior to joining the Oilers. The Cougars led the Southwest Conference in defense in 1988 and '89.

He spent 1984-85 as the USFL's Houston Gamblers' defensive coordinator. In his two seasons with the Gamblers, the team made consecutive playoff appearances with a 13-5 record and a division title in 1984 and a 10-8 record in 1985.

Eddy's professional coaching career began in the CFL, where he spent 10 seasons, including three as a head coach. His teams earned eight playoff berths and played in four Grey Cup Championship Games. While in Canada, he served stints with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders (defensive coordinator in 1974-76 and head coach in 1977-78), Hamilton Tiger Cats (defensive coordinator in 1979-80), Montreal Alouettes (head coach in 1981) and Toronto Argonauts (1982-83). During his two-year tenure as Director of Operations/Player Personnel for Toronto, the Argonauts played in the Grey Cup Championship Game each year and won the title in 1983.

Following his playing career as a defensive back and running back at New Mexico State, Eddy began his coaching career on the high school level in Odessa, Texas before becoming assistant head coach/defensive coordinator at his alma mater in 1965. Following six seasons with the Aggies, he was named defensive coordinator at Texas-El Paso in 1971.

Jim and his wife, Sharlene welcomed a son, James Franklin Eddy II, in February. Jim also has two daughters, Kelley and Connie.

John Fontes

DEFENSIVE BACKS
5th Year with Lions
5th Year in NFL

John Fontes enters his fifth season as the Lions' defensive backs coach. In 1995, Detroit intercepted 22 passes, the club's highest single-season total since 1986 and an increase from 12 picks in 1994. He took over the position, held by his late brother Len for two seasons, in 1992. John, the younger brother of Head Coach Wayne Fontes, contributes eighteen years of coaching experience to the Lions' staff.

Fontes spent the spring of 1992 as a defensive assistant with the World League Champion Sacramento Surge. In 1991 he served as the defensive coordinator for the Tampa Bay Storm in the Arena League, and the Storm won the Arena League championship with a 13-2 record. Prior to his stint with the Storm, John was an assistant at Louisiana State University. He tutored the defensive backs in 1986-88 and he coached the outside linebackers in 1989.

He played collegiately for the University of Iowa, however his career was cut short by a knee injury. After his injury, he became a graduate assistant for the Hawkeyes and received a degree in physical education. Fontes' next coaching experience came in 1973 at Long Beach Poly High School where he was defensive coordinator and tutored defensive backs. They compiled a record of 26-4 with two league championships during his four-year tenure there. He coached the linebackers at Oregon State from 1976-80 and also worked with the secondary. Fontes left coaching from 1980-84 and worked for Levi Strauss and Company.

In 1984, Fontes returned to the coaching ranks, spending one season at Northwestern before moving on to the University of Miami. In 1985, Fontes was the linebacker coach for the Hurricanes, a season in which the Hurricane defense finished fifth in the nation in total defense and seventh in scoring defense.

Fontes and his wife, Therese, have two children, John and Ashlee.

Mo Forte

RUNNING BACKS
2nd Year with Lions
9th year in NFL

Mo Forte begins his second season with the Lions. In his first year, running back Barry Sanders rushed for 1,500 yards, the third-highest total of his career. Also, Sanders caught a career-high 48 passes. He joined the Lions following seven years with the Denver Broncos. Forte tutored the Broncos' running backs from 1988-92 and coached the receivers in 1993-94. Under his tutelage, Denver was one of only 12 teams to have three straight 1,000-yard seasons produced by two different running backs (Bobby Humphrey and Gaston Green). Also, during his stint in Denver Forte coached Hall of Famer Tony Dorsett. The Broncos appeared in Super Bowl XXIV following the 1989 season and advanced to the AFC Championship Game following the 1991 season.

Forte, 49, spent 12 years coaching on the major college level prior to joining the Broncos. He was the head coach at North Carolina A&T State University for six years (1982-87). In 1986, he led the Aggies to a 9-3 record and the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference championship.

Prior to his stint at North Carolina A&T, Forte spent two years (1980-81) at Arizona State. While at Arizona State, Forte was on the same staff as Lions' linebacker coach Don Clemons. Three of Forte's players at Arizona State were drafted into the NFL; John Mistler, Melvin Hoover and Ron Washington. The 1981 Sun Devil squad set numerous Pac-10 records.

Forte coached at Michigan State for two years (1978-79). While at Michigan State, Forte tutored all-American Kirk Gibson and the 1978 Spartans won the Big 10 championship. He spent two years (1976-77) at Duke before moving on to East Lansing. Forte broke into the college coaching ranks at his alma mater, Minnesota. He coached at Minnesota for six years (1970-75).

The Hannibal, Missouri, native was a starting running back during his college career at the University of Minnesota. He earned his degree in education from Minnesota in 1971. Forte is single. He has a daughter, Dawn, a senior at the University of North Carolina.

Bert Hill

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING/DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT
7th Year with Lions
7th Year in NFL

Bert Hill begins his seventh season with the Lions. Hill oversees the team's year-round strength and conditioning program. In addition, he has assisted with the defensive line the last six seasons. This season he will work with Frank Novak and the special teams

Hill came to the Lions in March, 1990, following his second stint at Texas A&M. He worked at Texas A&M for six years (1983-88) where the Aggies won three straight Southwest Conference titles. He served one year (1988-89) at Ohio State before returning to Texas A&M.

Hill began his coaching career at Cloverdale Junior High (Montgomery, Ala.) in 1979. After two years, he moved on to Nichols State (1981-82) where he was assistant defensive line/ strength coach. He earned his master's degree from Auburn where he again assisted with the strength program (1982-83). He played two years at Marion (Ala.) Military Institute (1976-77). Hill played one year (1978) at linebacker at Wichita State University. He earned his degree in physical education from Auburn University.

The 38-year-old (Jan. 25, 1958) Montgomery, Ala. native and his wife, Tara, reside in Rochester Hills.

Steve Kazor

TIGHT ENDS/ OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT
3rd Year with Lions
15th Year in NFL

Steve Kazor enters his second season as the Lions' tight ends after serving as special teams coach in 1994. Kazor worked diligently with rookie David Sloan last season and was instrumental in the development of Sloan as he emerged into one of the most promising young tight ends in the National Football League. Kazor joined the Lions following one year as the head coach at Iowa Wesleyan University where under Kazor's guidance, Iowa Wesleyan compiled an 9-3 record and finished seventh in the country in NAIA Division I in 1993.

Prior to his stint at Iowa Wesleyan, Kazor spent 11 years with Mike Ditka and the Chicago Bears. He was the Bears' defensive assistant/special teams coach from 1982-85, and from 1985-91 he tutored the tight ends as well as the special teams. In 1992, he was the tight ends and assistant offensive line coach and also served as Assistant to the Head Coach. From 1986-92, Kazor worked on the same staff as Lions' quarterbacks coach, Greg Landry. Kazor was on the Bears' staff in 1985 when the team went 15-1 in the regular season en route to winning Super Bowl XX.

Kazor entered the pro ranks with Dallas as an assistant to Gil Brandt in the Cowboys' scouting department from 1979-81. Kazor joined the Cowboys after two years (1979-80) as the recruiting coordinator and assistant coach at Texas El-Paso. He was an assistant coach at Texas from 1977-79. Kazor served as defensive coordinator at Southern Utah State University in 1976 after spending 1975 in a similar capacity at Colorado State and one year (1974) as an assistant coach at Texas-Arlington.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Westminster College. Kazor started at nose tackle for four years and was tri-captain at Westminster.

Kazor earned his masters degree in athletic administration from Kansas State College. He went to Rancho High School in Las Vegas before matriculating to Westminster.

Born in Arnold, Pennsylvania, Kazor and his wife, Colleen, have two sons, Lance and Kyle.

Greg Landry

QUARTERBACKS
2nd Year with Lions
9th Year in NFL

Greg Landry is in the second year of his second tour of duty with the Lions. Landry, who played 11 seasons at quarterback for the Lions, "rejoined" the team as quarterbacks coach in 1995. Last season, with the help of Landry's tutelage, quarterback Scott Mitchell set Lions' single-season records for passing attempts, completions, yards and touchdowns and the Lions finished the season with the top rated offense in the National Football League. Landry came to the Lions following two years as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Illinois. In his last season in Champaign, Illinois ranked second in the Big Ten and 17th in the country in passing.

Landry, 49, spent seven years with the Chicago Bears preceding his stint at Illinois. During Landry's tenure in Chicago, the Bears won four NFC Central Division championships (1986, '87, '88 and 1990) and also qualified for the playoffs in 1991. He was on the same coaching staff with current Lions' assistant Steve Kazor under Mike Ditka in Chicago. Landry joined the Bears in 1986 as receivers coach and the quarterbacks were added to his responsibilities in 1987-88. He served as offensive coordinator from 1989-92. Under Landry's guidance the Bears had their most productive passing season ever in 1991. Chicago established a team record with 3,120 yards while Bears' quarterback Jim Harbaugh set club records for pass attempts and completions.

His first coaching job was as quarterbacks coach for the Cleveland Browns in 1985. He tutored Bernie Kosar as the Browns won the AFC Central Division title.

The Lions' first round selection in the 1968 draft, Landry went on to play 11 seasons with Detroit. One of Landry's favorite targets was tight end Charlie Sanders, currently the Lions' receivers coach. Landry is second to Hall of Famer Bobby Layne in four passing categories: attempts (1,747); completions (957); yards (12,457) and touchdown passes (80). His 19 career rushing touchdowns are the most by a Lions' quarterback, and he trails only Barry Sanders and Billy Sims for most rushing touchdowns in a season with nine. He played in the Pro Bowl in 1972. Landry was traded to the Baltimore Colts in 1979 and played for the Colts through the 1981 season. He then played two seasons (1983-84) with the USFL's Chicago Blitz/Arizona Wranglers. His 17-year playing career concluded in 1984 when the Bears signed him to their roster during the final week of the season. He started against Detroit in a 30-13 win. In his career, Landry played in 147 NFL games, with 103 starts. He attempted 2,300 passes with 1,275 completions for 16,502 yards and 98 touchdowns. Landry rushed for 2,654 yards (a 6.2 avg.) and 20 touchdowns.

A native of Nashua, N.H., Landry earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from the University of Massachusetts and a master's degree in sports administration from Wayne State University. He and his wife Jeannine (UMass '75) are both members of the Massachusetts Athletic Hall of Fame, Greg for football and Jeannine for gymnastics. Greg and Jeannine have five children, Kathleen, Beth, Gregory, Mary and Joseph.

Dave Levy

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH
8th Year with Lions
17th Year in NFL

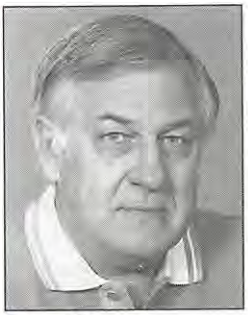

Thirty-seven years of coaching experience are wrapped around Assistant Head Coach Dave Levy. Now the Assistant Head Coach, he served as Detroit's offensive coordinator in 1991 and 1994.

Having coached virtually every position at one time or another during his career, the 63-year-old (Oct. 25, 1932) Levy came to Motown after nine seasons with the San Diego Chargers, most recently as coach of the tight ends and H-backs. He also was San Diego's offensive coordinator (1983-85,'87) and coached the offensive line (1980-87). Levy coached on two divisional championship teams ('80-'81) and the "Air Coryell" offense flourished when the Chargers led the NFL (1981-83) by allowing only one sack for every 27 passing attempts.

A two-year performer at guard for UCLA, Levy began his coaching career with the Bruins' freshman team in '54, and as an assistant at Long Beach City College (1955). Following four seasons in the California high school ranks (1956-59), he coached for 16 years at the University of Southern California. During the 1972-75 seasons, Levy and Wayne Fontes were assistants under former Trojan field general John McKay. During Levy's tenure at USC, the Trojans appeared in eight Rose Bowls. Before entering the NFL ranks (at San Diego) he concluded his USC stint as an assistant athletic director (1976-79).

Born in Carrollton, Missouri, Levy grew up in Long Beach, Calif. He and his wife Barrie have four children (Laurie, Ariel, John and Robert), and reside in Southfield.

Tom Moore

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR
3rd Year with Lions
20th Year in NFL

Nineteen-year NFL coaching veteran Tom Moore enters his third year with the Lions, his second as offensive coordinator. Last season Detroit led the National Football League in total offense and set several league and team records along the way. The Lions set team records for passing attempts, completions, yards and touchdowns. Also, the Lions became the first team in NFL history to have two receivers with over 100 catches in a season (Herman Moore caught an NFL-record 123 and Brett Perriman grabbed 108). The duo also set an NFL record for most receiving yards in a season by two players on the same team.

Tom Moore joined the Lions following four years with Minnesota Vikings. He started in Minnesota in 1990 after 13 years with the Pittsburgh Steelers. He served as Assistant Head Coach/ Quarterbacks Coach in his first season with the Vikings, then became the Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Coordinator in 1991. Moore tutored the Vikings' receivers in 1992-93 when Dennis Green became head coach.

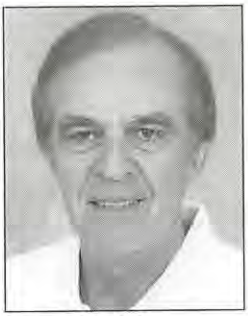

Moore started his NFL coaching career with the Steelers in 1977. He tutored the Steelers' receivers until 1983, when he was named Offensive Coordinator and Quarterbacks Coach. During his tenure with the Steelers, he assisted Head Coach Chuck Noll in leading Pittsburgh to victories in Super Bowls XIII and XIV.

He began his coaching career in 1961 as the freshman coach at his alma mater, Iowa. He spent two years with the Hawkeyes before serving a two-year stint in the Army (1963-64) where he coached a division team in Korea and the post team at Fort Benning, Georgia.

After his tour of duty in the Army, Moore returned to the college level as the offensive backfield coach at Dayton. After four years with the Flyers (1965-68), he became the Offensive Coordinator at Wake Forest in 1969. In 1970-71, Moore coached the offensive backfield at Georgia Tech. He was the Offensive Coordinator at the University of Minnesota in 1972-73. Following a one-year stint with the New York Stars in the World Football League (1974), he returned to Minnesota as the Offensive Coordinator from 1975-76.

Moore played quarterback for the Hawkeyes from 1957-60. He graduated from Iowa in 1961 with a degree in history and earned his master's degree in guidance from Dayton in 1966.

Born November 7, 1938, Moore and his wife, Emily, have a daughter, Terry, and a son, Daniel.

Frank Novak

SPECIAL TEAMS
2nd Year with Lions
8th Year in NFL

Frank Novak enters his second season as the Lions' special teams coach following six years with the Houston Oilers. In Novak's first season in Detroit, the Lions kickoff coverage unit finished third in the league in average starting yard line. Also, kicker Jason Hanson led the NFC and set a new Lions' single-season record with 132 points. Novak tutored the Oilers running backs from 1989-93 and special teams were added to his responsibilities in 1994.

Under Novak's tutelage in 1994, the Oilers' special teams limited their opponents to a league-low 17.3 yards per kickoff return. The Oilers were third in the NFL with a 36.4 net punting average. The Oilers' John Henry Mills was an alternate to the Pro Bowl in 1994 as a special teams player. Houston's running backs averaged in the top five in yards per rush in 1992 and 1993 and Lorenzo White went to the Pro Bowl in 1992.

Novak, 57, joined the Oilers following one year (1988) as the running backs coach at Missouri. He was the quarterbacks coach at the University of Massachusetts in 1986. Novak went to Massachusetts after the Birmingham Stallions of the United States Football League folded. He was going to be the Stallions' offensive coordinator in 1986 after spending the 1985 season as the Stallions' receivers coach. In 1984, Novak was the running backs coach for the USFL's Oklahoma Outlaws.

Prior to his stint in the USFL, Novak coached at Holy Cross for six seasons (1978-83). He coached the Crusaders' offensive backs for four years (1978-81) then was promoted to offensive coordinator. Novak was the offensive coordinator at Western Illinois for two seasons (1976-77) before landing at Holy Cross. He spent two years (1974-75) at the University of Virginia, coaching the quarterbacks in 1974 and offensive backs in 1975. In 1973, Novak was the offensive coordinator at East Carolina. That season, the Pirates won the Southern Conference Championship.

Novak started his college coaching career at his alma mater, Northern Michigan University in 1966. He spent five years (1966-70) as the offensive backs/receivers coach before serving as offensive coordinator for two years (1971-72). Novak coached on the high school level in New London, Connecticut, and Iron Mountain, Michigan, prior to his tenure at Northern Michigan.

A native of Leominster, Massachusetts, Novak was an AP honorable mention quarterback at Northern Michigan. He received his bachelor's and masters' degrees from Northern Michigan. Frank and his wife, Ellen, have one son, Jason. He also has four grown children, son Frank, Jr. and daughters Kimberly, Tracy and Linda.

Charlie Sanders

RECEIVERS
8th Year with Lions
8th Year in NFL

Detroit welcomed a good friend home when Wayne Fontes named Charlie Sanders the team's tight end coach on Jan. 30, 1989. Sanders, who played 10 years with the Lions, was given complete charge of the receivers in 1991. Now in his eighth season with the club, Sanders has helped develop arguably the finest receiving corps in the National Football League. Last season, Herman Moore (an NFL-record 123) and Brett Perriman (108) became the first two receivers from the same team to catch 100 passes in a season in NFL history. The pair also set an NFL record for most receiving yards in a season by two players from the same team. Add the continuing development of Johnnie Morton (44 rec., 590 yds, 8 TDs) and the Lions' receivers are as formidable as any in the league.

Considered the finest tight end in Lions' history, Sanders is the club's all-time leading receiver with 336 receptions, second in yards gained with 4,817 (14.3-yard average), and fourth in touchdown catches with 31. The team's leading receiver during four of his 10 years, Sanders enjoyed his best year in '69, when he gained 656 yards on 42 receptions (he also caught 42 passes in 1974). On the other end of many of his receptions was Lions' quarterbacks coach Greg Landry during their playing days in Detroit.

A durable performer who was forced to retire because of knee problems (July 21, 1978), Sanders missed only 12 games over his 10 seasons (1968-77) with the Lions. The seven-time Pro Bowler and two-time All-Pro member had his best single-game effort of his career during his rookie season when he grabbed 10 passes for 133 yards against Washington (Dec. 15, 1968). He was the only rookie selected that season to appear in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl and, in addition, Sanders finished second to then-teammate Earl McCullough for NFL Rookie of the Year honors.

Sanders' standout Lions' career was recognized in May, 1990, when he was inducted into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame. He was nominated for the National Football League Hall of Fame in 1994 and was on the ballot again in 1995.

A two-sport (football and basketball) star at the University of Minnesota, Sanders concluded his senior season as the Gophers' leading receiver after hauling in 21 receptions for 276 yards and two TD's helping his team win a share of the 1967 Big Ten title.

Sanders remained close to the Lions' organization following his retirement by serving as an analyst on the Lions'/WJR radio broadcast team in the six years prior to joining the Detroit coaching staff. The Richland, N.C., native prepped at (Greensboro) Dudley High School. Born on Aug. 25, 1946, Sanders and his wife Georgiana have nine children (Mia, Charese, Mary Jo, Georgianna, Charlie Jr., Nathalie, Tallisa, Wayne and Jordan).

John Teerlinck

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/DEFENSE
2nd year with Lions
8th year in NFL

When Wayne Fontes decided to switch to a "four-three" defense last season, one of his top priorities was to get more aggressive play from the defensive front. John Teerlinck was brought in to help install the new, more aggressive scheme. The results were evident as the Lions' sack total increased from 28 in 1994 to 42 in 1995, leading all NFC teams in lost yardage with 317 yards. They were led by Henry Thomas whose career-high 10.5 sacks last season were the most by a Lion since 1988. Teerlinck, 44, joined the Lions following three seasons as the defensive line coach for the Minnesota Vikings.

Under Teerlinck, the Vikings' defensive line was known for their dominating line play and their relentlessness in pursuing the quarterback. Three of the four linemen he coached in Minnesota made All-Pro. The Vikings led the league in rushing defense each of his last two seasons (the Vikings limited their opponents to 68.1 yards per game in 1994, the fourth fewest in NFL history) as Minnesota led the league in total defense in 1993 and finished fifth in 1994. In 1993, the Vikings led the NFC in defense against the run and finished third in the league in sacks per pass play. Also in 1993, the Vikings front four totaled 41 sacks, the most by any defensive line in the league. Their total was more than 16 other teams.

The Vikings totaled 51 sacks in 1992, the second highest total in team history and Chris Doleman was named the NFC Defensive Player of the year. Teerlinck has the distinction of tutoring two conference defensive players of the year, Cleveland's Michael Dean Perry garnered the award in 1989 when Teerlinck was coaching the Browns defensive line. He also brought John Randle from an undrafted rookie to a consensus All-Pro defensive tackle in 1993-94.

Prior to his stint with the Vikings, Teerlinck spent one season (1991) with the Los Angeles Rams and two seasons with Cleveland (1989-90). In 1989 the Browns set a team record with 45 sacks. Teerlinck began his pro coaching career in 1983 with the USFL's Chicago Blitz, under the late George Allen, who later became the Arizona Wranglers. The team led the USFL in defense and sacks in each of his three seasons. Teerlinck's players also held nine of the 12 All-USFL defensive line spots available during the league's three-year existence.

Teerlinck spent three years (1980-82) at the University of Illinois under Mike White before moving into the pro ranks. During Teerlinck's tenure, the Fighting Illini had back-to-back winning seasons (1981-82) and played in their first bowl game since the early 1960's. Teerlinck spent two years (1978-79) as the defensive coordinator at Eastern Illinois, along with current Denver head coach Mike Shanahan, prior to joining the Fighting Illini staff. In 1978, the Panthers won the NCAA Division II national title. His first coaching job was at Iowa Lakes Junior College in 1977 after being released by the San Diego Chargers.

A fifth-round draft choice by San Diego in 1974, Teerlinck started two games at defensive end his rookie season. He started five of the first six games at defensive tackle in 1975 before suffering a career-ending knee injury.

Teerlinck earned Little All-America honors and was co-captain as a senior at Western Illinois. He was the teams defensive MVP after totaling 122 tackles and 14 sacks in 1973. He still holds a share of the school's single-game record with four sacks in a 1973 contest. A native of Rochester, N.Y., Teerlinck was named All-Chicago Catholic League at Fenwick High School. He holds a bachelor's degree in physical education from Western Illinois and earned a master's degree in education from Eastern Illinois. In 1986 he opened a highly-successful brokerage business in Phoenix. John and his wife, Sue have five children, Ann, Bill, Mark, Molly and Mary

Howard Tippett

LINEBACKERS
3rd Year with Lions
15th Year in NFL

Howard Tippett begins just his third year with the Detroit Lions, but he is an NFC Central Division veteran after having also coached at Green Bay and Tampa Bay. Tippett spent two seasons with the Los Angeles Rams as special teams coach and defensive assistant before coming to Detroit.

Tippett joined the Rams following four seasons (1988-91) as the special teams coach of the Packers. Prior to his stint in Green Bay, he was the defensive coordinator at the University of Illinois for one season (1987).

He began his NFL coaching career with Tampa Bay in 1981 where he was the special teams coach in 1981 and tutored the linebackers for the Buccaneers from 1981-86. He worked with Wayne Fontes on John McKay's Tampa Bay coaching staff from 1981-84.

Tippett entered the coaching ranks on the high school level after graduating from East Tennessee State University in 1959. Following four years as a high school coach, he moved to the college level in 1963 at Tulane. After a three-year stint at Tulane, Tippett coached at West Virginia in 1966 and 1970-71. He coached at the University of Houston from 1967-69, Wake Forest in 1972, and Mississippi State in 1973. Tippett spent 1974-75 with the Jacksonville Express of the WFL. He coached at Washington State in 1976, Oregon in 1977-78, Mississippi State in 1979, and UCLA in 1980 before joining the Buccaneers.

The Tallassee, Alabama, native was born September 23, 1938. He and his wife, Julie, have one daughter, Taylor. He also has four other daughters (Paige, JoAnn, Terri and Kimberly).

Football Operations

Dan Jaroshewich

EQUIPMENT MANAGER
24th Year with Lions

One of the veteran equipment managers in the NFL, Dan Jaroshewich enters his 24th season of service with the Lions. In 1995, Jaroshewich was named the NFC Central Division representative to the NFL Equipment Manager's Advisory Board by the league.

A native of Windsor, Ontario, Jaroshewich joined the club in 1973 as an assistant to long-time Detroit equipment manager Roy "Friday" Macklem, who spent 45 years with the Lions. Jaroshewich was elevated to equipment manager in 1980.

The 42-year-old Jaroshewich supervises the purchasing, replacing and cleaning of various equipment, uniforms and clothing used by the players and coaching staff.

Prior to joining the Lions, he worked at the high school and semi-pro levels in Windsor, where he also was a standout youth hockey player. He has a degree in personnel and industrial relations from the University of Detroit.

Jaroshewich is also very active with several local charities. He established a coat drive that has been held at the last five Lions' Thanksgiving Day games. Jaroshewich also serves on the committee for the St. Joseph Mercy Hospital auction and is on the board of directors of Kolo Charities, a charity founded by former Lion Bob Kowalkowski. In 1994, Jaroshewich and former Lion Ken Dallafior established the Detroit Lions Courage House at the Haven in Pontiac, a house for battered and abused women and children.

Jaroshewich and his wife Kathy have three children (Jennifer, Jessica and Joey) and they live in Troy, Mich.

Mark Glenn

ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER
13th Year with Lions

Mark Glenn, now in his 13th season with the Lions, is a top assistant in his department in the position of assistant equipment manager.

The 35-year-old Glenn previously worked for the Lions on a part-time basis from 1976-82. He became a full-time employee in 1983 and assists Equipment Manager Dan Jaroshewich in all areas of the equipment operation.

Glenn and his wife, Maria, live in Waterford, Mich., and have four sons (Marc, Matthew, Michael and Mitchell) and a daughter, Melanie.

Steve Hermans

VIDEO DIRECTOR
19th Year with Lions

The man who has "kept his eye" on the Lions for 18 years is Video Director Steve Hermans. He oversees a wide ranging and ever-expanding list of video responsibilities for the coaching staff and player personnel department, as well as any other video needs by the organization.

The 46-year-old Hermans was assistant photo director at WBAY-TV in his native Green Bay, Wis., from 1968 until joining the Lions 10 years later. His contact with football began at WBAY when he processed, edited and printed game films for the Packers.

Hermans spearheaded the Lions' effort in switching from an all film operation to all video in 1986, when the NFL effected a league-wide change. Thanks to Hermans' experience, the Lions made the difficult transition without a hitch.

Steve and his wife Rosann live in Auburn Hills, Mich. with their three sons (Craig, Chad and Keith).

Michael Richardson

ASSISTANT VIDEO DIRECTOR
8th Year with Lions

The demand and use of video has diversified and expanded in recent years, and to maintain its standing as a top video department, the Lions hired Michael Richardson as the first full-time assistant video director in 1991. Richardson assists in all areas of video, including taping practices and games for use by the coaches and scouts.

Mike begins his sixth year in his current position. He started with the Lions in October of 1989 as an office assistant. Richardson, 30, attended Wilberforce University. Mike and his wife, Kim, have a daughter, Ashley and a son, Michael McIver. They reside in Detroit.

Medical Staff

Kent Falb

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER
31st Year with Lions

Entering his 31st season with the Lions, Kent Falb is one of the most respected athletic trainers in the National Football League and throughout the field of athletic medicine. Last fall Falb experienced the high honor of being elected the 22nd president of the National Athletic Trainers' Association. Falb, who officially took office this past June, will lead the 21,000 member organization for two years. He was named the 1984 "Professional Athletic Trainer of the Year" as selected by the members of the National Athletic Trainers Association and he served as president of MATS (Michigan Athletic Trainers Society), in 1989-90. In June, 1991, Falb was inducted into the MATS Hall of Fame, joining three other inductees in the Hall's second class.

Also in 1991, Falb was elected to the Board of Directors of NATA, representing the Great Lakes Athletic Trainers Association (GLATA), one of ten districts that comprises the NATA. He served as Director-elect in 1991 and completed his three-year term as Director in June of 1995. In June of 1994, he was honored by the NATA by being named one of the NATA's first recipients of the "Most Distinguished Athletic Trainer" Award. Falb had the most prestigious distinction of being the keynote speaker for the NATA convention in Columbus, Ohio in June of 1987.

Along with his assistants, Joe Recknagel and Robert Thomas, and Strength and Conditioning Coach Bert Hill, Falb oversees the prevention, evaluation, treatment and rehabilitation of player injuries.

A native of Elgin, Iowa, Falb graduated from the University of Iowa in 1964, and received a Physical Therapy certificate from Iowa one year later. He began his athletic training career in 1959 as an assistant trainer with the U.S. Military Academy at West Point.

He was a student trainer at Iowa throughout college and worked part-time for the Minnesota Vikings in 1963 and 1964. The next year he was named head trainer at Boston College and joined the Lions as assistant trainer under Millard Kelly in 1966. He assumed his present position with the Lions in 1967.

Including preseason and playoff contests, Falb enters the 1995 season having worked 599 consecutive games for the Lions (432 regular season games). Falb, 56, and his wife Maxine have two daughters (Carmen and Nanette) and reside in nearby Lake Orion.

Joe Recknagel

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER
17th Year with Lions

Assistant Athletic Trainer Joe Recknagel has been Kent Falb's right hand man the past 16 seasons. A native of Toledo, Ohio, Recknagel began his athletic training career as a student trainer at Rogers H.S. in Toledo. He attended Ohio University where he was a student assistant trainer for four years (1974-78). While at O.U., he assisted Falb at the Lions' training camp during the summers of 1977-79. After graduation in 1978, Recknagel accepted the position of graduate assistant at Marshall University.

In 1979, he was promoted to assistant trainer at Marshall, and during his tenure there he worked with the football, wrestling and baseball teams. In June of 1980, he joined the Lions.

Recknagel, 40, also donates a great deal of his time and expertise to the Oakland County (Mich.) Special Olympics and to both the Winter and Summer State (of Michigan) Olympic Games, which are held in February and June.

He also served on the Professional Athletic Training Society's advisory board which met with a team representing Gatorade Thirst Quencher for the mutual benefit of both parties. A member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, Recknagel is single and lives in Lake Orion, Mich.

Rob Thomas

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER
7th Year with Lions

With a variety of experience as a trainer in Olympic-type competition, Rob Thomas enters his seventh year as the Lions' Assistant Athletic Trainer. Prior to joining the Lions, Thomas spent four years as a trainer at Decatur High School in Federal Way, Washington. Thomas was the women's basketball team trainer at the 1990 Goodwill Games in Seattle. He also worked at the Washington State Centennial Games in Spokane in 1989. Additionally, he served as an intern with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1988 and 1989.

A student trainer at Gonzaga University from 1978-80, Thomas earned a bachelor's of education in biology and physical education in 1980. He taught science and math on the elementary, junior high and high school levels for 10 years. While teaching, he was the recipient of a National Science Foundation grant for the study of astro-physics. Rob also served as the trainer at Gonzaga Prepatory High School while he taught there. He is currently in the second year of his Masters of Science degree in the Physician Assistant program at the University of Detroit-Mercy. In September of 1997, he will begin his clinical training. Thomas is a native of Santa Monica, California.

Dr. Keith Burch

TEAM PHYSICIAN - INTERNIST
17th Year with Lions

Dr. Keith Burch, 54, (Dec. 10, 1941), is the Medical Director at Henry Ford West Bloomfield Hospital, a post he was appointed to in July of 1985. He joined the West Bloomfield Center in 1979 as the division head for internal medicine. His internship at Henry Ford in Detroit came in 1967-68 following his graduation from the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine. Dr. Burch's undergraduate studies were taken at the Ohio-located University of Akron. He is a graduate of Akron's St. Vincent High School, now Akron St. Vincent-St. Mary's.

Dr. Burch served his residencies at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit from 1968-69 and at the Ohio State University Hospital from 1971-72. He also served at the U.S. Army Hospital in Ft. Gordon, Ga., in 1969-70 and in Vietnam for one year (1970-71).

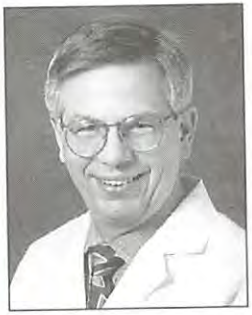

Dr. Burch and his wife Kathryn (Kitty) live in Bloomfield Hills, Mich., and have two daughters (Kathy and Michelle). An avid golfer, he played that sport while an undergrad at the University of Akron. He began working with the Lions initially as a consultant in 1976 and joined the club as a team doctor in 1980.

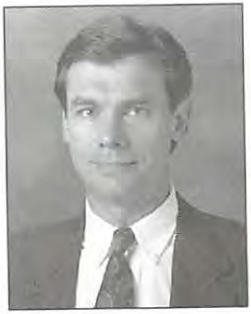

Dr. David Collon

TEAM PHYSICIAN - ORTHOPAEDIST
12th Year with Lions

Dr. David Collon, 56, (Feb. 17, 1940) was recently named the Chair of the Department of Orthopaedics and the Bone and Joint Center at Henry Ford Health System. Previously was the Chief of Orthopaedics at the Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit. Collon will continue as the Director of the Center for Athletic Medicine, a position he has held since 1984. He came back to Henry Ford Hospital in 1984 following five and one-half years in private practice in Mt. Clemens and Bloomfield Hills (both Detroit suburbs). He was with the orthopaedic surgery staff at Henry Ford for three years in the mid-70's, and prior to that served for six months with Wrightington Hospital in Wigan, England, where he specialized at the hospital's hip center. He also worked in Europe at Lorenz Boehler Krankenhaus, a hospital in Vienna, Austria.

Dr. Jack Fuller, Dentist

Dr. Terry Lock, Orthopedic Consultant

Dr. Jeff Rautio, Optometrist

Dr. Collon, who completed his orthopaedic surgery residency at Ford Hospital in '75, was the team physician for the USFL Michigan Panthers in 1983-84. He serves the Detroit Tigers' baseball team as a team physician, an assignment he first undertook in '84. He has served with the Detroit Red Wings as a team physician since 1988. PRO: One of Detroit's defensive captains and the steadying emotional force in the Lions' defensive secondary... Made move back to strong safety for the 1995 campaign after spending 1990-94 at free safety... Moved up to aid the Lions' rush defense helping form an eight-man box in two starts at linebacker in 1995... 684 career tackles puts him in fifth-place on Lions' all-time list... Has been hindered during the past couple of years with nagging injuries... A true warrior, the only games he has missed during his career were due to a broken leg suffered in the fourth game of the '93 season and four contests in 1990 with a knee ailment... Has maintained lofty level of play since 1991, when he earned his first Pro Bowl selection... Acknowledged as one of the most physical defensive backs in the NFL... A safety with a linebacker's disposition, Blades is adept at tracking receivers downfield and unleashing vicious hits often prying the ball loose... He has averaged 6.2 tackles per game in his career... Switched to free safety from strong safety in mid-1989 to maximize his athletic ability... The third pick overall in the 1988 draft, Blades was touted by Sports Illustrated as one of the potential bright stars of the 1990s. 1995: Made adjustment from free safety to strong safety during training camp... Missed all but the final preseason contest with a broken hand suffered during the offseason... Finished third on the team with 98 tackles, his highest tally since 1989... Played well in season opener at Pittsburgh (9/3), collecting four solo tackles and one of four Detroit interceptions on the day, in addition to defensing a pass... Recorded six tackles in each of the next two games — at Minnesota (9/10) and vs. Arizona (9/17). Went over the 600-tackle mark for his career in game vs. Cardinals... Notched five stops in games vs. San Francisco (9/25) and vs. Cleveland (10/8), also defensing a pass in matchup with the 49ers... Recorded seven tackles at Green Bay (10/15), his 100th career start... Had four solo tackles and a pass defensed at Washington (10/22)... Made first career start at linebacker vs. Green Bay (10/29) and came up one tackle shy of his career-high, totaling 12 stops and two passes defensed vs. the Pack... Again started at linebacker (splitting time there and at safety) at Atlanta (11/5), and notched his only sack of the year (a four-yard loss), in addition to making seven solo tackles and defensing a pass... Moved back to his customary safety slot vs. Tampa Bay (11/12), tying for second on squad with seven tackles... Collected six solo tackles at Chicago (11/19) while playing through nagging back spasms... Made four tackles on Thanksgiving Day vs. Minnesota (11/23) and two stops in Monday Night win vs. Chicago (12/4)... Led Lions with nine tackles at Houston (12/10), his second-highest output of the year... Had team-high six stops in home finale vs. Jacksonville (12/17)... Paced Detroit for third consecutive game at Tampa Bay (12/23) with eight tackles and also defensed a pass... Was second on team in NFC Wild Card playoff game at Philadelphia (12/30) with nine (all solo) tackles. 1994: Bounced back from ankle injury that forced him to miss most of 1993 season... Started all 16 games... Wayne Fontes says that in the latter half of the season, Blades played close to the level that earned him Pro Bowl status... Led defensive backs and finished third on the team with 90 tackles... Surpassed the 500 mark in career tackles... Led team with 10 solo tackles vs. New England (9/25)... Helped limit the Super Bowl champion 49ers to 143 yards passing (10/9)... Made a key third-down stop on Giants' Arthur Marshall in overtime, forcing a punt — Lions won the game on subsequent possession (10/31)... Turned in a gutsy performance at Green Bay (11/6), recorded his only sack of the season, made a team-high 10 tackles and recovered a fumble — despite playing with two sore ankles and a sore shoulder... Made his only interception of the season and posted a season-high 11 tackles at Chicago (11/20)... Saved a TD with a pass deflection near the goal line against Sterling Sharpe vs. Green Bay (12/4)... Knocked down two passes, including a possible TD pass to Cris Carter vs. Minnesota (12/17)... Made six tackles in the Lions' playoff game at Green Bay (12/31). 1993: Started the year slowly... Missed three preseason games with a back injury... Started the season opener vs. Atlanta (9/5), but left the game in the third quarter due to back injury... Started and made 6 tackles at New England (9/12)... Tied his career high with 13 tackles at New Orleans (9/17)... Left the game in the second quarter vs. Phoenix (9/26) with broken leg... Sat out the remainder of the season. 1992: Finished third on the team with 95 tackles... Named N.E.A. All-Pro Second Team... Blocked two punts, he was the only Lion to block a punt in 1992... Led team with nine tackles in the season-opener at Chicago (9/6)... Returned his first interception of the season 34 yards to set up the Lions' first field goal at Washington (9/20)... Recorded season-high 11 tackles vs. New Orleans (10/4)... Intercepted his second pass of the season, forced a fumble and made five tackles at Tampa Bay (10/25)... Scored the Lions' only touchdown when he blocked a punt and returned it seven yards for the score, the first of his career vs. Green Bay (11/1)... Tackled Houston punter Greg Montgomery on the Oilers' 13-yard line to set up the go-ahead TD late in the fourth quarter vs. Houston (11/26), also led the team with eight tackles (3 solo) in the contest... Blocked his second punt of the season, setting up a TD vs. Cleveland (12/13)... Picked off his third pass of the season, defended one pass and made five tackles vs. Chicago (12/20). 1991: First-time Pro Bowler also earned All-Pro honors from Football Digest and N.E.A.... Named to Football News, UPI and Pro Football Weekly All-NFC squad... All-Madden Team selection... Second only to Chris Spielman in tackles with 93, including 65 solos... Snared his fifth career interception, posted seven tackles and had a pass defensed in Detroit's 23-14 win against Green Bay (9/8)... Recorded back-to-back double figure weeks with 11 tackles (10 solos) at Chicago (11/3) and 10 solo stops at Tampa Bay (11/10)... Made seven tackles and joined with Spielman to make a crucial fourth-down stop at Green Bay (12/15). 1990: Despite being sidelined for four games with a knee injury, Blades finished third on the team with 83 tackles... Started the season on a high note with a game-high 12 tackles and recovered a Gary Anderson fumble against Tampa Bay (9/9)... Suffered a knee injury in the second game of the season vs. Atlanta (9/16)... Returned to action Week 8 at New Orleans (10/28) where he registered six stops... Recorded eight tackles and returned a Stan Humphries interception 21 yards to set up a Detroit TD vs. Washington (11/4)... Tied his career high with 13 tackles (eight solo) versus Minnesota (11/11)... Picked off a Jay Schroeder pass and had four stops versus the Raiders (12/10)... Produced six solo tackles and registered a 10-yard Jim Harbaugh sack (his first and only sack of the season) in Detroit's 38-21 win over the Bears (12/16). 1989: Although playing with nagging injuries, Blades was second on the club with 100 total tackles (81 solo and 19 assists)... Played his best game vs. Chicago (9/24) with 11 solo tackles and two assists... Registered 10 or more tackles on three different occasions... Had team-high tackle numbers in three games and tied for the lead on another occasion... His role changed from a run-stopper to a pass protector vs. Green Bay (11/12) with a move to free safety... Was third on the team with eight passes defensed... At times, lined up as a linebacker. 1988: The only secondary member to have at least one sack, interception and fumble recovery, Blades finished with 102 total tackles to place fifth on the squad... His four fumble recoveries led Detroit along with Bruce McNorton... Enjoyed a fine professional debut, leading the Lions in tackles with a season-high 13 against Atlanta (9/4)... Made two interceptions that season, including one off ex-Miami teammate Vinny Testaverde (of Tampa Bay) — his first came off Green Bay's Don Majkowski (11/20)... Had 10-or-more tackles on four occasions... Earned several All-Star honors at the conclusion of the '88 season: second-team All-Pro (World Almanac), honorable mention NFL All-Pro (Associated Press), NFL All-Rookie (United Press International, College & Pro Football Newsweekly).

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: One of the University of Miami's finest recent products, Blades was a co-recipient of the 1987 Jim Thorpe Award, symbolic of the nation's premier defensive back (an award he shared with ex-Oklahoma DB Rickey Dixon)... Named to virtually every All-America team as a senior, Blades recorded 124 tackles and five interceptions his final year ('87)... He was a second-team All-State defensive back at Piper High in Ft. Lauderdale... Has the distinction of being the only current Detroit player to be invited the Olympic Trials (1984) where he participated in the 400 meters... PRO: Saw largest burst of playing time of career in 1995, starting seven games, due to injuries on Lions' line... Appears ready to step into starting line-up in 1996... Versatile performer who can play center, guard or tackle... Powerful run blocker with ability to move away from line of scrimmage and into flow of traffic... Played center in college, but has seen most extensive work at guard in three pro seasons... His college coach, Don Nehlen, said Compton is one of the best players he has ever coached... Drafted by the Lions in the third round in 1993. 1995: Was club's long snapper on field goals and extra points... Also served as Detroit's chief backup at left tackle, both guard slots and at center... Started first two games of year at left tackle due to contract holdout of Lomas Brown, the first time in career he had lined up there... First career start was at Pittsburgh (9/3) where he spent afternoon battling Pittsburgh All-Pro linebacker Greg Lloyd, who he more than held up against, allowing only three tackles... Started following week at Minnesota (9/10) at left tackle as well, but shifted to left guard on the second play of game in place of injured Doug Widell and played there the remainder of the contest... Started the following three games at left guard vs. Arizona (9/17), vs. San Francisco (9/25) and vs. Cleveland (10/8) in place of injured Widell (his first career starts at guard)... Did not play on offense at Green Bay (10/15)... Saw limited time at left tackle at Washington (10/22) for Lomas Brown, who missed part of a series due to muscle cramps... Did not play on offense during next six games... Subbed for Widell briefly at Houston (12/10) at left guard... Started at left guard for the final two regular season games of the season vs. Jacksonville (12/17) and at Tampa Bay (12/23) and in playoff game at Philadelphia (12/30)... Also saw time at tackle and center vs. the Jaguars. 1994: Saw action in two games, in short yardage situations... Was active but did not play in the other 14 regular season games and the playoff game at Green Bay... Was snapper on field goals and PATs in preseason. 1993: Played for the first time vs. Seattle (10/17),... Filled in at center for Kevin Glover late in the game vs. Tampa Bay (11/7)... Played on special teams the final five regular season games and the playoff game vs. Green Bay (1/8).

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: First team All-American and All-Big East Conference selection by the Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft, Football News and the AP as a senior... One of six recipients of the NCAA's Top Six Scholar/Athlete Award... Finalist for the Lombardi Award, given to the top lineman in college football... Did not allow a sack or pressure all year as he averaged five knockdown blocks per game... All-Big East Conference first team choice and All-East selection by AP his junior year... Recipient of the Ira E. Rogers Award, given to the Mountaineer who has shown high leadership and academic qualities as well as football performance... Graduated in 1993 with a teaching degree in Physical Education and Health Education... All-Southwest District, All-State, Blue Chip All-American and District Lineman of the Year at Richlands (Va.) High... Athletic Director's Academic Honor Roll student, possessing a 4.0 grade point average... Works with D.A.R.E. hometown schools... Helped coach junior varsity baseball team at junior high school near his home in Virginia during past off-season... His biggest thrill in football is facing Pro Bowl outside linebacker Greg Lloyd in Lions' 1995 season opener at Pittsburgh... He and his wife, Tammy, have a daughter, Jessica, 6, a son, Joshua, 2 and are expecting their third child in July.

PRO: A backup at both tackle positions... Has improved greatly since rookie year when he saw extensive action at tackle... Coaches feel confident he can fulfill backup role at either tackle position... Moves his feet well and sets up quickly in pass protection... The Lions selected Conover with the seventh choice in the fifth round in 1991, making him their fifth draft selection. 1995: A regular on the Lions' special teams... Played in 14 games, including two starts at right tackle... Was active, but did not play in first two games of season at Pittsburgh (9/3) and at Minnesota (9/10)... Played on special teams vs. Arizona (9/17)... Saw extensive action at right tackle vs. San Francisco (9/25) after starter Zefross Moss departed with a hamstring injury... Made first start of the year at right tackle vs. Cleveland (10/8), subbing for Moss... Was involved only on special teams during club's next nine games... Played a great deal at right tackle vs. Jacksonville (12/17)... Started and played the entire game at Tampa Bay (12/23) in place of Moss, who sat the game out with the flu... Was special teams performer in playoff game at Philadelphia (12/30). 1994: Was active for all 16 games, saw action in 10... Scored the first TD of his career, on a one-yard reception on a tackle-eligible play vs. Green Bay (12/4)... Filled in for one play for Lomas Brown at left tackle vs. Tampa Bay (11/13)... Substituted for Doug Widell at right guard for one play at N.Y. Jets (12/10)... Saw action as tackle-eligible in short yardage and goal line situations in eight games... Was active but did not play in playoff game at Green Bay (12/31). 1993: Was active for only seven games... Did not play in six of those games... Saw his only action of the season on special teams at New Orleans (9/19). 1992: Emerged from training camp as the starting right tackle... Started 15 games... Nagging ankle injury hampered him and limited his playing time in some games... Streak of consecutive starts ended at nine when he did not play at Minnesota (10/15)... Returned to action as the starter in the following game at Tampa Bay (10/25)... Did not miss a start the remainder of the season. 1991: Helped bolster a veteran offensive line that was riddled by injuries... Saw action in every game in 1991, making his first career start at right tackle vs. the L.A. Rams (11/17) when Eric Sanders moved to left tackle in place of the injured Lomas Brown... Assumed the starting right tackle position at Green Bay (12/15) after Sanders sustained a knee injury the previous week against the Jets... Also started the season finale at Buffalo (12/22), as well as Detroit's playoff contests against Dallas (1/5) and Washington (1/12).

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: Spent his first three college years with the defense before moving to offense in 1989... Started all 11 games at offensive tackle for Purdue and was voted honorable mention All-Big Ten by the coaches and media in 1990... After switching from defense to offense started the final three games of the '89 campaign at offensive guard... Posted 71 career tackles, including nine for 44 yards in losses, and recovered three fumbles... Holds a Bachelor of Science degree from the School of Technology at Purdue... All-conference, all-county, all-district and honorable mention all-state selection at Boro (Freehold, NJ) High School... Led the team with 169 tackles (73 solos) and nine sacks... Also all-league in basketball when he led the conference in rebounding and blocked shots... Nicknamed "Tip" by his Lions' teammates... Spends a great deal of his free time speaking to youth groups and attending various charitable events... Participates in Lions' hospital visits to pediatric patients... Involved with Pro Challenge which brings anti-substance abuse assemblies to schools... Named 1990 National Strength & Conditioning Association All-American Athlete, based on benefits from strength training and conditioning, community involvement, academic achievement and leadership qualities... Born Kelsey Scott Conover.

PRO: Accolades that had eluded him throughout most of his career are now coming his way... Coming off perhaps his best season as a pro, Glover was named starting center for NFC squad at 1996 Pro Bowl (his first appearance in the annual contest)... Has been steady performer week-in and week-out since arrival in 1985... Recognized as one of the top centers in the game for several years... A true professional in every sense of the word, is one of the team's most respected and well-liked players on and off the field... Calls all signals for the offensive line on blocking adjustments and schemes at the line of scrimmage... Won the starting job at center in 1989 after starting at guard in 1988... Started every game four straight years (1988-91) on the offensive line, three seasons (1989-91) at center... Only significant injury of career (broken leg) sidelined him for the last nine games of the '92 season... Currently has streak of 48 straight games started... Drafted by the Lions in the second round in 1985. 1995: Enjoyed perhaps his best season in the league, garnering several awards naming him as one of the elite in the league... Named to start in his first career Pro Bowl appearance after being named alternate twice previously... Football News All-NFC selection... Associated Press All-Pro Second Team member... United Press International All-NFC choice... Named to College & Pro Football Newsweekly All-Pro Second Team as well as Football Digest All-Pro Second Team... Was hampered early in the year by a pulled quad muscle (suffered prior to the preseason contest at New Orleans on Aug. 25), forcing him to miss a significant amount of practice time during that span... Part of line that played particularly well vs. San Francisco (9/25) when Scott Mitchell was 28 of 42 for 291 yards and a TD vs. defensive unit which ended the '95 season as the top ranked unit in the NFL... Instrumental in Barry Sanders' 157-yard, three TD outburst vs. Cleveland (10/8)... Line also played very well in Lions' game at Green Bay (10/15) as Packers were held without a sack and Sanders rushed for 124 yards on 18 carries... His line mates followed that performance up two weeks later vs. Green Bay (10/29) as Sanders raced for season-high 167 yards on 22 carries through defense which ranked in the NFL's top ten throughout the year... Helped spearhead big win at Chicago (11/19) as Lions' ground attack controlled the clock for 33:01... Had hand in Lions' offensive explosion vs. Minnesota (11/23) as Lions rolled up 534 yards in total offense (fourth highest single-game outburst in club history) and team-record 410 yards through the air... In Detroit's 44-0 win over Jacksonville (12/17), he and offensive line did a stellar job of keeping Lions' offense on the field as Detroit controlled the ball for 36:01. 1994: Named as an alternate to the Pro Bowl squad for the second time in his career... Had another outstanding season... Instrumental in the Lions leading the NFC (second in the NFL) in rushing with 2,080 yards... Played well in season-opener vs. Atlanta (9/4) as offensive line did not allow a sack... At Dallas, (9/19), aided in Barry Sanders 206-yard rushing performance and offensive line allowed one sack to the Cowboys' defense that had totaled 14 sacks in the first two games of the season... Contributed to line play that did not allow a sack and opened holes as Sanders rushed for 146 yards against N.Y. Giants (10/30)... Turned in a stellar performance as Sanders rushed for a career-high and team-record 237 yards vs. Tampa Bay (11/13)... Played well as Sanders rushed for 188 yards and line yielded only one sack vs. Green Bay (11/4)... Blocked well as Sanders rushed for 126 yards at N.Y. Jets (12/10)... Led the charge as offensive line played one of their best games of the season vs. Minnesota (12/17)... Sanders recorded his tenth 100-yard game of the season and line did not give up a sack for the second straight game (the Vikings had six sacks in the first meeting). 1993: Recovered from broken leg suffered in 1992... Had the best season of his career, according to Wayne Fontes... Played in his 100th career game at New Orleans (9/19)... Contributed to line play that helped Barry Sanders rush for 187 yards vs. Tampa Bay (11/7)... Played well at the end of the year, the offensive line did not allow a sack in the last two regular season games. 1992: Did not play in preseason... Started the first seven games of the season at center... Had the longest streak on the team with 73 consecutive starts... His streak was snapped when he suffered a broken leg at Tampa Bay (10/25)... Placed on injured reserve October 27 for the remainder of the season. 1991: Started every game for the fourth consecutive season... Helped solidify the offensive line from his center position... Earned All-NFC honors from the Football News and was named a Pro Bowl alternate. 1990: For the third straight year, Glover started every regular season contest on the offensive line for the Lions ... Sustained a severe ankle sprain in Detroit's contest at Kansas City, but had the opportunity to use the Lions' bye week to recover (Glover started and played the entire game at New Orleans two weeks later without having had to miss a contest). 1989: Won the starting center position when veteran starter Steve Mott suffered a season-ending neck injury... Led the offensive line in cuts, takedowns and pancakes... Improved his play more than anyone else on the offensive unit, according to the coaching staff... Played as a wedge-blocker on the kickoff return team. 1988: Very versatile athlete, who not only started for the Lions at left guard, but if the situation needed him, could have played the center spot... Had the second-most minutes of the offensive linemen, behind Steve Mott, with 379.6. 1987: Started in nine games at either left guard, right guard or center... He drew his first starting assignment at right guard vs. Denver (11/1)... Glover caught a three-yard TD pass vs. Minnesota (9/13) in the season-opener but was nullified because he failed to report as an eligible receiver... Performed extensively as a special teams player ... Returned a kickoff for 19 yards vs. the Rams (12/6). 1986: Glover made his starting debut at left guard at Cleveland (9/28) but was forced from the game with a knee injury sustained in the fourth quarter... He was placed on injured reserve until the season finale vs. Atlanta (12/21)... He did not play vs. the Falcons... Played only 74 minutes the entire season. 1985: Played sparingly in the first 10 games... Just when it appeared Glover would receive more playing time, the injury bug bit... Scheduled to start at left guard against Minnesota (11/17) in Week 11, but he injured his knee in a practice blocking drill.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: One of the stabilizers behind Maryland's powerful offensive line, Glover started as an offensive tackle in his sophomore season and at center in his final two years... The Sporting News named him a first-team All-America as a senior... An All-State honoree at Largo (Md.) High, Glover was a three-sport letterman there... Majored in recreation at Maryland... Enjoys speaking to Christian groups, especially youth groups... Visits pediatric patients in Detroit-area hospitals with his Lion teammates... Supports many Detroit-area charitable causes, particularly HAVEN, a domestic violence shelter and sexual assault counseling center serving Pontiac and Oakland County (and designated as the Detroit Lions Courage House)... Has been involved with Pro Challenge, taking anti-substance abuse seminars to schools... His wife, Cestaine, graduated from Baltimore Law School in May, 1995... The couple welcomed their first child, daughter Maya Nikkole, in January of '95... The Glovers reside in Pasadena, Maryland during the off-season... Born Kevin Bernard Glover.

PRO: Outstanding athlete came into his own as a pass rusher in 1995 from an outside linebacker/defensive end position... Impressive initial burst of speed off the line of scrimmage often has offensive linemen trying to react to him after the ball is snapped... Lions are looking for him to blossom into one of the top young rush specialists in the league in the near future... Now looking to enhance effectiveness against the run, which would likely transform him into an every-down defender... Has also been one of Lions' most valuable special teams players during his career... Selected with first of two selections by the Lions in the third round of the 1993 draft. 1995: Began splitting time at outside linebacker and defensive end in training camp... Saw action in 15 games (missed one contest due to a sprained ankle)... Became a mainstay in Lions' defensive set on passing downs... Came on strong in second half of season, registering all seven sacks (third on team) in final seven games of the year... Led squad with four forced fumbles on the season... Did not make a tackle in Lions' first three games of the year at Pittsburgh (9/3), at Minnesota (9/10) and vs. Arizona (9/17)... Notched first tackle of the season vs. San Francisco (9/25)... Also had one stop vs. Cleveland (10/8)... Failed to notch a tackle at Green Bay... Sidelined with a sprained ankle at Washington (10/22)... Returned from injury the following week vs. Green Bay, but was not credited with a tackle... Made first sack of the year (for eight yards), forcing a fumble on the same play vs. Tampa Bay (11/12). Turnover led to a Lions' field goal... Had one tackle at Chicago (11/19)... Enjoyed best game of his career on Thanksgiving vs. Minnesota (11/23), exploding for three sacks for 26 yards and forcing a fumble... Credited with a sack for seven yards and forced fumble in Monday Night game vs. Chicago (12/4)... Had solid overall game at Houston (12/10) sacking Chris Chandler for a 19-yard loss in the second quarter and forcing a fumble on the same play, (recovered by Ryan McNeil and leading to a nine-yard Barry Sanders TD run on the next play), tallying two tackles and defending a pass... Netted two tackles vs. Jacksonville (12/17)... Sacked Casey Weldon (for five yards) in his only tackle at Tampa Bay (12/23)... Did not record a tackle in Lions' NFC Wild Card playoff game at Philadelphia (12/30). 1994: Saw action in all 16 games... Played on defense and special teams... Led team with five special teams tackles in preseason... Made his first tackle of the season, on special teams, at Minnesota (9/11)... Was limited in practice prior to Dallas game due to hamstring strain... Made one solo tackle vs. Chicago (10/23)... Made one tackle on special teams vs. Buffalo on Thanksgiving Day... Played on defense and special teams Green Bay (12/4) and at N.Y. Jets (12/10), did not make a tackle... Made one tackle at Miami (12/25)... Had one special teams tackle in the playoff game at Green Bay (12/31). 1993: Led team with 4.5 sacks in preseason... Made one solo tackle in his professional debut vs. Atlanta in the season opener (9/5)... Led team with three special teams tackles at New Orleans (9/19)... Saw a lot of action in pass rushing situations replacing the injured Pat Swilling at Tampa Bay (10/3)... Recorded his first NFL sack and made one solo tackle in the contest... Made one tackle on special teams at Minnesota (10/31)... Accounted for one solo tackle on special teams at Phoenix (12/5)... Made one solo special teams tackle vs. San Francisco (12/12)... Forced a fumble and made one solo tackle on special teams vs. Green Bay (1/2)... Saw action on defense and special teams in the Playoff game vs. Green Bay (1/8).

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: All-American second team and All-Southeastern Conference first team selection by the Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft as a senior... Recorded three sacks and was credited with seven quarterback pressures and blocked a field goal attempt... Started all season at right outside linebacker as a junior... Had four sacks and 12 stops for 50-yards in losses and blocked three field goals... Finished his sophomore season with 18 tackles (ten solos), two sacks and three stops for 18-yards in losses in nine games... One of two true freshmen to earn a letter... Recorded 12 tackles (six solos) with a fumble recovery and two quarterback pressures... All-State selection at Tullahoma (Tenn.) High School:... All-American pick by Parade and a member of The Sporting News' Top 100 squad... Rated the premier prospect in the state and the best player in the Southeast by Max Emfinger's recruiting service... PRO: Answered any questions regarding his effectiveness and durability a year ago with the best year ever by a Lions' quarterback... Re-wrote the Lions' quarterback record section for a season after compiling prolific numbers in his first NFL season as a starter in 1995... Now looked at as one of the elite signal-callers in the league... Has become quite adept at probing the entire field to find secondary and third receivers on any given pattern... At 6' 6", has the height to see over both offensive and defensive lines, making it much easier to scan the field for open receivers... Left-hander has excellent accuracy and touch in short-to-mid range routes... Signed by the Lions as an unrestricted free agent March 6, 1994... In four seasons with Miami, was used primarily as a back-up to Marino and as a holder for all placements... Played for the Orlando Thunder in the World League in 1992... Selected by the Dolphins in the fourth round of the 1990 draft. 1995: Posted tremendous numbers (346-of-583 for 4,338 yards, 32 TDs and 12 INTs) becoming the first Lions' QB to start all 16 regular season games since Eric Hipple did so in 1983... Broke the Lions' single-season club records for completions, attempts, passing yardage and passing TDs... In the past 22 years, only one starting Detroit quarterback has finished with a higher passer rating that Mitchell's 92.1 in 1995 (Dave Krieg's 101.8 in seven starts in '94)... Was one of only four QBs in the league (Brett Favre, Warren Moon and Jeff George) to throw for more than 4,000 yards and one of three (Favre and Moon) to record over 30 TD tosses in '95... Also owned the fourth-best TD-to-INT ratio in the NFL, trailing only Favre, Erik Kramer and Jim Harbaugh... Threw for two-or-more touchdowns in 11 of the Lions' 16 regular season contests... Garnered several post-season awards, including being named to College & Pro Football Newsweekly's All-Pro Second Team and Tom Jackson's All-Pro Second Team... Voted as an alternate to the 1996 NFC Pro Bowl squad... Named NFC Offensive Player of the Week following Detroit's win over Green Bay (10/29)... Awarded the Miller Lite NFL Player of the Week after his record-breaking performance vs. Minnesota (11/23)... Reported to camp in excellent shape after rebounding in the off-season from injuries that ended his '94 season prematurely... Played sparingly in the preseason but was quite effective, completing 36 of 62 passes (.581) for 525 yards, five touchdowns and no interceptions... Got off to solid start in '95 at Pittsburgh (9/3), completing 18-of-32 passes for 195 yards, two TDs and an INT... Was 27-of-47 for 279 yards and one TD and one INT at Minnesota (9/10). Also ran the ball once for 18 yards and was forced briefly from the game when he became woozy on the field vs. the Vikings... Was 16-of-27 for 217 yards and a TD vs. Arizona (9/17), also rushing three times for eight yards... Had stellar performance in Monday Night contest vs. San Francisco (9/25), completing 28-of-42 attempts for 291 yards and a TD. Also rushed for second TD of his career vs. the 49ers, putting the Lions ahead 10-0 with his one-yard lunge... Was steady in Lions' win vs. Cleveland (10/8) going 24-for-38 for 273 yards, two touchdowns and an interception... Was 17-of-41 for 205 yards at Green Bay (10/15), but enjoyed the first of three consecutive games of throwing three TD passes (also had one INT vs. the Packers)... Established new career-highs for attempts (50) and completions (30) at Washington (10/22). Threw for 327 yards and directed club on five drives of 10 plays or more vs. the Redskins, in addition to throwing an interception and rushing twice for five yards... Outstanding performance vs. Green Bay (10/29) earned him NFC Offensive Player of the Week as he went 15-of-23 for 249 yards and three TDs. Also included in his day was the second-longest TD toss of his career, a 69-yarder to Herman Moore in the second quarter... Was 23-of-50 (equaling his career-high for attempts) for 321 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions at Atlanta (11/5) as Lions were trailing virtually from the opening kickoff. Rushed the ball three times for 14 yards with a 10-yard TD scamper... Completed 21-of-34 attempts for 260 yards and a TD vs. Tampa Bay (11/12), rushing three times for 10 yards (including a one-yard TD sneak) as well... Completed 9 of his first 12 passes for 123 yards at Chicago (11/12) before being forced from the game with a sprained right ankle... Despite limited practice time, exploded for one of the best performances by a Lions' quarterback ever, only four days later in Thanksgiving Day game vs. Minnesota (11/23). Finished the game 30-of-45 for a team-record 410 yards and career-high four TDs, en route to earning Miller Lite NFL Player of the Week honors... Had another outstanding game in Monday Night win vs. Chicago (12/4), completing 26-of-38 attempts for 320 yards and three touchdowns... Fought off continuous blitzes throughout the game at Houston (12/10), ending the day 16-of-36 for 283, two touchdowns and two interceptions, in addition to two scrambles for four yards. He also averaged a season-high 17.7 yards per completion vs. the Oilers and surpassed Layne's single-season TD record that day... Enjoyed workmanlike 19-of-28 outing for 233 yards and two TDs vs. Jacksonville (12/17)... In regular season finale at Tampa Bay (12/23), he uncorked the longest completion of his career, a 91-yard strike to Brett Perriman and became the first Lion to ever throw for 4,000 yards in a season. Finished the day in Tampa 26-of-41 for 352 yards, two TDs and an INT, in addition to rushing three times for two yards (including a one-yard scoring sneak - his third of the season)... In NFC Wild Card playoff game at Philadelphia (12/30), he was 13-of-29 for 155 yards and a touchdown and season-high four INTs before being replaced by back-up Don Majkowski. 1994: Broken bone in right (non-throwing) wrist suffered at Green Bay (11/6) ended season prematurely as he was placed on Reserve-Injured list shortly thereafter... Also suffered from tendonitis in his left (throwing) shoulder endured on hit at Minnesota (9/11)... Started all nine games prior to season-ending injury... Highly productive in limited action in preseason leading TD drives on the Lions' opening possession in final three preseason games as well as in the regular season opener... When he led Detroit to 31-28 OT win over Atlanta in the season opener (9/4), he became the first Detroit QB to win his debut since Eric Hipple beat the Bears, 48-17, on Monday Night Football (10/19/81)... Threw three TD passes against the Falcons, including a 15-yarder to Anthony Carter that tied the game with 30 seconds remaining (completed 5-of-9 passes for 61 yards on the drive for the TD that tied the game)... Completed a 30-yard pass to Brett Perriman to the Falcons' 19-yard line on the Lions' first play in the overtime to set up the game-winning field goal... Faced heavy pressure the entire game and was sacked six times at Minnesota (9/11)... Put the Lions in position for the game-winning field goal in overtime at Dallas (9/19) with a 17-yard pass to Brett Perriman... Threw two TD passes against the Cowboys... Scored the first rushing TD of his career at Tampa Bay (10/2)... Completed 18-of-27 passes (66.7%) for 246 yards and two TDs vs. San Francisco (10/9)... Wayne Fontes said the San Francisco game was Mitchell's best game of the season to that point... Completed a six-yard pass to Brett Perriman for the Lions' only offensive TD and threw a key block for Perriman on a reverse vs. Chicago (10/23)... Bounced back from three first-half interceptions to throw two TD passes at N.Y. Giants (10/30)... Completed 3-of-4 passes for 45 yards in overtime to help set up game-winning field goal against the Giants... Suffered a broken bone in his right wrist in the second quarter at Green Bay (11/6)... Was placed on injured reserve for the remainder of the season... End-of-season physical revealed he had been suffering from tendonitis in his left shoulder, probably since Week 2 at Minnesota. 1993: Played in 13 games with seven starts... Completed 133-of-233 passes for 1,173 yards, 12 touchdowns and eight interceptions... He finished fifth in the AFC and ninth in the NFL with a quarterback rating of 84.2... Was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for October, when he completed 44-of-68 passes for 652 yards with six touchdowns and one interception, while leading the Dolphins to three straight wins... Made his first appearance at quarterback as the Dolphins were running out the clock at Buffalo (9/26), also ran for one yard and a first down on a faked field goal... Replaced the injured Dan Marino at Cleveland (10/10)... His first pass was intercepted and returned 97 yards for a touchdown, giving the Browns a 14-10 lead... He recovered and completed 10-of-16 passes for 118 yards and two touchdowns (the first of his NFL career) to lead Miami to 24-14 win... Was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his effort against the Browns... Made his first NFL start vs. Indianapolis (10/24)... Completed 12-of-19 passes for 190 yards, one TD and no interceptions... Threw for three touchdowns, 344 yards and no interceptions vs. Kansas City (10/31), completed 22-of-33 passes in the game... His performance earned him AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors... Completed 23-of-44 passes for 297 yards, one touchdown and one interception at N.Y. Jets (11/7)... Started his fourth straight game at Philadelphia (11/14)... Completed 8-of-17 passes for 150 yards, one touchdown and one interception... Rushed for 37 yards in three attempts, including a long run of 32 yards... Left the game in the third quarter with a separated left shoulder... Missed the next three games due to shoulder injury, came back vs. Pittsburgh (12/13) but saw action only as a holder... Returned to the starting lineup vs. Buffalo (12/19)... He completed 12-of-24 passes for 155 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions before Steve DeBerg relieved him in the third quarter... Started his second straight game at San Diego (12/27), completed 24-of-40 passes for 260 yards, one touchdown and three interceptions... Made his third consecutive start in the season finale at New England (1/2), completed 22-of-40 passes for 259 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions. 1992: Appeared in all 16 regular season games... Was the holder for field goals and PATs... Saw action at quarterback in six games... Completed two of eight passes for 32 yards, no touchdowns and one interception... Rushed eight times for ten yards... Made his NFL debut at quarterback at Seattle (9/27), replacing the injured Dan Marino... Entered the game with the Dolphins trailing 17-12 with 6:35 left in the fourth quarter and facing a third-and-ten situation... Threw his first NFL pass for an 18-yard completion to keep the drive alive... Marino returned to the game and three plays later threw a game-winning touchdown pass... Mitchell filled in for Marino on Miami's last drive and ran out the clock to preserve the win... Replaced Marino late in the game vs. Buffalo (10/4), had one rush for a one-yard loss... Saw action vs. New England (10/18), threw two incomplete passes and an interception... Had one rush for a one-yard loss at Indianapolis (11/8)... Completed one-of-five passes for 14 yards and rushed once for eight yards in fourth quarter action at San Francisco (12/6)... Replaced the injured Marino for one play and did not throw a pass at New England in the season finale (12/27)... Saw action in the AFC Divisional Playoff game (1/10/93) and had one rush for minus-one yard... Was the holder in the AFC Championship Game (1/17/93)... Completed 32-of-62 passes for 406 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions in preseason action. 1991: Appeared in two games as the holder for kicks... Was inactive for nine of the other 14 contests... Played in four preseason games... Completed 33-of-61 passes for 343 yards with three touchdowns and one interception. 1990: Inactive for all 16 regular season games and both playoff games... Completed 19-of-34 passes for 246 yards with two touchdowns and one interception in preseason action.

WORLD LEAGUE: Started all ten regular season games and both post season contests as Orlando advanced to the 1992 World Bowl championship game... The Thunder lost the championship game 21-17 to the Sacramento Surge... Led team to an 8-2 regular season record... Set World League single-season records for pass attempts with 361 and completions with 201... Passed for 2,213 yards, 12 touchdowns and seven interceptions... The 49ers released him in training camp and he signed with Carolina in August, 1995... Led the Panthers and set an expansion team record with 740 rushing yards... Was a valuable addition to the Lions' offense in 1993... Utilized as a short-yardage runner, scored three touchdowns in goal-line offense... Started three games after Barry Sanders was injured late in the season... Led the team in receptions and rushing yards in all three games... Became the first Lion to accomplish that feat since Billy Sims in 1982... Claimed on waivers from Atlanta August 31, 1993... Was drafted by the Falcons in the eighth round in 1992. 1995: Enjoyed the most productive season of his career... Rushed for a team-high 740 yards, setting an expansion team record in the process... Tied the expansion record with four TDs... Played primarily on special teams in the season opener at Atlanta (9/3)... Saw his first extensive action at Buffalo (9/10), led team with 53 rushing yards and made one tackle on special teams... Made his first start of the season vs. Tampa Bay (10/1) and responded with a career-high 123 yards on 21 carries, including a career-long 53-yard TD run... totaled 47 yards on 15 carries at Chicago (10/8)... Carried the ball 21 times for a game-high 93 yards vs. N.Y. Jets (10/15)... Rushed for 88 yards, including a 33-yarder which set up the team's final score of the game, at new Orleans (10/22)... Ran a career-high 28 times for 119 yards at New England, including four carries for 20 yards in overtime drive that set up game-winning field goal... Totaled 42 yards on 18 carries at San Francisco (11/5) before suffering knee injury in third quarter... Was inactive the following three games against New Orleans, Arizona and St. Louis... Returned to action vs. Indianapolis (12/3), rushed 19 times for 58 yards... Score a TD vs. San Francisco (12/10)... Rushed for a TD and had a key 12-yard run in team's final possession to seal the Panthers' expansion-record seventh victory... Totaled 47 yards and rushed for a TD in season finale at Washington (12/24). 1994: Excelled in short yardage situations... Rushed for four TDs... tied for second on team with nine special teams tackles... Scored the Lions' only two rushing TDs in preseason... Scored the NFL's first TD of the 1994 season in the season-opener vs. Atlanta (9/4), on a one-yard run... Converted a fourth-and-one with a two-yard run in the fourth quarter at Minnesota (9/11)... Scored his second TD of the season on his only carry, a five-yard run, and made two special teams tackles at Tampa Bay (10/2)... Totaled three yards in two carries and made one tackle on special teams vs. Chicago (10/23).... Made his only reception of the season, a screen pass for 10 yards, and made two tackles on special teas at N.Y. Giants (10/30)... Returned two kickoffs 23 yards and rushed two times for three yards at Green Bay (11/6)... Scored a TD, his third of the season, on a one-yard run vs. Tampa Bay (11/13)... Carried once for two yards, converting a third-and-one, vs. Buffalo on Thanksgiving Day, also made one special teams tackle against the Bills... Scored the game-winning TD, his fourth of the season, on his only carry vs. Green Bay (12/4)... Rushed twice for four yards, including a one-yard run to convert a third down, at N.Y. Jets (12/10)... Saw action primarily on special teams in the playoff game at Green Bay (12/31). 1993: Was inactive for the season opener vs. Atlanta, his former team, (9/5)... Saw his first action as a Lion at New England (9/12), rushed four times for 18 yards... Scored his first NFL touchdown vs. Phoenix (9/26), becoming the first Lion running back other than Barry Sanders to rush for a TD since 1988... Also broke a 48-yard run on a third-and-one play in the game... Converted two third downs into first downs with one-yard runs vs. Seattle (10/17)... Rushed for 13 yards in four carries, converted two third downs and one fourth down into first downs at L.A. Rams (10/24)... Scored the game-winning touchdown on a one-yard run with 40 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter at Minnesota (10/31)... Rushed for his third TD of the season, on a one-yard run vs. Tampa Bay (11/7)... Returned a kickoff 68 yards to set up the go-ahead TD at Green Bay (11/21), it was his first career kickoff return... Made his first professional start, in place of the injured Barry Sanders, vs. Minnesota (12/5), rushed for 86 yards and led team with six catches for 43 yards... Started his second consecutive game at Phoenix (12/12), rushed for a career-high 107 yards in 20 carries with a long run of 35 yards... His 35-yard run came on third down at the Lions' five-yard line in the game's final possession, enabling Detroit to tune out the clock for the win... Led team with seven catches for 54 yards... Started his third straight game vs. San Francisco (12/19), caught six passes for a career-high 67 yards and one TD and rushed for 66 yards before leaving the game in the fourth quarter with bruised ribs... Was inactive for the final two regular season games due to the rib injury... Scored a TD on a five-yard run to put Detroit ahead in the fourth quarter, caught four passes for 14 yards and made two special teams tackles in the playoff game vs. Green Bay. 1992: Spent most of the season on injured reserve and on the Practice Squad with Atlanta... Was activated for the season finale at L.A. Rams (12/27).

WIDE RECEIVER

Virginia 6th Year
HT: 6-4 WT: 217
Born: 10-20-69 (D-1 in '91)

84

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1991 (15/1) [2/2]; 1992 (12/11) 1993 (15/15) [1/1]; 1994 (16/16) [1/1]; 1995 (16/16) [1/1]
TOTAL: (74/59) [5/5]

PRO: Almost universally recognized as one of the league's most potent offensive weapons... Few in the game can match his combination of athleticism, grace and strength on either side of the ball... Uses his height and leaping ability (he owns Virginia's school record in the high jump) to go over defensive backs to make tough catches... One of the few receivers of our age who can be classified as both a possession receiver and who can routinely beat a defender deep... Enjoyed one of the most remarkable seasons an individual has ever produced in NFL history in 1995, breaking the league record for most receptions in a season with 123 catches (old record was 122 grabs by Minnesota's Cris Carter with 122 in 1994-95). He also notched 1,686 receiving yards (fourth-highest amount in NFL history) and 14 TDs (one short of Cloyce Box's club record of 15 set in 1952)... Has caught at least one pass in his last 60 games (65 including five playoff contests)... Is now tied with Terry Barr and Leonard Thompson for the all-time club mark for touchdown receptions in a career with 35... First Lions' receiver to go over the 1,000-yard mark in two straight seasons (1994-95) since Barr did so in 1963-64 (he and Barr are the only Lions to ever eclipse the 1,000-yard plateau more than once in a career)... His 318 career receptions puts him in fourth-place on Lions' all-time list (he started the '95 season in 10th-place)... His 4,895 career receiving yards places him in the second position (trailing Gail Cogdill's 5,220 career yards) on Detroit's all-time chart, as he vaulted from 8th-place prior to '95 campaign... Signed an extension prior to the '95 season that has him locked up through 1999... Constantly double-teamed by opposing defensive backs... Long strider who runs extremely well after the catch... The Lions made Moore their top draft choice in 1991, selecting him with the 10th pick in the first round. 1995: He and fellow wide receiver Brett Perriman broke two NFL marks during the season — most receptions in a season by a tandem with 231 grabs (breaking Minnesota's Jake Reed and Carter's previous mark of 207 set in 1994), and for most receiving yards in a season by a duo with 3,174 yards (surpassing Houston's Charley Hennigan and Bill Groman, who tallied 2,921 yards in 1961)... A member of virtually everyone's All-Pro squad following his unbelievable '95 season, including The Associated Press, College & Pro Football Newsweekly, Football Digest, Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers of America, The Sporting News and ESPN's Tom Jackson... Also chosen All-NFC by Football News and United Press International... Was named the Lions' Offensive MVP and an All-Madden Team member... Sport Magazine named him one of their three NFL MVP's (joining Emmitt Smith and Brett Favre) for the year... A finalist for the NFL Miller Lite Player of the Year... Was named the Lions' 1995 True Value/NFL Man of the Year, honoring him for his contributions both on and off the field... Won Miller Lite Player of the Week honors for his performance Oct. 29 vs. Green Bay. In that game, he became the first Lions' receiver to catch three TD passes in a game since Leonard Thompson did so on Nov. 28, 1985... Recipient of NFC Offensive Player of the Week award after Lions' Monday Night game vs. Chicago on Dec. 4... Went over the 100-yard mark a club-record 10 times (in addition to Lions' NFC Wild Card playoff game) in '95, as he had done so only nine times in the first four years of his career... Also caught 10 or more passes four times in '95 (his career-high was nine entering the season)... Chosen as a starter (alongside Jerry Rice) in the 1996 Pro Bowl, his second consecutive appearance... His 123 receptions and 1,686 receiving yards shattered the Lions' previous club marks, which had been held by James Jones (77 receptions in 1984) and Pat Studstill (1,266 yards in 1966)... He and Perriman also popped for more than 100 yards in receiving yards apiece in five games — at Washington (10/22), vs. Tampa Bay (11/12), vs. Minnesota (11/23), at Houston (12/10) and at Tampa Bay (12/23) — the last time that had happened in a game prior to '95 was Dec. 22, 1985 when Leonard Thompson collected 101 yards on nine catches and Pete Mandley rolled up 127 yards on five grabs... Opened the season at Pittsburgh (9/3) in fine fashion, catching a career-high 10 balls for 131 yards and a score... Sat out the week of practice prior to the game at Minnesota (9/10) due to a sprained ankle, but pitched in four receptions for 73 yards vs. the Vikes, including an acrobatic 47-yard TD catch to knot the score at 7-7 in the first quarter... Produced six grabs for 67 yards vs. Arizona (9/17)... Chipped in with six receptions for 73 yards in Monday Night win vs. San Francisco (9/25), including a leaping 20-yard TD grab in the back of the endzone over two defenders... Had 125 yards on a game-high nine catches vs. Cleveland (10/8)... Had his first of three multi-TD games of the season at Green Bay (10/15), latching onto four balls for 41 yards and two touchdowns... Equaled his then-career-high at Washington (10/22) with 10 grabs for 102 yards and a score... In game vs. Green Bay (10/29), he exploded for the first three-TD outing by a Lions' receiver since Leonard Thompson did so on Nov. 28, 1985. His TD grabs were from 10, 69 and 29 yards and represented half of his six catches on the day (for 147 yards). He was named Miller Lite NFL Player of the Week for his performance vs. the Packers... Followed that game up with a then-career-best 176-yard outburst on nine catches at Atlanta (11/5)... Notched his fourth consecutive 100-yard outing vs. Tampa Bay (11/12), latching onto nine balls for 104 yards... Sealed the Lions' win at Chicago (11/19) with his 11-yard TD catch from Don Majkowski with 2:32 remaining — catch was one of six catches for 68 yards on the day... Joined Perriman and Johnnie Morton as one of three Detroit receivers to go over the 100-yard plateau (first time in club history) in the Lions' offensive onslaught vs. Minnesota on Thanksgiving Day (11/23). Moore had eight grabs for 127 yards and a TD, Perriman reeled in 12 balls for 153 yards and two TDs, and Morton turned seven receptions into 102 yards and a TD as the three were chosen to share John Madden's post-game Thanksgiving turkey... Erupted for a club-record 14 receptions on a personal-best 183 yards in Monday Night win vs. Chicago (12/4). Also included was a nifty 46-yard TD grab in which Moore eluded several Bears on a short out-pattern and rambled down the sideline to the endzone... Capped third straight 100-yard effort at Houston (12/10) in grabbing seven balls for 105 yards and two TDs (of 13 and 14 yards)... Tallied five catches for 59 yards vs. Jacksonville... Collected 10 receptions for 105 yards at Tampa Bay (12/23), giving him 123 catches on the season and the all-time NFL record for receptions in a season, (overtaking Cris Carter's 122 catches in 1994-95)... Notched seven receptions for 133 yards in NFC Wild Card playoff game at Philadelphia (12/30), including a 68-yard TD grab, the second-longest pass play in Lions' post-season history. 1994: Established himself as one of the top receivers in the NFL... Played in his first Pro Bowl (replacing San Francisco's Jerry Rice)... Was named to the USA Today's "All Joe Team", which named the most underrated players in the league, for the second straight year... Named second team All-Pro by Tom Jackson's Pro Football Update... Went over the 1,000-yard mark for the first time in his career... Totaled 1,173 yards in 72 catches... The yardage total is the second-highest in team history and he became only the seventh player in club history to total over 1,000 receiving yards in a season... His 72 catches were the most ever by a Lions' receiver and the second highest total in team history... He tied for the fourth-highest total in Lions' history with 11 TD catches... Tied a team record with TD catches in six consecutive games... Of his 72 catches, 54 went for first downs... Caught six passes for 84 yards and one TD in the season opener vs. Atlanta (9/4)... Made his second TD reception of the season and totaled 81 yards in six catches at Dallas (9/19)... Scored his third TD vs. San Francisco (10/9), caught three passes for 65 yards in the game... Had an outstanding game at N.Y. Giants (10/30), caught a career-high nine passes for 106 yards and two TDs... Caught a pass and ran 29 yards to set up the game-winning field goal in overtime against the Giants... Turned in one of the best performances of his career at Green Bay (11/6)... Set a then-career-high with 151 receiving yards and tied his career-best with two TDs against the Packers... His only catch went nine yards for a TD at Tampa Bay (11/13)... Scored the Lions' only TD at Chicago (11/20), on a nine-yard reception... Established a new career-high with 169 receiving yards vs. Buffalo on Thanksgiving Day... He caught seven passes with one TD against the Bills... His TD came on a 51-yard flea-flicker on the Lions' second play of the game... Caught three passes for 55 yards and one TD vs. Green Bay (12/4)... Had his streak of consecutive games with a TD reception broken at six at N.Y. Jets (12/10), he caught six passes for 70 yards against the Jets... Had five receptions for 55 yards in the season-finale at Miami (12/25)... Caught two passes for 52 yards in the playoff game at Green Bay (12/31). 1993: Led team with 61 catches, 935 receiving yards and six touchdowns... Was named to the USA Today's "All Joe Team", which named the most underrated players in the league... Scored a TD on a 21-yard pass in the season opener vs. Atlanta (9/5), caught four passes for 113 yards in the game with a long reception of 72 yards... Led team with five catches for 49 yards, including a leaping catch to keep the drive for the game-winning field goal alive at New England (9/12)... Set a career-high with two TDs and tied career-high with eight receptions for 98 yards, all in the first half vs. Seattle (10/17)... Totaled a career-high 120 receiving yards in six catches at L.A. Rams (11/24)... Caught a career-long 93-yard TD pass, the fourth longest pass in Lions' history... His TD, on the first play of the fourth quarter was the first of 17 unanswered points scored by the Lions to erase a 27-13 Vikings lead... Injured his ankle in the fourth quarter of the Vikings, forcing him to miss the game vs. Tampa Bay (11/7)... Caught seven passes for 61 yards vs. Chicago (11/25)... Led team with 74 receiving yards in four catches with one TD vs. San Francisco (12/19)... Caught two passes for 31 yards in the season finale vs. Green Bay (1/2/94)... Caught one pass for 20 yards in the playoff game vs. Green Bay (1/8/94). 1992: Led the team with 966 receiving yards and was second with 51 catches and four TD catches despite sitting out four games... Started the season at "Z" receiver, despite seeing limited action in preseason due to injury... Caught six passes for 82 yards in the season opener at Chicago (9/6)... Placed on Reserve-Injured September 11, missed the next four games... Started his first game back, at Minnesota (10/15), caught three passes for 76 yards, including a spectacular touchdown grab where he took the ball away from two defenders in the end zone... Set a career-high with 108 receiving yards on three catches at Tampa Bay (10/25), scored a touchdown on a 63-yard pass play in which he broke two tackles on his way to the end zone... Led team with five catches for 86 yards at Cincinnati (11/22)... Recorded the longest reception of his career, a 77-yard TD, vs. Houston (11/26), totaled two receptions for 88 yards in the game... Set new career highs with eight catches and 114 yards with one touchdown at Green Bay (12/6)... Recorded 108 yards on three receptions vs. Chicago (12/20)... Led team with seven catches for 81 yards to wrap up the season at San Francisco (12/28). 1991: Tapped into great potential late in the season... Made one start during the 1991 regular season, then drew the starting 'Z' (wide-right) assignment for the Lions' two playoff contests... Had the first reception of his pro career, a 14-yarder from Rodney Peete during contest with Miami (9/15)... Saw first extensive action in place of injured Robert Clark versus Dallas (10/27), catching two passes for 18 yards... First career start at Chicago (11/3), leading the team with five catches for 70 yards... Had spectacular outing as a starter against Dallas in the divisional playoffs, hauling in six passes for 87 yards and his first pro touchdown, a seven-yarder from Erik Kramer ... Followed that performance with four catches for 69 yards at Washington in the NFC Championship Game.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: A standout on both the football and track teams at Virginia, he holds the school's career records for both receiving yardage (2,504) and touchdown catches (27)... Finished third on the Cavalier all-time receptions list with 114... Entered the NFL draft after his junior season at Virginia... As a junior at Virginia (1990), earned consensus First-Team All-America honors (AP, UPI, College & Pro Football Newsweekly, Sporting News, Football News, Poor Man's Guide)... First-Team All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection and finished second in voting for the ACC Player-of-the-Year Award... Led the conference and was third in the nation with 108.2 receiving yards per game... Set an NCAA record with at least one TD catch in nine consecutive games... Set school records in 1990 with 54 catches, 1190 yards (22.0 average) and 13 TDs... Set a then-school-record in 1989 as a sophomore with 10 TD catches... Also competed in the high jump for the Virginia track squad, winning the 1988 ACC Indoor Championship (with a school-record leap of 7' 2 1/2"), the 1990 ACC Indoor title, and the 1990 ACC Outdoor title (7' 2 3/4")... First team All-District and All-Metro selection as a senior wide receiver and placekicker at George Washington (Danville, VA) High School... First team All-Region and second team All-State wide receiver that year... Set school record for longest field goal with a 48-yarder... Also lettered in basketball and track... Herman and wife, Angela were the Honorary Co-Chairpersons for the first "Docs and Jocks Run", an August, 1995 fundraiser to benefit Detroit Lions Charities... Has hosted various function in and around Detroit via his "Catch 84" Foundation... Moore graduated in May, 1991, with a degree in Rhetoric and Communication Studies... Southern Cal. 3rd Year
HT: 5-11 WT: 190
Born: 10-7-71 (D-1 in '94)

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1994 (14/0); 1995 (16/13) [1/1]
TOTAL: (30/13) [1/1]

PRO: Elusive receiver came into his own in sophomore NFL season, evolving into a much broader role in Lions' top-rated offense... Club views him as one of the key components in both current and future plans on the offensive side of the ball... One of league's bright young receivers who has benefited greatly from expertise passed down from teammates Herman Moore and Brett Perriman... Is virtually assured of constant single coverage because of close attention paid to Barry Sanders and the running game and Moore and Perriman... Has played at both outside and slot receiver positions since arriving in the pro ranks... Sure-handed player who possesses the innate ability to get open regardless of coverage... In his first 18 pro games he had six receptions for 77 yards and a TD, while he has collected 41 receptions for 552 yards and eight TDs in his last 12 games... Not afraid to go over the middle to absorb punishment from roving defensive backs... An avid weightlifter, Morton's outstanding training habits help immensely when absorbing hard hits... Did not generate much playing time during rookie season... Showed glimpses in '94 of the ability which made him one of the most productive receivers in Pac-10 history. 1995: Matured into one of the Lions' most dependable offensive weapons as season wore on... Caught 44 balls for 590 yards and eight touchdowns in sophomore campaign... Played well in preseason, seeing a lot of action both inside and outside, catching four balls for 45 yards and two TDs (a nine-yarder vs. Cincinnati on Aug. 17 and a 12-yarder at New Orleans on Aug. 25... Stepped into a more highlighted role as one of club's three starting wide receivers for majority of the season... Started the year (first three games) as a backup, with limited playing time, but was one of the vital components in Lions' change in philosophy entering fourth game of the year (vs. San Francisco) as he became a focal points of the offensive scheme, which saw his production rise dramatically thereafter... Also began the year as club's kickoff and punt return specialist, a role he relinquished soon after becoming more visible cog in Lions' offense. Returned 18 kickoffs for 390 yards (21.7 avg.) with a long of 32 yards, and seven punts for 48 yards (6.9 avg.) with a long of 16 yards for the season... Caught one ball for four yards at Pittsburgh (9/3), in addition to returning five kickoffs for 79 yards... Busy day at Minnesota (9/10) saw him catch two balls for 34 yards, return three punts for 23 yards and four kickoffs for 102 yards... Did not catch a ball vs. Arizona (9/17), but did run two punts back for 19 yards and six kickoffs for 136 yards... Earned first of 13 consecutive starts on the year (remainder of the season) vs. San Francisco (9/25). Did not record a reception, but tallied 53 yards on two kickoff returns... Netted a career-high five receptions for 43 yards vs. Cleveland (10/8), in addition to running back two punts for six yards and a kickoff for 17 yards... Concentrated on wide receiver responsibilities full-time during practice prior to game at Green Bay (10/15), responding once again with five grabs for career-high 62 and a 16-yard TD pass, his first of the season (second receiving TD in career)... Enjoyed what was then the best game of his short career at Washington (10/22), latching onto personal-best eight balls for 76 yards and a TD pass (a seven-yarder in the third quarter)... Caught one ball for 18 yards vs. Green Bay (10/29)... Rolled up 54 yards on three receptions at Atlanta (11/5), highlighted by a 32-yard scoring stab, the longest receptions of his career (and third TD in four games)... Did not record a reception vs. Tampa Bay (11/12)... Had two receptions for 32 yards at Chicago (11/19)... Tallied the first 100-yard receiving game of his career (career-high 102 yards) on seven grabs on Thanksgiving Day vs. Minnesota (11/23), which included a 16-yard TD effort. In that game, he and teammates Moore and Perriman all went over 100 yards, the first time in franchise history that three receivers accomplished that feat in the same game... Made his only catch count in Monday Night win over Chicago (12/4), latching onto a four-yard TD toss in the first quarter that stretched the Detroit lead to 14-0... Had one catch for 17 yards at Houston (12/10)... Had first two-touchdown performance of his career (from 23 and 17 yards) vs. Jacksonville (12/17), catching four balls on the day for 80 yards... Ended regular season in with steady effort of four grabs for 64 yards and a five-yard TD strike (his fifth score in the last five games) which began the Lions scoring for the day. 1994: Exhibited the ability he showcased as an All-American at USC during college in limited opportunity... Impressed onlookers in training camp with surprising burst of speed and soft hands... Received more repetitions after injury to Anthony Carter (broken collarbone at Minnesota on Sept. 11)... Also began to learn the slot position in Lions' offensive scheme as season progressed... Did not catch a pass in season opener vs. Atlanta (9/4)... Was inactive at Minnesota (9/11)... Ran 26 yards on a reverse on the opening kickoff at Dallas (9/19)... Played sparingly vs. New England (9/25), at Tampa Bay (10/2), vs. San Francisco (10/9), vs. Chicago (10/23) and at NY Giants (10/20), but did not catch any passes... Saw increased playing time at Green Bay (11/6), as Lions often utilized four-wide receiver set, but did not catch a pass... Saw extensive playing time vs. Tampa Bay (11/13) due to injury to Aubrey Matthews, but did not catch a pass... Played briefly in games at Chicago (11/20) and vs. Buffalo (11/24) but did not catch any balls... Made the first catch of his NFL career vs. Green Bay (12/4), a 17-yarder near the goal line on third-down... Was inactive vs. N.Y. Jets (12/10) due to knee injury... Scored the first TD of his career vs. Minnesota (12/17), an 18-yard toss from Dave Krieg in heavy endzone traffic - posted a career-high two receptions for 22 yards against the Vikings... Scored his second career TD at Miami (12/25) — a dazzling 93-yard kickoff return... Was active but did not see action in playoff game at Green Bay (12/31).

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: Established Pac-10 Conference career records with 201 catches (receivers only) for 3,201 yards... Consensus All-American first team selection as a senior... Unanimous All-Pac 10 Conference first team choice... Selected to participate in East-West Shrine Game and Hula Bowl... Won the Pop Warner Award as the most valuable senior football player on the West Coast... Was USC's team MVP... Set school season records with 78 catches for 1373 yards (17.6 avg.) and 12 touchdowns... Set a Trojan game record with 15 receptions for 186 yards and three touchdowns, including a 37-yarder in a 49-7 win over Houston... His three scoring grabs tied a school record held by several players, most recently by himself vs. both San Diego State & Oregon in 1992... Hauled in eight passes for a school record 229 yards, including a 69-yard touchdown vs. Washington State... All Pac 10 Conference second team choice his junior year... All-American selection by Super Prep magazine at South Torrance (Cal.) High... Member of California Football's Scholar team... Also lettered in track, performing in the 100 (10.5) & 200 (21.6) meters... Earned his degree in communications... Recently joined the Screen Actors Guild and American Federation of Television and Radio Association in hopes of landing acting roles... Played himself in feature film "Jerry Maguire", which is loosely based on his agent, Leigh Steinberg and also included cameo appearances from teammate Herman Moore and Wayne Fontes... Appeared in music video "Turn Out the Lights" with Motown R & B artist Shanice Wilson in 1994... Was featured in a world-wide Nike print ad campaign during '96 off-season... Also had roles in two additional videos during '96 off-season - Montell Jordan's "Something For The Honeyz" and Puff Johnson's "Forever More"... Also made an appearance in a music video by Toni Braxton... Active in several charitable organizations including DARE, Athletes and Entertainers for Kids and Big Brothers of America... Appeared in several episodes of "Young and The Restless" during '96 off-season... Will be featured on the cover of "In The Begining 1997" catalog... Attended a Japanese elementary school for three years (mother is Japanese-American)... Brother, Eric, is a senior wide receiver at Dartmouth and brother, Chad, plays at USC... Enjoys art shows and has started his own art collection... Hobbies include reading, sport-nutrition research and inventing recipes... Hometown is Torrance, Ca.

PRO: Signed by the Lions as an unrestricted free agent May 1, 1995 after playing the previous six seasons with the Indianapolis Colts... Was a starter in all but his first year in Indianapolis... Huge frame allows him to ride oncoming pass rushers to the outside and away from the pocket... Has powerful burst off the line of scrimmage and is also an effective driving run-blocker... Originally obtained by the Colts in a trade with Dallas August 22, 1989 for a tenth-round pick in the 1990 draft (Dallas traded the pick to Minnesota who picked WR Pat Newman)... Signed by Dallas as a rookie free agent April 29, 1988... Was waived August 24, 1988, then re-signed as a free agent December 8, 1988. 1995: One of the club's most beneficial free agent pick-ups, despite not garnering a great deal of publicity... Penciled in during the 1995 off-season as first-string right tackle on Lions' offensive line, starting 14 contests at that position (missed games due a slight hamstring pull and the flu)... Played steadily throughout first year for the Lions in '95... Did not participate in drills the first three weeks of training camp while rehabilitating an injured knee... Rebounded from that ailment to start opener at Pittsburgh (9/3) and first four games of the year, helping lead the way for Barry Sanders to accumulate 100 yards in two of those outings... Suffered pulled hamstring in first half of Monday Night game vs. San Francisco (9/25), which forced him to miss the remainder of that game and the contest vs. Cleveland (10/8)... Returned to the starting lineup at Green Bay (10/15), showing few effects from the injury or the layoff — helped pave the way for Sanders' 124 yards rushing on 18 carries in game with the Packers... Manned right tackle slot for the next nine games before sitting out the regular season finale at Tampa Bay (12/23) after being struck with the flu prior to kickoff... Returned to starting lineup in Lions' NFC Wild Card playoff game at Philadelphia (12/30). 1994: Started the first 11 games of the season at right tackle... Missed final five games with knee injury... Helped open holes as Colts rushed for 2,060 yards, their highest rushing total since 1988... Played a big role as offensive line allowed only 28 sacks, tied for the fewest in non-strike season since NFL adopted 16-game schedule in 1978... Helped pave the way as Colts' ranked third in the AFC, fourth in the NFL with 128.8 rushing yards pre game... Opened holes that allowed Marshall Faulk to rush for 1,282 yards and 11 TDs... Faulk ranked third in the AFC and fifth in the NFL in rushing... Colts outrushed 11 opponents (most since 13 in 1983), rushed for over 100 yards 12 times (most since 14 in 1988) and scored 15 rushing TDs (most since 23 in 1988). 1993: Started all 16 games at right tackle... Was one of seven Colts to start every game... Made his first career start at right tackle in season-opener vs. Miami (9/5), had made 38 starts at left tackle and one at right guard... Contributed to offensive line play that opened holes for the Colts highest rushing total (1,288 yards) and fewest sacks (29) since 1989. 1992: Made 13 starts at left tackle... Was inactive at Miami (10/25) and did not play at San Diego (11/1) due to ankle injury suffered vs. San Diego (10/18)... Left game vs. Buffalo (11/29) with ankle injury and did not play at New England (12/6). 1991: Played in 11 games with ten starts... GAMES PLAYED STARTED: 1988 (16/0); 1989 (14/1); 1990 (16/15); 1991 (15/14) [2/1]; 1992 (16/16) 1993 (15/15) [1/1]; 1994 (16/14) [1/1]; 1995 (16/16) [1/1] TOTAL: (124/91) [5/4]

PRO: Exploded in 1995 to enjoy the best year of his career, latching onto 108 balls for 1,488 yards and nine touchdowns (all personal-bests)... One of the league's most consistent receivers over the past few years... Teams with Herman Moore to form the NFL's most potent receiving tandem and one of the best of all-time... Enters his sixth year as a Lion only three catches away (334 catches in a Detroit uniform) from Charlie Sanders' all-time club record for most career receptions... He started as the left slot receiver from 1991-93, then moved outside early in '94 in when Anthony Carter broke his collarbone... Is now also fifth on Detroit's all-time receiving yardage chart with 4,223 yards... Versatile athlete with quick burst of speed who can return punts in a pinch... Also a weapon during his career running reverses... Reckless nature makes going over the middle one of the most prominent qualities in his overall game... Elusive open-field runner is generally the Lions' best receiver at running after the catch... Has perhaps the biggest set of hands on the squad, which help enable him to throw a football over 80 yards... Led the team in receptions in 1991 and 1992... Acquired in a trade at the end of training camp in 1991 (in exchange for a fifth round pick)... Settled in as a starter from the beginning and finished his first Detroit season as the club's leading receiver with 52 catches for 668 yards... Has been clocked at 4.3 in the 40-yard dash and his vertical jump has been measured at 35 inches... Was the Saints' second-round draft pick in 1988 (52nd player taken overall). 1995: Enjoyed easily the most productive year of his eight-year career, establishing himself as one of the league's top receivers... Named as an alternate to the 1996 Pro Bowl (missed being named to a crowded NFC squad as Lions' conference contained all nine players in the NFL to surpass 100 receptions in '95)... Named to USA Today's "All-Joe Team" as one of the league's best-kept secrets... Also a member of the '95 All-Madden Team... Heading into the season, he had gone over the 100-yard mark only five times in his career and he more than doubled that amount in 1995 by doing so on seven occasions... Always good in the clutch, 75 of his 108 receptions resulted in Lions' first downs... His 108 receptions for 1,488 yards both ranked sixth in the NFL and easily surpassed the Lions' previous club records in both categories (77 catches by James Jones in 1984 and 1,266 yards by Pat Studstill in 1966), but teammate Moore also eclipsed both marks... He and Moore broke two NFL marks during the season — most receptions in a season by a tandem with 231 grabs (breaking Minnesota's Jake Reed and Carter's previous mark of 207 set in 1994), and for most receiving yards in a season by a duo with 3,174 yards (surpassing Houston's Charley Hennigan and Bill Groman, who tallied 2,921 yards in 1961)... The two also became the first duo in NFL history from the same team to both catch over 100 balls in the same season... He and Moore were over the 100-yard barrier in the same game five times (last time that had happened was when Leonard Thompson collected 101 yards on nine receptions and Pete Mandley had 127 yards in five grabs on Dec. 22, 1985 at Chicago) — at Washington (10/22), vs. Tampa Bay (11/12), vs. Minnesota (11/23), at Houston (12/10) and at Tampa Bay (12/23)... Opened the season at Pittsburgh (9/3) catching four passes for 45 yards, including a five-yard TD)... Followed that up with a nine-reception, 92-yard effort at Minnesota (9/10)... Surpassed the 100-yard mark for the first time in '95 (sixth time in his career) vs. Arizona (9/17), grabbing seven balls for 114 yards and a 39-yard score... Recorded second consecutive 100-yard outing (first time in his career) in Monday Night win vs. San Francisco (9/25) popping for 115 yards on nine catches. He also surpassed the 4,000-yard mark with his effort vs. the 49ers... Enjoyed the first multi-TD game of his career vs. Cleveland (10/8) catching six passes for 78 yards, including scores of 14 and 28 yards... Collected five receptions for 84 yards at

Green Bay (10/15)... Caught six balls for 115 yards at Washington (10/22), including a career-long 51-yard TD grab which gave the Lions a 30-27 lead late in the fourth quarter... Was held to a season-low two catches for 26 yards in Lions' win over vs. Green Bay (10/29)... Grabbed five passes for 53 yards and his sixth TD of the season (a 16-yarder) at Atlanta (11/5)... Set a then-regular season best with 10 receptions for 125 yards vs. Tampa Bay (11/12), including a diving 37-yard stab in the fourth quarter which set up the game-winning Scott Mitchell TD sneak on the following play... Became just the third player in team history to catch 12 balls in a game (tying the team record set by Cloyce Box in 1950 and James Jones in 1986) at Chicago (11/19). His 142 yards on the afternoon was the highest regular season total in his career... Exploded once again only four days later vs. Minnesota (11/23), springing for a club-record tying 12 catches for a career-high 153 yards and the second two-TD game of his career (the first two Detroit scores of the day from 2 and 20 yards). Also became part of history as three receivers recorded more than 100 yards (besides Herman Moore's eight grabs for 127 yards and Johnnie Morton's seven catches for 102 yards) in the same game for the first time in club history... Received the first NFC Offensive Player of the Week award of his career for his performance vs. the Vikes... Combined with his outburst at Chicago the prior week, Perriman latched onto 24 passes for 295 yards and two touchdowns in a span of only 99 hours... Came back to earth in Detroit's Monday Night win vs. Chicago (12/4), catching only four balls for 34 yards after sustaining a bruised leg early in the game... Earned his seventh 100-yard performance of the year at Houston (12/10) by catching six passes for 128 yards, including a long of 41 yards... Caught six balls for 49 yards vs. Jacksonville (12/17)... Hauled in the longest reception of his career, a 91-yard scoring bomb from Scott Mitchell, as part of his five-catch, 135-yard performance at Tampa Bay (12/23)... Latched onto three passes for 26 yards in Lions' NFC Wild Card playoff game at Philadelphia (12/30) before suffering a game-ending knee sprain in the first quarter. 1994: Started the year at the "W" receiver (left slot) then switched to the left outside spot after injury to Anthony Carter... Tied his career season-high with four TD catches... Was the Lions' second-leading rusher, gaining 86 yards on nine reverses... Started 14-of-16 games, the two games he did not start, the Lions opened the game with two tight ends and two running backs... Set up Detroit's game-winning field goal with a 30-yard reception that took the ball to the Falcons 19-yard line on overtime in the season opener vs. Atlanta (9/4)... Caught two passes for 35 yards and ran a reverse for 11 yards and against the Falcons... Ran a reverse for 12 yards and later attempted a pass on a reverse, which was incomplete at Minnesota (9/11)... Scored his first TD of the season on a 25-yard pass from Scott Mitchell at Dallas (9/19)... Caught a 17-yard pass to put the Lions in position for the game-winning field goal in overtime against the Cowboys... Led team with seven catches for 67 yards and ran two reverses for 20 yards with a long gain of 13 yards at Tampa Bay (10/2)... Caught a six-yard TD pass and ran a reverse for 10 yards vs. Chicago (10/23)... Made three catches for 39 yards and caught two passes to convert two-point conversions against the Packers... Set up a touchdown with a 37-yard reception vs. Tampa Bay (11/13)... Led team with six receptions and 120 yards at Chicago (11/20), his only 100-yard receiving game of the season... Caught his fourth TD pass of the season vs. Buffalo on Thanksgiving Day, caught five passes for 65 yards in the contest... Led team with 63 receiving yards, in four catches, vs. Green Bay (12/4)... Ran a reverse for minus-seven yards, the first reverse that did not go for a first down... Had six catches for a team-high 79 yards at N.Y. Jets (12/10)... Totaled 40 yards in four catches in the season finale at Miami (12/25)... Scored the Lions' only touchdown, on a three-yard pass from Dave Krieg, in the playoff game at Green Bay (12/31)... Led team with 62 receiving yards and tied for team-high with four catches against the Packers. 1993: Played a big role in the offense late in the season... Caught three passes for 21 yards in the season-opener vs. Atlanta (9/5)... Led team with 51 receiving yards in four catches at New England (9/12)... Scored his first TD of the season, on a nine-yard catch vs. Phoenix (9/26)... Left the game in the first quarter with a hamstring injury in the first quarter vs. Seattle (10/17)... Did not catch a pass in the game, breaking his streak of consecutive games with at least one catch at 40... Was inactive due to the hamstring injury at L.A. Rams (10/24)... Led team with five catches for 40 yards and ran a reverse for ten yards vs. Tampa Bay (11/7)... Led team with a season-high eight catches and a season-high 75 receiving yards vs. Chicago (11/25)... Scored the Lions' first touchdown on a 20-yard reception at Chicago (12/26)... Tied season-high with 75 receiving yards in six catches in the game... Caught three passes for a team-high 55 yards in the season finale vs. Green Bay (1/2)... Set career-highs with 10 catches and 150 receiving yards in the playoff game vs. Green Bay (1/8)... Scored the Lions' first TD of the game on a one-yard catch. 1992: Only Lions' receiver to start all 16 games... Led team with 69 receptions and was second with 810 receiving yards... Scored the Lions' first touchdown of the year on a 40-yard pass from Rodney Peete in the season opener at Chicago (9/6), caught seven passes for 77 yards in the contest... Set a new career-high with nine catches for 117 yards vs. Tampa Bay (9/27)... Scored one touchdown, caught four passes for 26 yards vs. New Orleans (10/4)... Led team with eight catches for a season-high 124 yards at Minnesota (10/15)... Made three catches for 41 yards and one touchdown at

Tampa Bay (10/25)... Led team with five catches for 46 yards vs. Houston (11/26)... Scored one touchdown, on a 13-yard pass from Andre Ware and caught three passes for 34 yards vs. Cleveland (12/13)... Recorded a team-high four catches for 87 yards vs. Chicago (12/20)... GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1989 (15/13); 1990 (16/16); 1991 (15/15) [2/2]; 1992 (16/16); 1993 (11/11) [1/1]; 1994 (16/16) [1/1]; 1995 (16/16) [1/1] TOTAL: (105/103) [5/5]

PRO: Considered by many to be the premier running back in the National Football League, Sanders continues his assault on the Detroit and NFL record books... Has become just the 10th player in NFL history to rush for over 10,000 yards and the third-fastest to do so (behind Jim Brown and Eric Dickerson) — in only 103 games... Only two NFL players rushed for more yards in their first 100

Dickerson) — in only 103 games... Only two NFL players rushed for more yards in their first 100 career games than Sanders, Brown (10,833) and Dickerson (10,818)... Accumulated seven 100-yard games in 1995, giving him a team-record 47 in his career... Sanders recorded the fourth-highest single-season rushing total in NFL history with 1,883 yards in 1994, capturing his second NFL rushing title in the process... He is the Lions' all-time leading rusher with 10,172 career yards, surpassing Billy Sims' 5,106 yards in 1992... In just seven full seasons, Sanders owns or shares 16 Detroit offensive records... Had a streak of 803 consecutive attempts (703 rushes, 100 receptions) without fumbling the ball to the opponents broken Sept. 17, 1995 vs. Arizona... Over the last seven years, he has rushed for more yards (10,172) than any other back in the NFL... He is one of only two players in NFL history to rush for 1,000 yards in each of his first seven pro seasons joining Dickerson in this exclusive club... Barry also owns the Lions' career records for rushing TDs (73) and total career TDs (80)... Ranks 10th on the NFL's all-time rushing list and enters 1996 needing only 101 yards to surpass Ottis Anderson (10,372 yards) and into ninth-place... Voted the Lions' Offensive MVP by his teammates six consecutive times from 1989-94... A threat to score every time he touches the ball, Sanders seized the NFL rushing title with 1,304 yards in his second season... Sanders (1,548) finished second to Dallas' Emmitt Smith (1,563) in the '91 NFL rushing race... He also narrowly missed accomplishing that feat in his rookie campaign when he led the NFC in rushing and finished just 10 yards shy of the Chiefs' Christian Okoye, the NFL leader, although Sanders had 90 fewer carries... Has been named a Pro Bowl starter in each of his first seven professional seasons... The third overall selection in the 1989 draft after leaving Oklahoma State with one year of eligibility remaining... 1988 Heisman Trophy recipient. 1995: Named as a starter on NFC's Pro Bowl squad for the seventh consecutive season... Rushed for 1,500 yards, the third-highest total of his career... Finished with a career-high 48 receptions for 398 yards and one TD... Earned several honors including Associated Press All-Pro, Sports Illustrated's Dr. "Z" All-Pro team, Football Digest All-Pro, College & Pro Football Newsweekly All-Pro, Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers of America All-Pro, Sporting News All-Pro, Tom Jackson's Pro Football Update All-Pro , Football News All-NFC, United Press International All-NFC, All-Madden Team, NFC Offensive Player of the Week - Week 6... Began season with solid performance rushing for 108 yards on 21 carries at Pittsburgh (9/3)... Tied his career-high with nine receptions (for 60 yards) at Minnesota (9/10)... Totaled 147 yards on 24 carries (6.1 yard avg.), including a 47-yard TD run vs. Arizona (9/17)... His streak of 803 consecutive attempts (703 rushes and 100 receptions) without a turnover was broken in the fourth quarter against Arizona when the Cards' Lorenzo Lynch stripped him of the ball — his last previous turnover had been Dec. 6, 1992 at Green Bay... Was stymied for only 24 yards on 17 carries in Lions' Monday Night win vs. San Francisco (9/25) as Detroit's passing game was particularly effective, gaining 291 yards through the air on a 28-of-42 effort by Scott Mitchell... Exploded for 157 yards and three TDs vs. Cleveland (10/8), including the longest scoring run of his career, 75 yards... Topped the century mark for the fourth time in six games with 124 yards on 18 attempts at Green Bay (10/15)... Rambled for 76 yards on 20 attempts at Washington (10/22)... Rushed for a season-high 167 yards on 22 carries vs. Green Bay (10/29)... Only mustered 12 carries for 44 yards at Atlanta (11/5) as Lions faced a sizable early deficit forcing them to essentially abandon the running game. Did catch four balls for 23 yards vs. the Falcons... Scored a TD on a 55-yard run on a fake reverse vs. Tampa Bay (11/12) as part of his 19-carry, 92-yard rushing effort... Scored two TDs and rushed for 120 yards on 24 carries at Chicago (11/19) the contest in which he went over the 1,000-yard mark for the season, (also his 100th game as a pro), joining Eric Dickerson as the only two backs in NFL history to rush for over 1,000 yards in each of their first seven seasons... Posted his seventh 100-yard game of the season with 138 yards, including a 50-yard TD run, in Thanksgiving win over Minnesota (11/23)... Totaled 90 yards rushing on 23 attempts and 93 yards receiving (season-high) on six grabs, including his only TD catch of the season, in Monday Night win vs. Chicago (12/4)... Scored a TD and rushed for 54 yards on 19 attempts at Houston (12/10), putting him over the 10,000-yard mark for his career, (only the 10th player in NFL history to accomplish that feat)... Rushed 22 times for 76 yards and two TDs in limited action vs. Jacksonville (12/17), extending his Lions' record for career scores to 73... His 48 rushing yards in the season finale at Tampa Bay (12/23) gave him exactly 1,500 yards on the season, the third-highest total of his career... Had 10 carries for 40 yards and caught two passes for 19 yards in NFC Wild Card playoff contest at Philadelphia (12/30). 1994: Enjoyed the best season of his brilliant career... Named Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year... Set a career-high and Lions' single season rushing record with 1,883 (breaking his own record of 1,548 yards set in 1991)... His 1,883 yards represent the fourth-highest single season rushing total in NFL history... Set a Lions' single-game record with 237 yards vs. Tampa Bay... Established a new club record with 40 carries at Dallas... Started his sixth consecutive Pro Bowl... Garnered numerous other honors including NFL Players Association NFC Most Valuable Player, NFL Films NFL Player of the Year, Football Digest Player of the Year, Winner of the 1994 "Espy" Award for NFL Performer of the Year, Lions Offensive MVP, Lions Quarterback Club Offensive MVP, All Madden Team, Sporting News All-Pro, USA Today All-Pro, College and Pro Football Newsweekly All-Pro, Tom Jackson's Pro Football Update All-Pro Team, Football Digest All-Pro, Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football

Had ten 100-yard games (to push his club-record career total to 40)... Of the nine rushes over 60 yards in the NFL in 1994, Sanders accounted for six of them... Recorded a career-high 44 receptions... Rushed for 120 yards in 27 carries and caught two passes for seven yards in the season opener vs. Atlanta (9/4)... Surpassed the 7,000-yard mark for his career with 194 yards in a career-high 40 carries at Dallas (his 40 carries set a Lions' record and are the most ever against the Cowboys)... His performance earned him NFL Miller Lite Player of the Week and NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors... Posted his third 100-yard game of the season and scored his first two TDs of the season vs. New England (he had a 39-yard TD run which was his longest TD run since Oct. 25, 1992 at Tampa Bay)... One of his TD runs against the Patriots made every highlight reel as he turned one defender around three times... Made the longest run of his career and the second-longest in club history at Tampa Bay (10/2), 85 yards (he lost one of his shoes as he broke through the line but he kept going)... Totaled 166 yards, his third straight 100-yard game, against the Bucs... Broke an 84-yard run vs. Chicago (10/23), the longest run in Silverdome history and the second longest of his career... Rushed for 167 yards in 23 carries against the Bears... Caught a swing pass and broke four tackles for a nine-yard gain to make a first down and keep the drive alive in overtime leading to the game-winning field goal at N.Y. Giants (10/30)... Recorded his sixth 100-yard game of the season with 146 yards, including a 62-yard sprint, against the Giants... Made a season-high eight catches for 51 yards and rushed for 47 yards in 15 carries at Green Bay (11/6)... Set a Lions' record with a career-high 237 rushing yards, with a long run of 69 yards, vs. Tampa Bay (11/13)... Earned NFC Player of the Week Honors for his performance against the Bucs (the second time of the season)... Scored his fourth TD of the season and rushed for 45 yards in 19 carries vs. Buffalo on Thanksgiving Day... Gained 188 yards vs. Green Bay (12/4), to set a new Lions' single-season rushing record, breaking his record of 1,548 set in 1991... Surpassed the 10,000-yard mark in career total yardage against the Packers... Caught his only TD pass of the season and totaled 127 rushing yards at N.Y. Jets (12/10)... Gained 110 yards, his tenth 100-yard game of the season, vs. Minnesota (12/17)... Scored two rushing TDs, one on a 64-yard run, and led team with four catches for 27 yards against the Vikings... Earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors, for the third time of the season, for his effort against Minnesota... Limited to only 52 yards on the ground vs. Miami (12/25), as he fell short in his quest for 2,000 yards... Led team with seven catches for 58 yards against the Dolphins... Held to a career-low -1 yard in 13 rushes and caught three passes for four yards in the playoff game at Green Bay (12/31). 1993: Before suffering an injured left knee in Detroit's Thanksgiving Day game against Chicago, Sanders was leading the NFL with 1,052 yards (Buffalo's Thurman Thomas was a distant second with 962)... The sprained knee forced him to miss the last five games of the regular season, he had only missed two previous games in his career... After five weeks of rest and rehabilitation, Sanders returned with an outstanding performance in the playoff game vs. Green Bay... Voted to start his fifth straight Pro Bowl but did not play due to injury... Was voted the Lions' Quarterback Club Offensive MVP... Rushed 26 times for 90 yards in the season opener vs. Atlanta (9/5), caught two passes for 27 yards... Recorded his first 100-yard game of the season at New England (9/12), with 148 yards in 32 carries... Surpassed the 6,000 yard rushing mark for his career with 90 yards in 22 carries vs. Phoenix (9/26)... Totaled 130 yards and one TD in 22 carries and led team with four catches for 21 yards at Tampa Bay (10/3)... Notched his third 100-yard game of the season with a 101-yard rushing effort vs. Seattle (10/17)... Led team with eight catches for 44 yards and ran for 64 yards in 14 carries, with a season-long run of 42 yards, at Minnesota (10/31)... Posted what was then the second-highest rushing total of his career with 187 yards in 29 carries vs. Tampa Bay (11/7), it was his highest rushing total in the Silverdome... He was named NFL Player of the Week by the PFWA and NFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance vs. the Bucs... Surpassed the 1,000-yard mark for the fifth time in his five seasons with 75 yards in 17 carries at Green Bay (11/21)... Left the game in the third quarter with a knee injury vs. Chicago (11/25), rushed for 63 yards in 16 carries and caught three passes for 11 yards before he was injured... Was inactive for the final five games of the regular season... Started the Playoff game vs. Green Bay (1/8) and turned in a dazzling performance with 169 yards in 27 carries with a long run of 44 yards. 1992: Started his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl... Earned All-NFC honors from UPI, Football News, Pro Football Weekly... Named to the All-Madden Team... Named All-Pro second team by Associated Press, N.E.A. and College and Pro Football Newsweekly... Finished second in the NFC and fourth in the NFL with 1,352 yards... Rushed for 109 yards in 19 carries, including a dazzling 43-yard touchdown run, in the season opener at Chicago (9/6)... Rushed for 122 yards in 21 carries and scored a season-high two TD's, one on a 55-yard sprint, his longest run of the season at Tampa Bay (10/25)... Went over the 5,000-yard mark for his career with 94 rushing yards in 24 carries, ran for one touchdown and caught three passes for 23 yards at Pittsburgh (11/15)... Tallied 104 yards in 19 carries, his seventh 100-yard game of the season and caught one pass for four yards at San Francisco (12/28). 1991: Captured consensus All-Pro honors (AP, UPI, PFWA, Pro Football Weekly, Sporting News, College & Pro Football Weekly, Football Digest, Sports Illustrated's Dr. "Z" Team, Football News and the All-Madden Team)... NFL Players Association NFC Most Valuable Player... Football Digest's "Player of the Year"... Recipient of the Maxwell Football Club's Pro Player of the Year Award... Made his third consecutive start in the Pro-Bowl... 1991 NFL Touchdown Leader (17) and second in league rushing with a club-record 1,548 yards... Led Detroit in scoring for the second straight year... Became the first non-kicker in Lions history to score 100-plus points in a season (102)... His only pre-season action came at Kansas City (8/17) where he sustained a rib injury... That injury kept him on sidelines for Detroit's season-opener at Washington... Rushed a career-high 32 times for 143 yards in win over Miami (9/15)... Picked up 179 yards on 30 tries at Indianapolis (9/22), including TD runs of two and 23 yards... Carried the ball 27 times for 160 yards with a career-long 69-yard TD run versus the Bucs (9/29)... Named the NFC's Offensive Player of the Month for September... Ran for 116 yards and caught a career-high nine passes for 76 yards against the Vikings (10/6), scoring the winning TD on a 15-yard scamper with 36 seconds left (had 69 yards on 10 carries in the fourth quarter as Detroit scored three TDs in final 8 minutes to win)... In win at Minnesota (11/24), rushed for a Detroit-record 220 yards and four TDs, earning NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors... Scored a pair of touchdowns in win over the Jets (12/8)... Posted his team-record eighth 100-yard game of the season with 108 yards and a TD on 26 carries at Buffalo (12/22) as he tied Billy Sims' career TD record with his 47th... Had 69 yards on just 12 carries in the divisional playoff contest as Dallas (1/5) keyed on the All-Pro back, but managed a game-breaking 47-yard TD dash in the fourth quarter... Picked up 44 yards on 11 attempts and caught four passes for 15 yards in the NFC title clash at Washington (1/12). 1990: Everybody's All-Pro — AP, UPI, PFWA, Pro Football Weekly, Sporting News, College & Pro Football Weekly, Sports Illustrated's Dr. "Z" Team, and Football News... Earned his second straight appearance as a Pro Bowl starter... Claimed the NFL rushing title with 1,304 yards on 255 carries (5.1 yard average with 13 TDs)... Became the first Lion to win that title since Byron "Whizzer" White led the league with 514 yards in 1940... Named the Lions' Offensive MVP, Sanders tied the club record for most TDs in a season (16) and, with 96 points, became the first non-kicker to lead Detroit in scoring since Mel Farr and Bill Gambrell each tallied 42 points in 1968... Keyed Detroit's 34-27 win at Minnesota with 82 yards on 15 carries, rushed for one TD and caught the first touchdown pass of his pro career, a 22-yarder from Bob Gagliano... Posted his first 100-yard receiving day with five grabs for 135 yards, and also rushed for 90 yards on 16 carries (5.6 average) and one TD at Kansas City (10/14)... His 225 all-purpose yards tied his career-high... Exploded on Thanksgiving Day against the Broncos (11/22), sprinting for 147 yards on 23 carries (a 6.4 average) with a seven-yard TD, and also caught three passes including a 35-yard TD catch and run... Selected as the Miller Lite Player-of-the-Week for his performance vs. Denver... On Monday Night against the Raiders (12/10), went over the 1,000-yard barrier with a 176-yard effort on 25 carries, scoring on each of Detroit's first two drives... As a result, he was selected the NFC Offensive Player of the Week for the first time in his career... Ran for 135 yards on 19 carries on frozen turf and scored the game-winning TD at Green Bay (12/22)... His 23 yards on nine carries in the finale at Seattle (12/30) gave Sanders his first NFL rushing title. 1989: Sanders re-wrote the Lions' rushing record book in his rookie season: His 1,470 yards eclipsed the club's single-season rushing mark and the rookie mark previously held by Billy Sims while his 14 rushing touchdowns established a new Detroit record... The consensus Rookie of the Year... Outstanding season culminated with a trip to the Pro Bowl... Returned five kickoffs for 118 yards (23.6 avg.)... Signed a contract on Sept. 8th... Two days later in the season opener vs. Phoenix (9/10), Sanders electrified the Silverdome with his third quarter entrance on a 18-yard dash on his first NFL carry... Running a variation of one play, he finished the day with 71 yards and one TD on nine carries (7.9 avg.)... The following week at Giants Stadium, Sanders gained 57 yards on 12 carries and one TD vs. New York (9/17)... He also exploded for 96 yards on six receptions... Cracked the 100-yard barrier for the first time vs. Chicago (9/24) with a 126-yard, one TD-performance in just over two quarters of play (108 yards on 14 carries in the first half)... It was the first time a Lion rushed for 100 yards since Garry James ripped Green Bay (10/12/86) for 140 yards... Left the Chicago game in the third quarter with a hip-pointer... Severely hampered by the hip pointer, rushed for only one yard on five carries vs. Pittsburgh (10/1) and left the contest in the second quarter... Although not 100% (from hip pointer), he bounced back with 99 yards rushing on 23 carries at Minnesota (10/8)... His performance prompted Vikes' Coach Jerry Burns to ask officials to inspect Sanders' jersey to determined if it was slickened with silicon spray... De-activated the following week at Tampa (10-15) due to the lingering hip-pointer... In the return bout with Minnesota (10/22), the Vikings assigned two players to "shadow" Sanders as he rushed for 59 yards on 15 carries... Dazzled the Packers in Milwaukee (10/29) with 184 yards on 30 carries (123 yards on 19 carries in the first half) and also returned two kickoffs for 41 yards... Scored the game-deciding TD vs.

Green Bay (11/12) in a 41-yard all-Barry Sanders drive, including a one-handed 20-yard reception on a third-and-five situation from the Green Bay 25-yard line... Shattered the 1,000-yard barrier with a 145-yard performance on 28 carries on Turkey Day (11/23) in a 13-10 victory over Cleveland (11/23)... Became the first Lion to reach 1,000 yards since Sims in '83... Propelled Detroit to a 27-17 victory at Chicago (12/10) with 120 yards and two TDs on 26 carries... Returned two kickoffs for 59 yards... Earned numerous All-Star honors at the conclusion of the season: Associated Press All-Pro team, College and Pro Football Newsweekly NFL All-Pro team, Pro Football Writers Association All-Pro team, Football Digest All-Pro team, The Sporting News All-Pro team, Pro Football Weekly All-NFL, Pro Football Weekly Offensive Rookie of the Year, AP Offensive Rookie of the Year, Sports Illustrated's "Z" team Rookie of the Year, United Press International NFC Rookie of the Year, The Sporting News Rookie of the Year, NFL Films Rookie of the Year, College and Pro Football Newsweekly Offensive Rookie of the Year, PFWA Rookie of the Year, Football Digest Offensive Rookie of the Year, Football News All-NFC team, UPI All-NFC team, Lions' Offensive MVP and the Lions' Quarterback Club Offensive MVP.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: The winner of the 1988 Heisman Trophy his junior and final season at Oklahoma State, Sanders established 13 NCAA season records... He owns the Cowboys' school record for TDs with 56... Oklahoma State's third all-time leading rusher with 3,797... He lettered twice in football and basketball at North (Wichita) HS... His "P.A.Y.-By-Play" program benefits Oakland County (Mich.) Special Olympics as fans donate a penny for each yard he gained... During the 1992 season the program raised $15,143.03. Donated $200,000 to Paradise Baptist Church in Wichita... In June, 1995, his photo was reproduced 15-stories-high on the side of a Downtown Detroit building in a Nike ad... FULLBACK 30

Nebraska 2nd Year
HT: 6-0 WT: 230
Born 6-23-71 (D-6b in 1995)

GAMES PLAYED: 1995 (16/2) [1/0] TOTAL: (16/2) [1/0]

PRO and 1995: The second of the Lions' two sixth round draft picks in 1995 (192nd overall pick)... An impressive physical specimen, Schlesinger is an avid weightlifter who was a standout wrestler as a youth... May be a bit undersized to play fullback on every snap, but showed solid blocking skills and deceptive speed out of the backfield... Saw extensive action in rookie season as lead blocker for Barry Sanders in short yardage and goal line situations... Started two of the club's first three games at fullback, but watched playing time diminish dramatically soon thereafter when offense began employing three-wide receiver sets on almost every play from scrimmage... Was one of squad's top special teams players throughout the season, notching 15 special teams stops, second on the team... Started at fullback at Minnesota (9/10) and vs. Arizona (9/17), gathering only carry of the year vs. the Vikings (one yard) and only reception of the year (two yards)... Had career-high two special teams tackles in games vs. Cleveland (10/8), vs. Minnesota (11/23), vs. Chicago (12/4) and Jacksonville (12/17).

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: A two-year starter at Nebraska, he rushed for 456 yards in 63 carries (7.2 avg.) and four TDs as a senior, nearly double his career total of 250 yards going into the 1994 season... Earned All-Big Eight honorable mention honors in 1994 in coaches poll... Was a Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight pick the same year with a 3.44 grade point average in industrial technology... Scored two TDs, including the game-winner in the 1995 Orange Bowl as the Cornhuskers sealed the national championship... Lost only three yards rushing in his senior campaign, only four in his career... Set season and career-highs with 84 yards in six carries against Texas Tech as a senior, also rambling for a career-long 41-yard run in the game... Finished his junior year as the team's fifth-leading rusher with 48 carries for 193 yards and one TD... Scored his only TD of the season on a 13-yard run vs. Kansas State, rushing six times for 29 yards in the game... Saw action in a back-up role, carrying the ball 16 times for 57 yards and one TD... Scored the only TD of his sophomore season on a five-yard run against Colorado, his only attempt of the game... Redshirted during the 1991 season... Was a scholarship recruit in 1990 starting at fullback for the junior varsity and was the squad's second-leading rusher with 229 yards and two TDs in the five-game season... Also caught four passes for 42 yards that season... Was a two-time All-State selection at linebacker at Columbus (Duncan, Neb.) High... Also played fullback as a senior, rushing for 1,514 yards and 23 TDs (including nine 100-yard games)... Led the team in tackles as a junior and senior (117 stops)... Was named the Nebraska Defensive Player of the Year as a senior... Played with a group of Nebraska football all-stars in the Down Under Bowl in Sydney, Australia following his senior campaign... Won the 189-pound wrestling state championship twice during his prep career... Spent part of off-season following rookie year finishing his student teaching duties at Park Middle School in Lincoln, Neb. He taught industrial technology to grades 7-9... Was a volunteer speaker at the 1993 Omaha Youth Rap Session... Earned his degree in Industrial Technology Education... Drove in demolition derbies for three years... Married, his wife's name is Karen... Born in Columbus, Nebraska.

GAMES PLAYED: 1992 (16/7); 1993 (16/0) [1/0]; 1994 (16/9) [1/0]; 1995 (16/16) [1/1] TOTAL: (64/30) [3/1]

PRO: Had best year of his career in '95 and appears on the cusp of becoming one of league's best young pass rushers... Flourished in Lions' newly implemented 4-3 alignment last year, shifting to a starting defensive end spot instead of at outside linebacker... Bulked up prior to '95 to more comfortably play on all downs during a game... Despite added weight still has great speed turning the corner... Durable athlete who has yet to miss a single game in four-year pro career... Was the Lions' first of two second-round picks in the 1992 NFL draft. 1995: Stepped into the spotlight as one of club's most consistent producers (starting at right defensive end) in new 4-3 defense... Notched first sack of season (for eight yards) and notched two tackles in season opener at Pittsburgh (9/3). Sack on Mike Tomczak was one of the season's most vicious hits and deposited the back-up quarterback on the sidelines temporarily with bruised ribs... Recorded four tackles at Minnesota (9/10)... Exploded for career-high three sacks (for 17 yards), in addition to defending a pass vs. Arizona (9/17)... Had one tackle and defensed two passes vs. San Francisco (9/25)... Did not register a tackle vs. Cleveland (910/8)... Tallied season-high seven tackles at Green Bay (10/15), in addition to notching a sack and defending a pass... Made one tackle at Washington (10/22)... Notched his sixth sack of the year vs. Green Bay (10/29) late in the fourth quarter, forcing a Brett Favre fumble, which was recovered by Chris Spielman to preserve the win with Packers... Made five tackles (all solo) at Chicago (11/19)... Registered two tackles and sacked Erik Kramer (for seven yards) in Monday Night contest vs. Chicago (12/4)... Made four stops, 1.5 sacks and forced a fumble in Lions' win at Houston (12/10). Turnover led to a Jason Hanson field goal... Credited for six tackles, a sack (for seven yards) and returned a fumble for a TD in regular season finale at Tampa Bay (12/23)... Made one tackle in Detroit's NFC Wild Card playoff game at Philadelphia (12/30). 1994: Started nine games... Had a career-high 44 tackles... Led team with 3.5 sacks in preseason... Recovered a fumble on the opening kickoff at Minnesota and made two tackles on special teams ... Made his first start of the season vs. Chicago (10/23), replacing Pat Swilling at right outside linebacker, made three tackles against the Bears... Totaled four tackles at N.Y. Giants (10/30)... Knocked down a pass and made five tackles at Green Bay (11/6)... Totaled 1.5 sacks for ten yards vs. Tampa Bay (11/13), his first sacks of the season... Made a career-high nine tackles and had one sack at Chicago (11/20)... Started his sixth straight game vs. Buffalo on Thanksgiving Day... Made five tackles, one on special teams and defended a pass vs. Green Bay (12/4)... Contributed to defensive effort that held the Packers to only 58 yards rushing... Started his ninth consecutive game vs. Minnesota (12/17)... In the season finale at Miami (12/25), made three tackles... Saw action as a substitute in playoff contest at Green Bay (12/31), combined with Robert Porcher for the Lions' only sack in the contest. 1993: Was named to the USA Today's "All-Joe" team which recognized underrated players... Played mostly in passing situations... Finished second on the team with eight sacks... Had 1.5 sacks and made two tackles in the season opener vs. Atlanta (9/5)... Recorded one sack, recovered a fumble and made two tackles vs. Phoenix (9/26)... PRO and 1995: Physically imposing tight end who enjoyed very solid rookie campaign, which he capped with his best game of the season (the Lions' NFC Wild Card playoff game at Philadelphia on 12/30), in which he caught five balls for 67 yards and two touchdowns. In that outing, he joined Steve Junker and Willie Green as the only players in Lions' playoff history to catch two TD passes in a game... Selected as one of Football Digest's "Sweet 16 Rookies" for 1995 campaign... Emerging star with almost no limit as to how productive he can become in time... Large frame makes him an especially easy target for Lions' QB Scott Mitchell, who also stands at 6'6"... Utilizes his powerful build after the catch to make it very difficult to be cut down one-on-one... Saw limited action during first six weeks of season, but played more extensively as season wore on, eventually breaking into starting lineup for eight of last nine games... Former junior college basketball player who made great strides in route running and blocking as rookie year progressed... Teams with Herman Moore, Brett Perriman and Johnnie Morton to form arguably the NFL's top pass catching quartet... Did not play collegiate football until 1992... Chosen by the Lions in the third round (70th overall pick) of the 1995 draft... Looked good in '95 preseason, hauling in four balls for 31 yards, including diving four-yard TD grab at New England (8/4)... Used primarily on special teams during Lions' first six games of the year... Playing time increased dramatically after starter Ron Hall suffered a broken leg in game at Green Bay (10/15)... Came off the bench at Washington (10/22), reeling in the first three receptions of his career for 24 yards... Started first career game vs. Green Bay (10/29), latching on to three balls for 27 yards... Caught one ball for six yards at Atlanta (11/5), and displayed his speed by virtually catching Falcons' safety Alton Montgomery on an interception return for touchdown, despite starting the play 20-25 yards behind the 6'0", 209-pound Montgomery... Reeled in the first TD grab of his career, a 17-yarder, vs. Tampa Bay (11/12)... Was good for two catches (for 36 yards) at Chicago (11/19) and (23 yards) vs. Minnesota (11/23)... Caught one ball for six yards vs. Chicago (12/4)... Failed to record a reception at Houston (12/10) as he was held in much of the afternoon picking up Oilers' blitzes... Tallied two receptions for 32 yards, including a career-long of 24 yards, vs. Jacksonville (12/17)... Also grabbed two balls (for 13 yards) at Tampa Bay (12/23) in regular season finale.

STEELERS 23, LIONS 20
at Pittsburgh, September 3, 1995
Attendance: 58,002

The Lions came up short at Three Rivers Stadium, losing to the Steelers, 23-20, on a Norm Johnson 31-yard field goal as time expired. The Lions came back from ten points down to tie the score with just over three minutes to play in the game. RB Barry Sanders ran for a game-high 108 yards on 21 rushes, while WR Herman Moore caught 10 passes for 131 yards and one TD. Defensively, the Lions picked off four passes and forced starting quarterback Neil O'Donnell (fractured finger) out of the game in the first half. Backup Mike Tomczak led the Steelers on a 67-yard, 12 play drive to set up the winning field goal after Jason Hanson tied the score.

VIKINGS 20, LIONS 10
at Minneapolis, September 10, 1995
Attendance: 52,234

The Minnesota Vikings won their ninth straight home opener at the expense of the Detroit Lions, 20-10. An 85-yard deflected TD catch from Warren Moon (19 of 29 for 233 yards and a TD) to Qadry Ismail late in the fourth quarter stretched a three-point Vikings' cushion to an insurmountable 10-point lead. Detroit scored all of its points in the first quarter on a 47-yard Scott Mitchell to Herman Moore TD strike and Jason Hanson's 33-yard field goal. Minnesota's Fuad Reveiz broke the all-time NFL record when he connected on his 30th straight field goal. The game's tide turned with the score 10-10 and the Lions in Viking territory in the third quarter. Minnesota's Ed McDaniel intercepted a pass, to halt the Lions' scoring threat. The Lions could not score again and the Vikings held on for the win.

CARDINALS 20, LIONS 17
at Pontiac, September 17, 1995
Attendance: 58,727

Fifteen penalties, two untimely fumbles and 14 unanswered fourth quarter Arizona points all played a large role in the Lions' 20-17 loss to the Cardinals. Despite notching a season-high seven quarterback sacks and holding Arizona to 230 total yards, the Detroit defense allowed a 17-6 fourth quarter lead disappear, the winning play coming on a 24-yard Dave Krieg (15 of 24 for 158 yards and a TD) to Anthony Edwards scoring strike with 2:35 remaining in the game. The decisive drive was set up after Barry Sanders fumbled for the first time since 1992 (803 total touches in the streak). Trailing 20-17, the Detroit two-minute offense subsequently moved the ball inside the Arizona 40-yard line, but Sanders fumbled again after catching a pass, allowing the Cardinals to run out the clock.

LIONS 27, 49ERS 24
at Pontiac, September 25, 1995
Attendance: 76,236

The Lions upended defending Super Bowl champion San Francisco, 27-24, when 49ers' kicker Doug Brien's 40-yard field goal hit the right upright as time expired. Jason Hanson had connected from 32 yards minutes earlier to put the Lions ahead. A 30-yard Hanson field goal opened the scoring. A one-yard TD sneak by Scott Mitchell stretched the Lions' lead to 10-0. Steve Young hit Nate Singleton to cut the lead to 13-10 at halftime. San Francisco took the lead on a one-yard Derek Loville scoring plunge. Mitchell found Herman Moore on a 20-yard TD toss, then hit Brett Perriman for the two-point conversion, giving the Lions a seven-point cushion at 24-17. John Taylor caught a 26-yard pass to knot the score at 24-24. The Lions then drove into range for the game-winning kick.

LIONS 38, BROWNS 20
at Pontiac, October 8, 1995
Attendance: 74,171

Detroit's quick-striking offense and hard-nosed defense led to a 38-20 win. Barry Sanders' 11-yard run opened the scoring. A 75-yard Sanders TD romp, the longest scoring run of his career, followed. Detroit led 24-3 at halftime as Brett Perriman hauled in the first of his two TD grabs and Jason Hanson boomed a franchise-record 56-yard field goal. Sanders' third TD run of the game made the score 31-3. Vinny Testaverde hit Michael Jackson from 17 yards out to pull the Browns to within 31-10, but another Mitchell-to-Perriman connection followed. A Matt Stover 38-yard field goal and Walter Reeves one-yard TD catch in the final minute closed the scoring.

PACKERS 30, LIONS 21
at Green Bay, October 15, 1995
Attendance: 60,302

Detroit buried itself in a 20-0 halftime hole and despite a strong second half showing, could not catch the streaking Packers, eventually falling 30-21. Green Bay QB Brett Favre engineered the Packers' attack flawlessly throughout as he led the Pack to 20-0 lead at the half. Lions' QB Scott Mitchell sparked the Detroit offense in the third quarter leading the club to two TD drives. But sandwiched between the two scores was a 12-yard Favre to Robert Brooks TD connection, which left the Lions trailing 27-14 heading into the final quarter. Mitchell's third TD toss brought Detroit to within 27-21 early in the fourth quarter, but that was the closest the Lions would get. On the defensive side, LB Chris Spielman did have a stellar outing, tallying a season-high 16 tackles, as did DT Henry Thomas, who chipped in with seven tackles and a sack.

REDSKINS 36, LIONS 30
at Washington D.C., October 22, 1995
Attendance: 52,332

The Lions lost their 17th straight game to the Washington Redskins, 36-30 in overtime as Redskins' CB Darrell Green returned an interception seven yards for a TD less than four minutes into the extra period. The interception was the fourth Lions' turnover of the game, resulting in 23 Redskin points. The Redskins jumped to a 13-3 second quarter lead, but the Lions strung together 17 consecutive points to forge ahead 20-13. The scored was tied 20-20 at the end of three quarters. Each team scored 10 points in the final stanza, setting up overtime and Green's heroics.

LIONS 24, PACKERS 16
at Pontiac, October 29, 1995
Attendance: 73,462

The Detroit defense forced four Packer turnovers, WR Herman Moore (six receptions for 147 yards) notched the first three touchdown game of his career and RB Barry Sanders (22 carries for 167 yards) rambled into the top ten on the NFL's all-time rushing list as the Lions held off Green Bay 24-16 at a soldout Pontiac Silverdome. The Lions took a 21-10 cushion into halftime. Two third quarter field goals sliced the Lions' lead to 21-16, but Jason Hanson offset that effort with a 38-yarder (his 10th field goal in a row) early in the fourth quarter to increase the advantage to 24-16. With the Packers driving deep in Lions' territory, Tracy Scroggins came up big with his team-high sixth sack of the year, forcing a Favre fumble, which Chris Spielman (team-high 14 tackles) pounced on to preserve the win.

FALCONS 34, LIONS 22
at Atlanta, November 5, 1995
Attendance: 49,619

The Detroit Lions spotted the Atlanta Falcons a 27-0 second quarter cushion in the club's first ever visit to the Georgia Dome, then saw their second half comeback bid fall short. The Lions got on the board before halftime, sending the teams into the locker room with the score 27-7. The teams exchanged touchdowns in the third quarter. Scott Mitchell scored his first rushing TD of the season, a 10-yard run, to get the Lions within two touchdowns early in the fourth quarter, but that was as close as the Lions would get. Herman Moore enjoyed another stellar outing in the losing effort as he reeled in nine catches for a career-high 176 yards.

Wayne Fontes became the all-time winningest coach in Lions' history, notching the 56th victory of his career as Detroit held on for a 27-24 win over Tampa Bay. The Lions took advantage of four Buccaneers' turnovers (including two interceptions by Willie Clay) as Brett Perriman (career-high-tying 10 receptions for 125 yards) and Herman Moore (nine catches for 104 yards) both went over the 100-yard mark in receiving yards for the second time in four games. The Bucs held a 17-14 halftime lead. The Lions scored 13 straight points to begin the second half staking themselves to a 27-17 lead with five minutes to go in the game. Tampa Bay sliced the Lions' lead to 27-24 with less than a minute remaining, but an onside kick was recovered by Moore to clinch the Lions' fourth win of the year in five games at the Silverdome.

Quarterback Don Majkowski (15 of 19 for 161 yards and a touchdown), subbing for the injured Scott Mitchell (9 of 12 for 123 yards before leaving the game in the second quarter with a sprained ankle), connected with Herman Moore on an 11-yard pass for the winning score with 2:32 remaining in the contest to give Detroit their first road win of the season, 24-17. The Lions' defense withstood three Bears' possessions in Detroit territory in the fourth quarter without allowing a point and Chicago turned the ball over on downs in the game's final minute at the Lions' 10-yard line. Chicago drew first blood, taking a 7-0 lead but the Lions answered on their next possession and took a 10-7 halftime lead after Jason Hanson kicked a 25-yard field goal on the last play of the first half. After the Bears knotted the score at 10-10, Detroit scored to take a 17-10 lead heading into the fourth quarter at Pontiac, November 23, 1995

Attendance: 74,559

A record-breaking offensive explosion paved the way for a 44-38 win over Minnesota in Detroit's 56th annual Thanksgiving Day game. The 44 points scored are the most since the Lions' 45-3 win over Pittsburgh on Thanksgiving Day, 1983 (Nov. 24). Scott Mitchell set records for most passing yards in a game and most completions and attempts in a season. And for the first time in club history, three players eclipsed the 100-yard mark in receiving yards - Brett Perriman, Johnnie Morton and Herman Moore.

LIONS 27, BEARS 7
at Pontiac, December 4, 1995
Attendance: 77,230

Behind another stellar offensive outing, the Lions staked themselves to a 24-0 lead, cruising to a 27-7 win over Chicago for the club's first seasonal sweep of the Bears since 1983. The win was Detroit's third straight on Monday night. The Lions' offense rolled up over 400 yards of total offense for the sixth time this season. Herman Moore caught a franchise record 14 passes for a career-high 183 yards. Also in the contest, Moore broke Pat Studstill's club record for receiving yards in a season and Mitchell broke Gary Danielson's mark for passing yards in a season. The Lions held a 21-0 advantage at the half and extended the lead to 24-0 on the first possession of the second half. The Bears got on the board on the next possession but that was all the points they would muster. Hanson added a 36-yarder early in the fourth quarter to end the scoring.

LIONS 24, OILERS 17
at Houston, December 10, 1995
Attendance: 35,842

The Lions forced a season-high six Houston turnovers turning three of them into 17 first-half points and held off the Oilers, 24-17, for Detroit's fifth straight win. For the fourth time this year, both Herman Moore and Brett Perriman went over the 100-yard plateau, and Barry Sanders became the 10th player in NFL history to join the 10,000-yard club in career rushing yardage. The Lions took 7-0 lead on a 13-yard pass from Scott Mitchell to Moore . With that score, Mitchell broke Bobby Layne's club record for TD passes in a season. The Lions 24-17 lead in the fourth quarter held up when the Oilers final drive stalled on Detroit's 12-yard line when time expired.

at Pontiac, December 17, 1995
Attendance: 70,204

In the most lopsided regular season win in franchise history (and most lopsided victory in the league this year), the Lions clinched their third straight winning season and set several all-time NFL records. Herman Moore (five catches for 59 yards) and Brett Perriman (six grabs for 49 yards) became the league's most prolific pass-catching tandem ever, breaking the NFL's all-time marks for both most receptions and receiving yards by two teammates in a season. The two also have both grabbed over 100 receptions this season, the first time that has ever happened in NFL history. And Rodney Holman went into the record books as well, playing in his 211th game as a tight end, breaking Jackie Smith's standard.

LIONS 37, BUCCANEERS 10
at Tampa, December 23, 1995
Attendance: 50,049

The Lions steamrolled into the NFL playoffs and past Tampa Bay with a convincing 37-10 win, the club's seventh straight, which equals the longest streak in 33 years (seven straight in 1962). The Lions extended their 17-3 halftime advantage to 27-3 at the end of the third quarter. After Tampa sliced the Lions' lead to 30-10, Scott Mitchell scored on a quarterback sneak from a yard out, to end the scoring. Both Brett Perriman and Herman Moore went over the 100-yard mark in receiving yards for the fifth time this season, with Moore (10 grabs for 105 yards) breaking Cris Carter's (122 catches) NFL mark for receptions in a season with 123.

1995 NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME
EAGLES 58, LIONS 37
at Philadelphia, Dec. 30, 1995
Attendance: 66,492

In the highest scoring playoff game in NFL history, the Eagles converted seven turnovers into 34 points, en route to turning a 7-7 deadlock into a 51-7 margin with 44 unanswered points (31 in the second quarter) to put the contest out of reach. The loss was the Lions third straight opening round playoff exit in as many years.

Dr. Bill Serote's teaching skills make us a better Emergency Center for Oakland County

A good doctor is also a good teacher.

So says Dr. Bill Serote, emergency medicine specialist at North Oakland Medical Centers' Emergency Trauma Center. By the hour, Dr. Serote can be found teaching patients how to soothe a burn. Calm an upset stomach. Or recognize a heart attack.

He calls NOMC's Emergency Center "The safety net for the community" — a place for knowledge, experience and skilled emergency care for everything from chest pain to trauma. So he makes sure that each patient gets individual care. And maybe a lesson or two in compassion.

Knowledge, caring and physicians like Dr. Bill Serote. Simple things that show why emergency medicine is our specialty.

Bill Serote, D.O.
NOMC Emergency Trauma Center Physician
Board-Certified in Emergency Medicine
16 years in emergency medicine

- the area's only state-designated NICU
- 24-hour pediatric emergency care
- a surgical team on-call 24 hours
- trauma care

NOTEWORTHY: DETROIT vs. ARIZONA

- Detroit's series with the Cardinals is the oldest in the history of the Lions' franchise. The first game was played on October 5, 1930 between the Portsmouth Spartans and the Chicago Cardinals.
- The Lions own a 28-17-5 advantage over the Cardinals in the series that dates back to a scoreless tie on October 5, 1930, between the Spartans and the Chicago Cardinals. The Spartans became the Detroit Lions in 1934 and that series kicked off with a 6-0 Lions victory over the Chicago Cardinals on September 30, 1934.
- In all, the Portsmouth Spartans were 2-2-2 vs. the Chicago Cardinals, Detroit registered a 19-9-3 mark against the Cardinals, a 5-4 record over the St. Louis Cardinals, and a 2-2 mark since the Cardinals moved to Phoenix.
- The teams met twice in 1993 with Detroit winning both contests, 26-20 in the Silverdome Sept. 26, and 21-14 in Phoenix Dec. 12.

NOTEWORTHY: DETROIT vs. ATLANTA

- The Lions and Falcons have met in the regular season opener or closer seven times in the last 10 years. The two teams opened or closed the season every year from 1985-89.
- The Lions have dominated the series against the Falcons, earning an 18-6 record. The initial meeting took place on Sept. 25, 1966, Atlanta's inaugural season, with the Lions running away with a 28-10 win. Detroit went on to win the first nine contests in the series.
- The Lions are 11-3 at home (5-0 in Tiger Stadium; 6-3 in the Silverdome). Detroit has won six of the last seven games.
- Falcons' head coach June Jones served as the Lions' quarterbacks and receivers coach in 1989-90. Frank Gansz, the Falcons' assistant head coach/offense, was the Lions' special teams coach from 1989-93, and Darrell "Mouse" Davis, the Falcons' quarterbacks coach, was the Lions' offensive coordinator in 1989-90.

NOTEWORTHY: DETROIT vs. BUFFALO

- Two of the five games have been played on Thanksgiving Day.
- In the 1976 meeting, O.J. Simpson put on one of the greatest individual performances in the history of pro football as he rushed for a then NFL record 273 yards. Simpson's historic Thanksgiving Day performance wasn't enough, though, as the Lions prevailed 27-14.
- Bills' owner Ralph C. Wilson grew up in Detroit and at one time was a Lions' shareholder. He attended the University of Michigan law school. Wilson is he Chairman of Ralph C. Wilson Industries and resides in Michigan.

NOTEWORTHY: DETROIT vs. CINCINNATI

- The Lions and Bengals have met every year in preseason since 1970. The two teams have played 26 preseason games, the second-most the Lions have played against any team, with the Bengals holding a 14-12 series edge.
- In the Lions' November 22, 1992 game at Cincinnati, running back Barry Sanders passed Billy Sims to become the Detroit's all-time leading rusher.
- In the initial meeting of the series, the Lions jumped out to 31-0 halftime lead and never looked back as they trounced the Bengals 38-3. The Detroit defense limited Cincinnati to six first downs and 140 yards on offense. Mel Farr led the Lions with 70 yards on 13 carries.
- An eight-yard TD toss from Greg Landry (now Detroit's QB coach) to Charlie Sanders (now Detroit's receivers coach) with 29 seconds remaining gave the Lions a 23-19 victory at Cincinnati in the 1974 matchup.

NOTEWORTHY: DETROIT vs. DALLAS

- Detroit's first regular season game played in the Pontiac Silverdome was against Dallas. The Cowboys won the Monday Night contest, 36-10.
- The Lions have won five of the last seven meetings with Dallas, not including Detroit's 38-6 win in the 1991 divisional playoff game.
- Lions' running back Barry Sanders set the record for most carries against the Cowboys with 40 (for 194 yards) on September 19, 1994.
- The Lions hold a 5-3 edge at home (4-3 in the Silverdome).
- The Lions' 20-17 overtime win at Dallas was Detroit's first in five tries at Texas Stadium.
- Nick Pietrosante rushed 21 times for 142 yards, including TD runs of 43 and 40 yards, in guiding Detroit to a 23-14 win in 1960, Dallas' inaugural season.
- The Lions snapped their five-game losing streak to the Cowboys in 1981 when Eddie Murray booted a 47-yard field goal as time expired in the game to give Detroit a 27-24 win in the Silverdome — on the controversial "12 men on the field" play by Detroit

NOTEWORTHY: DETROIT vs. DENVER

- Three of the seven regular season games between the Lions and Broncos have been played on Thanksgiving Day and five of the seven games have been in November.
- Denver's 31-27 win in 1974 was the last Thanksgiving Day game played in Tiger Stadium; The Lions moved to the Pontiac Silverdome the next season.
- The Lions have won three of the seven regular-season meetings, including the most recent contest, a 40-27 Thanksgiving Day victory at the Silverdome in 1990.
- The Lions are 1-2 versus the Broncos in preseason contests.
- Detroit posted a 24-20 win on November 7, 1971, the first meeting between the two teams. After a Detroit fumble and interception gave the Broncos a 10-0 halftime lead, the Lions roared back in the second half, scoring on their first two possessions, including a Greg Landry to Earl McCullouch 76-yard bomb that gave the Lions the lead.

NOTEWORTHY: DETROIT vs. HOUSTON

- The Oilers are one of only two teams that the Lions have never played outdoors (Seattle is the other). All seven games have been played indoors, five in the Astrodome and two in the Silverdome.
- The Lions and Oilers have hooked up seven times in the regular season with Houston holding a 4-3 lead. Detroit is 2-3 in Houston and 1-1 in the Pontiac Silverdome.
- The teams first met on Oct. 17, 1971 in Houston, with the Lions coming away the victors, 31-7.
- The Oilers have won four of the last six contests.
- Houston put a damper on Detroit's 1992 Thanksgiving Day festivities with a come-from-behind, 24-21 win over the Lions in the Silverdome. Lorenzo White's eight-yard draw play with 1:17 left sealed the Oilers' 24-21 victory and ended Detroit's three-game Thanksgiving Day win streak.

NOTEWORTHY: DETROIT vs. INDIANAPOLIS

- The Colts have made just one regular season appearance in the Silverdome, coming away with a 10-9 win over the Lions in 1980.
- The clubs have met just twice since the Colts moved from Baltimore. The teams have split the two games played in Indianapolis.
- The last two games between the Lions and Colts were played on September 22. The teams played September 22, 1985, with the Colts taking a 14-6 decision. Detroit returned the favor 33-24 on September 22, 1991.
- On Oct. 20, 1957, Bobby Layne threw a 29-yard TD pass to Howard "Hopalong" Cassidy with only 46 seconds left in the game as Detroit overcame a 27-10 fourth quarter deficit to defeat the Colts, 31-27, in one of the greatest comebacks in team history.

NOTEWORTHY: DETROIT vs. KANSAS CITY

- The Lions and Chiefs have played three of their seven games on Thanksgiving Day, and will meet on Thanksgiving this season.
- The Lions are 2-1 in home games (1-1 in the Silverdome) against the Chiefs and 1-3 in games played in Kansas City.
- The Lions hold a 6-4 preseason edge in the series against the Chiefs and have won five of the last six preseason matchups dating back to the opening of the Pontiac Silverdome in 1975.
- In the inaugural meeting — and the 1971 Thanksgiving Day classic — Errol Mann contributed three field goals while Greg Landry threw TD passes to Charlie Sanders and Earl McCullouch in a 32-21 Lions victory. Running back Ed Podolak scored all three touchdowns for the Chiefs.
- In the first Silverdome meeting between the Lions and Chiefs, Detroit dominated defensively and claimed a 27-10 Thanksgiving win in 1981. The Lions held Kansas City's top-rated rushing attack to just 116 yards and sacked Chief QBs five times.
- Kansas City head coach Marty Schottenheimer was the Lions' linebacker coach in 1978-79.

NOTEWORTHY: DETROIT vs. MIAMI

- Detroit's win over Miami in 1985 was a historic one for the Lions as it marked the first time in NFL history that a club had beaten the Super Bowl participants from the previous year in back-to-back weeks (the Lions had edged the Super Bowl XIX champion San Francisco 49ers, 23-21, only seven days earlier).
- All three of Miami's triumphs over the Lions clinched AFC Eastern Division titles for the Dolphins (in 1973, '79 and '94).
- The first two of the three head coaches in Dolphins' history have ties to Detroit. George Wilson coached the Dolphins from 1966-69; He was an assistant with the Lions from 1949-56 and was the Lions' head coach from 1957-64. Wilson was at the helm when the Lions won their last championship, in 1957. Don Shula was the Dolphins' head coach from 1970-95. He was an assistant, under Wilson, with the Lions from 1960-62.

NOTEWORTHY: DETROIT vs. NEW ENGLAND

- The fastest touchdown in Lions' history was scored against the Patriots. Willie Clay recovered a Patriot fumble on the opening kickoff and returned it 15 yards for a touchdown just 11 seconds into the game, September 12, 1993.
- New England has made just two regular season visits to the Pontiac Silverdome with each team claiming a victory.
- Detroit opened their series vs. the Patriots with a 34-7 victory September 26, 1971 in Schaefer Stadium (now Foxboro Stadium). Steve Owens scored two touchdowns for the Lions, including a 74-yard TD reception from Greg Landry. The Detroit defensive unit contributed to the scoring as Mike Lucci returned an interception 25 yards for a touchdown.
- The Lions are 1-1 at home and 2-2 on the road against the Patriots.
- In 1993, the Lions edged New England in overtime, 19-16, behind the rushing of all-pro running back Barry Sanders and the play of Detroit's special teams, earning Detroit its first 2-0 start since 1985. A 38-yard field goal by Jason Hanson, his fourth successful field goal (22, 26, 23 and 38 yards), was the game-winner.

NOTEWORTHY: DETROIT vs. NEW ORLEANS

- In one of the NFL's all-time amazing finishes, New Orleans kicker Tom Dempsey booted a 63-yard field goal as time expired to give the Saints a 19-17 victory in Tulane Stadium on November 8, 1970. Dempsey's mighty boot still stands as the longest field goal in NFL history.
- New Orleans leads the regular season series, which dates back to a 20-20 tie on November 24, 1968 in Detroit, at 7-6-1.
- The home team has generally had the upper hand in the series with Detroit compiling a 5-2-1 mark at home (2-0-1 at Tiger Stadium; 3-2 in the Silverdome) while New Orleans has managed a 5-1 record at home (2-0 at Tulane Stadium; 3-1 in the Superdome).
- Despite a 310-yard passing effort by Detroit's Greg Landry (27 of 38, 2 TDs), the Saints nipped the Lions 17-16 in the Superdome in 1976. Lions' running back Dexter Bussey led all rushers with 82 yards on eight carries.
- The Lions' Richard Johnson tallied 248 yards receiving (second-most in team history) on eight receptions and earned NFC player of the week honors in Detroit's 21-14 win in 1989.

NOTEWORTHY: DETROIT vs. GIANTS

- The Giants were the opposition in the Lions' first game in Detroit. The Lions won the game, 9-0, September 23, 1934 at University of Detroit Stadium.
- Detroit claimed its first NFL championship with a 26-7 win over the defending champion Giants, December 15, 1935. The contest marks the only time the two teams have met in post-season action.
- The Lions hold an 18-15-1 lead in the series which dates back to a 19-6 New York victory on Nov. 5, 1930, when the Lions were known as the Portsmouth Spartans.
- The Giants have a 10-6-1 (4-1 in Giants Stadium) advantage at home while the Lions have fared better in Detroit, posting a 12-5 mark at home (1-2 in the Silverdome).
- Errol Mann's 37-yard field goal with two seconds remaining gave the Lions a come-from-behind 20-19 win in 1974.
- Lawrence Taylor's 97-yard interception return with 10 minutes remaining in the game was the difference in the 1982 meeting as New York held off the Lions, 13-6.

NOTEWORTHY: DETROIT vs. JETS

- The Lions completed their first undefeated home season since 1962 with a 34-20 win over the Jets, December 8, 1991.
- Lions head coach Wayne Fontes was a 22nd-round future draft pick in the 1961 AFL Draft by the New York Titans (later the Jets) as a defensive back. Fontes played for the Jets in 1962 and returned an interception 83 yards — a Jets' record until 1989.
- Detroit took a 4-3 series lead with an 18-7 win at the Meadowlands in 1994.
- The series dates back to a 28-14 Detroit victory on November 26, 1970 at Tiger Stadium. Detroit has played five of its seven contests at home against the Jets with a record of 3-2 at home (1-0 at Tiger Stadium, 2-2 at the Silverdome).
- The Lions' 34-20 win in 1991 completed Detroit's first undefeated home season since 1962. Barry Sanders put Detroit on top 14-0 early on touchdown runs of 14 and 51 yards, his 14th and 15th rushing touchdowns of the season (Sanders finished the season with a team record 16 rushing TDs).
- Eric Hipple threw for a career-high four touchdowns as the Lions upset New York 31-20 on Thanksgiving Day, 1985.

NOTEWORTHY: DETROIT vs. OAKLAND

- In the first meeting between the two teams, the Lions defeated the Raiders 28-14 on Thanksgiving Day, November 26, 1970. The win was the second of five consecutive wins by the Lions. The five-game winning streak propelled the Lions to a playoff berth, their first since 1957.
- The last time the Lions and Raiders met was December 10, 1990, in a Monday Night game. There were five former Heisman Trophy winners competing in the contest: Barry Sanders and Andre Ware for Detroit; and Marcus Allen, Tim Brown and Bo Jackson for the Raiders. Sanders finished the game with 176 yards on 25 carries while Jackson led the Raiders with 129 yards on 18 carries.
- In the first-ever meeting between the two clubs, the Lions scored 14 fourth-quarter points on the way to knocking off the Raiders, 28-14. Mel Farr rushed 21 times for 121 yards, propelling Detroit from a 14-0 deficit. Greg Landry connected with Charlie Sanders on two of his three scoring passes, while Fred Biletnikoff hauled in seven passes for 109 yards and two touchdowns for the Raiders.
- The Lions shut out the defending World Champion Oakland Raiders, 16-0, on September 27, 1981. Detroit became the first club to whitewash the Raiders in 15 years as the Lions limited Oakland to just 131 yards in total offense. The Detroit defense collected six sacks and safety Jimmy Allen intercepted his fourth pass in as many games. Billy Sims earned his second consecutive 100-yard rushing game with 133 yards while Dexter Bussey passed Altie Taylor as the team's all-time leading rusher. Gary Danielson fractured his left wrist — an injury which would sideline the Detroit quarterback for 10 weeks.

NOTEWORTHY: DETROIT vs. PHILADELPHIA

- The Lions' last tie in a regular season game was against the Eagles (23-23), November, 4, 1984 in the Silverdome.
- The Lions claimed victories in the first four games — and each was a shutout — between Detroit and Philadelphia. The Lions won seven of the first eight meetings. The Eagles own an 8-5-2 record against the Lions in the last 15 regular season meetings.
- Detroit is 5-5-2 in home contests versus the Eagles (1-0-1 in the Silverdome). The Lions hold a 7-4 advantage in regular season games played in Philadelphia.
- In 23 all-time regular season meetings, the Lions have scored 30 or more points just twice (35 points in both 1935 and 1965). Philadelphia, however, has also been limited to two 30+ games (45 in 1948 and 44 in 1979).
- In the most recent regular season meeting (Nov. 16, 1986), the Lion defense played magnificently as it sacked Randall Cunningham 11 times to tie a club record in a 13-11 win. Seven Lion defenders recorded sacks on the day, including four by Keith Ferguson and two and a half by William Gay. A 72-yard TD reception from Joe Ferguson to Jeff Chadwick in the first quarter turned out to be the only TD of the game.

NOTEWORTHY: DETROIT vs. PITTSBURGH

- In the first meeting between the two teams, the Lions beat the Steelers 40-7 behind an NFL-record 426 yards rushing on November 4, 1934 (the Lions' first season in Detroit).. Ernie Caddel led the way as he crossed the goal line three times.
- The Lions won the first four meetings and were 12-4-1 through the first 17 contests, although the Steelers have bounced back to win seven of the last eight outings
- In the 1952 meeting, Bob Hoernschemeyer ran for 107 yards and the Lions, as a team, rushed for 321 yards while limiting the Steelers to minus-three yards rushing in a 31-6 romp at Pittsburgh.
- Detroit passed for a club-record 375 yards — including 364 yards by Bobby Layne — in a wild, 38-21 Detroit win on September 9, 1953.
- Detroit's 45-3 win over the Steelers on November 24, 1983, stands as the Lions' largest winning margin in the history of the Lions' Thanksgiving Day series.
- Lions offensive coordinator Tom Moore spent 13 years (1977-1989) as an assistant coach with the Steelers. During his tenure with in Pittsburgh, the Steelers won Super Bowls XII and XIV.

NOTEWORTHY: DETROIT vs. SAN DIEGO

- The Lions have not played the Chargers in 11 years, the longest current span between games for the Lions against any team. The two teams last met September 30, 1984.
- The Lions won each of the first three meetings (all home games), then dropped the two most recent contests (both played in San Diego).
- Detroit ran up a 34-20 victory over the San Diego Chargers in the first meeting between the two teams (Oct. 22, 1972). Mel Farr ran for two touchdowns and gained 96 yards on 22 carries, helping the Lions rack up 182 rushing yards. Greg Landry also rushed for a TD and added 151 yards passing with one TD pass — a 24-yard strike to Larry Walton (seven receptions, 101 yards). John Hadl made the score appear closer with two late touchdown passes to Gary Garrison.
- In the most recent meeting, the Lions fell to the Chargers, 27-24, at San Diego (Sept. 30, 1984). Billy Sims ran for 119 yards and 2 TDs, including an 81-yard scamper, but his performance coupled with a terrific outing by Gary Danielson wasn't enough for the Lions. Danielson matched San Diego Hall of Fame QB Dan Fouts every step of the way, completing 20 of 25 attempts for 269 yards while Fouts was 22 of 35 for 268 yards. The Chargers forged to a 24-7 halftime lead, but Detroit scored two third-quarter touchdowns to narrow the gap to 24-21.
- Lions' assistant head coach Dave Levy spent nine seasons (1980-88) as an assistant with the Chargers prior to joining the Lions.

NOTEWORTHY: DETROIT vs. SEATTLE

- The Lions opened up a 20-0 lead and rolled to a 41-14 victory over the Seahawks in the first-ever meeting between the two teams (Oct. 24, 1976). Greg Landry led Detroit with three TD passes while Seattle's Jim Zorn was intercepted six times, including two that were returned for touchdowns (Levi Johnson and Lem Barney).
- When the Lions last played the Seahawks, October 17, 1993, the contest marked Detroit's 800th game (including regular season and post-season games) since the Portsmouth Spartans moved to the Motor City in 1934.
- After winning the inaugural game of the series over the Seahawks, 41-14 on October 24, 1976, the Lions dropped four straight contests to Seattle before winning the 1993 meeting.
- The Lions are 1-1 in the Silverdome and 1-3 in the Seattle Kingdome.
- In the 1990 season finale at Seattle, Barry Sanders ran for 23 yards, giving him 1,304 on the season to claim the NFL rushing title.
- The Seahawks drilled Detroit, 37-14, in the third and final game during the 1987 players' strike. In a game played predominately by replacement players, Jeff Kemp passed for 344 yards and four touchdowns while Steve Largent caught 15 passes for 261 yards and three touchdowns.

NOTEWORTHY: DETROIT vs. TAMPA BAY

- On November 13, 1994, Lions running back Barry Sanders rushed for a franchise-record 237 yards (sixth highest total in NFL history). Sanders gained exactly 200 yards in the second half, an NFL record.
- Lions head coach Wayne Fontes began his NFL coaching career with Buccaneers. Fontes spent nine seasons as an assistant in Tampa Bay prior to joining the Lions. He was on John McKay's staff in the first year of the franchise.
- The NFC Central Division rivalry began in Pontiac on November 20, 1977, with a 16-7 Detroit victory. After losing the first three contests to the Lions, the Buccaneers have fought back to narrow the series to 19-17-0.
- In the 16 seasons in which Detroit and Tampa Bay have played twice, one team has come away with a sweep only nine times - Detroit gained bragging rights in 1978, 80, 83, 89 and '95 while Tampa Bay dominated the contests on the other four occasions (1979, 81, 88 and 90).
- The Lions are 11-7 in the series with the Bucs in Pontiac, and are 8-10 in Tampa Stadium.

NOTEWORTHY: DETROIT vs. WASHINGTON

- The Lions have never won in Washington, owning a 0-16 all-time regular season mark in D.C.
- Detroit held a 3-0-0 mark against the Redskins when they played in Boston, including two victories in 1935 on the way to the NFL Championship.
- Washington has won 15 straight regular season contests against Detroit.
- Washington holds a 23-3-0 regular season advantage dating back to Oct. 16, 1938, when the Redskins beat the Lions 7-5.
- Seven of the last eight regular season meetings have been at RFK Stadium. Including post-season games, nine of the last 10 meetings have been played in Washington.
- The teams have met twice in post-season play, the most recent being the NFC Championship game at Washington (Jan. 12, 1992) where the Redskins beat the Lions, 41-10, before winning Super Bowl XXVI two weeks later. The Lions were also on the short end of a 31-7 game played at Washington in the first round of the 1982 playoffs (Jan. 8, 1983) as the Redskins rolled on to the Super Bowl title.

The History Book

A Brief History of the Lions

Detroit welcomed the Lions in 1934, but it was not the area's first look at professional football. In 1920, the Detroit Heralds were a charter member of the American Professional Football Association, which was the original name of the present NFL, but the club folded after two years. Then, the Detroit Panthers appeared in 1925. They also folded after two seasons. In 1928, the Detroit Wolverines were formed, but they failed after just one year.

In 1930, the then 10-year-old National Football League added a franchise from Portsmouth, Ohio, called the Spartans. After four seasons, the team was purchased for $7,952.08 by a group headed by Detroit radio executive George A. Richards and moved to the Motor City.

Playing in the University of Detroit Stadium before average crowds of 16,000 people, the new Detroit Lions won the NFL Championship in their second year, 1935. Under the leadership of Coach "Potsy" Clark and stars like Hall of Famer "Dutch" Clark, Ernie Caddel, George Christensen, "Ace" Gutowsky, Glenn Presnell and "Ox" Emerson, the early Lions established pro football in Detroit. For more than 60 years, they have been an integral part of the Michigan sports scene.

In 1940, Chicagoan Fred Mandel bought the club. Lions' stars of that era were Hall of Famers Bill Dudley and Alex Wojciechowicz, John Green, Byron "Whizzer" White, Frank Sinkwich and "Camp" Wilson. The team was sold eight years later to a group of local businessmen under the leadership of Edwin J. Anderson. The Detroit syndicate controlled the club until 1964 when William Clay Ford became sole owner for a price of $4.5 million.

The Lions dominated the NFL in the 1950s with four division titles and three League championships. Under Head Coach Buddy Parker, the team won back-to-back world crowns in 1952 and 1953, defeating Cleveland in both title games. Stars of those glittering teams were Hall of Famers Bobby Layne, Jack Christiansen, Doak Walker and Lou Creekmur, as well as Les Bingaman, Cloyce Box, Leon Hart and Bob Hoernschemeyer. The Detroit-Cleveland battles of the era were classic confrontations between two giants of the blossoming NFL.

Since their last title in 1957 under the coaching of George Wilson, the Lions have been looking in vain for the top spot. Such performers as Joe Schmidt, Yale Lary, Dick "Night Train" Lane, John Henry Johnson and Lem Barney have been elected to the Hall of Fame. Outstanding players like Wayne Walker, Mike Lucci, Nick Pietrosante, Roger Brown, Terry Barr, Mel Farr, Charlie Sanders, Dexter Bussey, Billy Sims and Doug English have taken their places in the annals of pro football in Detroit.

In 1967, Schmidt began the first of six seasons as head coach of the Lions. His 1970 team made the post-season playoffs, but lost in the first round to Dallas by the baseball-like score of 5-0.

Just prior to the '75 season, the Lions moved into a new, domed stadium in Pontiac, Michigan, a town of 85,000 people located 30 miles north of Detroit. The Silverdome is the world's largest air-supported domed structure and seats over 80,000 spectators under a fiberglass roof.

Monte Clark took control of all football operations as head coach in 1978. Under Clark's direction, the Lions narrowly missed playoff berths in both 1980 and 1981, before finally qualifying in 1982 — the Lions' first playoff appearance since 1970. Detroit captured the NFC Central Division crown in 1983, but stumbled in the first round of the playoffs with a 24-23 loss at San Francisco.

Darryl Rogers took over the Lions' command in 1985 but was replaced on an interim basis by Defensive Coordinator Wayne Fontes in November, 1988, after Rogers' teams had posted a combined 18-40 record. Fontes officially was named the 17th head coach of the Detroit Lions on December 22, 1988.

The Lions "Restored the Roar" in 1991, winning a franchise-record 12 regular season games. Riding a tide of emotion after guard Mike Utley's paralyzing neck injury, Detroit defeated Dallas, 38-6, in the Lions' first Silverdome playoff contest. The victory gave the Lions a berth in the NFC Championship Game, where Detroit fell to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Washington Redskins.

The Lions finished 10-6 in 1993 en route to capturing the NFC Central Division title, and earned a wild-card bid in 1994. The 1995 Lions featured the NFL's top rated offense and won their final seven games to earn a third straight playoff berth. Herman Moore set an NFL record with 123 catches and he and Brett Perriman became the first teammates to each total over 100 catches and the duo set an NFL record for most receiving yards in a season. Scott Mitchell set team records for passing yards, completions and touchdowns. The Lions' Pro Bowl contingent included Herman Moore, Barry Sanders, Kevin Glover and Lomas Brown.

Lions' Thanksgiving Day Series

Dating to 1934, the Detroit Lions have been a proud part of the American celebration of Thanksgiving. G.A. Richards, the first owner of the Detroit Lions, was behind the Lions' inaugural Thanksgiving game in 1934. Richards had purchased the team in 1934 and moved the Lions from Portsmouth, Ohio, to the Motor City. The Lions were the new kids in town and had taken a backseat to the baseball Tigers. Despite the fact that the Lions had lost just one game prior to the Thanksgiving Day game in '34, the largest crowd that season had been just 15,000.

The opponent for the Lions' first Thanksgiving Day game - on Nov. 29, 1934 - was the undefeated, defending World Champion Chicago Bears of George Halas and the rising star of that era, fullback Bronco Nagurski. The game would determine the champion of the Western Division. Richards had convinced the NBC Radio Network to carry the game coast-to-coast (94 stations), and additionally, an estimated 26,000 fans jammed into the University of Detroit Stadium while thousands of disappointed fans were turned away.

The Bears won the inaugural game, 19-16, but a classic was born. Since 1934, the Lions have played 56 Thanksgiving Day games with Detroit leading the series 28-26-2. A total of 2,964,314 fans have witnessed Detroit's 56 Thanksgiving games, including 1,439,773 Silverdome fans (68,561 average) since 1975.

GRIDIRON HEROES

"Gridiron Heroes - The Victory Song of the Detroit Lions."

(Verse)
Hail the colors Blue and Silver
let them wave
Sing their songs and cheer the Gridiron Heroes brave,
Fighting for fame, winning the game,
Dashing to victory as they go.

(Chorus)
Foward down the field,
A charging team that will not yield
And when the Blue and Silver wave,
Stand and cheer the brave,

Rah, Rah, Rah!

Go hard win the game.
With honor you will keep your fame.
Down the field and gain,
A Lion victory!

This & That

The Pontiac Silverdome

The Pontiac Silverdome has been the Detroit Lions' home since 1975. During the past 20 years, the building has hosted several premier events. A freak, late-winter snowstorm on March 4, 1985 caused extensive structural damage to the roof, however, a new canvas and steel-girder reinforced roof was added between March and June of 1985.

The Silverdome has the largest seating capacity (at 80,368) among NFL stadiums. The air-supported and cable-restrained facility is the largest of its kind in the world and is the first successful example of a fiberglass fabric roof system.

Since a 27-24 pre-season game victory over the Kansas City Chiefs on Aug. 23, 1975, the Lions have played 207 games in the Silverdome after moving from their former home at Tiger Stadium in downtown Detroit. The Dallas Cowboys defeated the Lions, 36-10, in the first regular-season game in the building, Oct. 6, 1975. The Lions have posted a 116-89-2 overall record in Pontiac, including a 90-70-1 mark in regular season games (a .559 winning percentage). On January 5, 1992, the Lions defeated the Dallas Cowboys, 38-6, in the first playoff game held at the Silverdome. The victory capped an undefeated home season for the Lions as they finished a perfect 9-0 in games played in the Silverdome.

Though the Silverdome is the Lions' home, the Cincinnati Bengals and the San Francisco 49ers made NFL history in the building. On Jan. 24, 1982, the 49ers defeated the Bengals, 26-21, before a crowd of 81,270 in Super Bowl XVI – the first Super Bowl ever played in a northern U.S. city.

During the summer of 1994, the Silverdome was the site of the first World Cup Soccer match ever played in a domed stadium. New ground was broken as natural grass was brought into the Silverdome for four soccer matches.

The Silverdome was built at a cost of $55.7 million. It was occupied in just 23 months, on time and within budget, from its ground breaking on Sept. 19, 1973. During the roof's reconstruction in 1985, the Teflon-coated fiberglass panels that span the roof (100 in all) were completely replaced, and several structural modifications and safety improvements also were accomplished. The roof was re-inflated by workmen on May 30, 1985.

Lions' Radio

In 1996 , the Detroit Lions begin the first year with flagship station WXYT AM 1270 and the Infinity Broadcasting Corporation. The Lions' radio network will be comprised of 38 stations throughout Michigan and Ohio.

The Lions' broadcasting team again will feature play-by-play man Mark Champion, who begins his eighth year as the voice of the Lions. Detroit radio and television sports personality Jim Brandstatter, who is a former star lineman for the University of Michigan, again will provide the color commentary. Behind the scenes, providing game statistics to Champion and Brandstatter, will be Walter Dell — who is in his 35th season covering the Lions.
